RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF JAMES E. S. PRYOR,

A special meeting of the Bar Association of Washington County was held on the 6th day of February, 1926, and Daniel W. Doub, Alexander R. Hagner and Garland E. Groh, were appointed a committee to prepare and present to the Court a suitable tribute to the memory of James E. S. Pryor, deceased.

The Committee makes the following report:

On the fifth day of February, 1926, James E. S. Pryor, the most aged member of the Bar of Washington County, died at his home #23 East Antietam Street of this City. Mr. Pryor was born at Cavetown, November 6th, 1841, and was a son of Samuel and Margaret (King) Pryor. He began life as a school teacher in Washington County and in 1863 went to Ogle County, Illinois, where to taught a short time, then moved to Madison, Wisconsin, where he enlisted in Company I, First Wisconsin Cavalry, in which he served as a private until the close of the Civil war. He entered the Atlanta Campaign under General Sherman in which he served under General Thomas until the Spring of 1865 and was honorably mustered out July 23rd, 1865. After the close of the war he returned to Washington County and taught school and did surveying. He was a friend of Judge A.K. Syester with whom he studied law, and was admitted to the Bar at the November Term of Court, 1883, being then 42 years of age. The late Colonel Charles A. Little, Clinton D. Hoover and Cyrus Simmons, now of Knoxville, Tenn., were admitted at the same time. Mr. Pryor married in 1870 Miss Amelia J. Dunn and is survived by a daughter, Miss Minnie Pryor, who lived with her father until his death. Mr. Pryor served as City Engineer under Mayor R. J. Halm, Mayor Delamarter, Mayor M. L. Keedy, and Mayor Schindel, serving a total of fourteen years as City Engineer under both Democratic and Republican Administration.

Mr. Pryor was in active practice at the Bar of Washington County from 1883 to the date of his death. He was always careful and pains-taking in his attention to all business trusted to his care. His fidelity and integrity to his clients made him of the most respected members of the Bar. His practice consisted in the equity side of the Court and in the Orphans' Court. He was industrious, faithful and sturdy in the maintenance and advocacy of his convictions of right and always kept in mind the interests of his clients. He lived more than the allotted time for man and was able to be in his law office until within a month of his death.

His long life and success at the Bar should be an inspiration to those who survived him.

RESOLVED, That these resolutions be spread upon the Minutes of this Court and a copy be sent to Miss Minnie Pryor, daughter of the deceased.

Filed June 2, 1926.
