RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF J. AUGUSTINE MASON.

It is fitting and proper that the Court and the Bar of Washington County should meet to pay a proper tribute to the high regard and esteem in which the late Mr. J. Augustine Mason, a distinguished lawyer, was held by the Bar and the community. Mr. Mason, who died on Wednesday afternoon, September 1st, after being ill only a few hours, was the son of Dr. Augustine S. and Mrs. Mary McIntire (Eliason) Mason and was born in Richmond, Va., on August 16th, 1863. Four years later he came to Hagerstown with his parents and here attended the public schools, graduating from the Washington County High School in 1881.

After studying law in the offices of Mr. Francis M. Darby, he was admitted to the Bar at the early age of twenty one years, and thereafter until the time of his death was engaged in active practice, during which he served four years as State's Attorney of this County, and thereafter was City Solicitor of Hagerstown.

The fact that Mr. Mason assisted in the organization of the Peoples National Bank, now the Nicodemus National Bank, and the Security Cement and Lime Company, and was counsel for both corporations as well as the representative of other large business interests, was indicative that his worth as a safe adviser was realized and that his reputation as a careful, painstaking conscientious and learned lawyer was known and appreciated.

As could be expected, Mr. Mason had a large clientele, his personality was such that no one would hesitate to disclose and discuss with him matters of the most intimate character and to his clients he was something more than a legal adviser, he was a person friend ready and willing to share their burdens whether great or small.

Mr. Mason was a man of high ideals, devoted to the profession which he lived to adorn, and while possessing a certain natural dignity and reserve he was always courteous and polite, he, in fact, possessed every qualification of mind and heart essential to the making of a great lawyer and a leader amongst the members of the Bar, and such a position he has occupied for the last twenty years.

While the life of Mr. Mason has not been lived in vain, in that he has left a name and reputation in this community which his family can cherish, and to which members of the Bar can point with pride, nevertheless the death of a man of such ability, usefulness and achievement is a great loss to the Court, to the Bar and to the State.
