August Term of Court is adjourned.

At 2:00 P.M. Memorial Services are held in honor of Judge M.L.Keedy, at which time the following Resolutions were offered:

RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF HONORABLE MARTIN LUTHER KEEDY.

Martin Luther Keedy, was born at Eakle's Mills, Washington County, January 5th, 1858, the son of Joseph E. and Sophia C. Keedy.

His father was a farmer and the son passing his early years on the farm acquired habits of industry which accustomed him to hard work and endurance. He received his elementary education in the public schools of Washington County until sixteen years of age.

In September, 1874, he entered Roanoke College at Salem, Virginia, from which institution he was graduated in 1878, with the degree of Bachelor of Arts. In 1883 Judge Keedy received from the same institution the Master's Degree. He was a close student and while in College did extra work which was accomplished at the expense of his health.

After leaving College Judge Keedy was a teacher in the public Schools of Washington County for four years and read law in the meantime under his uncle, the late H.H. Keedy, Esquire.

In the autumn of 1882 he entered the Law Department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, Michigan, where he continued until January 17th, 1883, when he was examined in open Court at the University town and was admitted to the Michigan Bar. He attended lectures of both junior and senior classes at the same time. Without completing his course at the University he returned to Hagerstown and after being examined by a committee comprising Colonel George Schley, General H. Kyd Douglas and Albert Small he was admitted to the Washington County Bar, March 17th, 1883.

Shortly afterwards in the autumn of 1883 Judge Keedy made his political debut as the Republican nominee for the office of State's Attorney of this County. He was elected over Tryon H. Edwards by a large majority and served creditably for four years. He was nominated for a second term but was defeated at the November election of 1887.

In November, 1889, he was elected a member of the House of Delegates with John H. Harp, Moses Whitson and Lewis C. Remsburg, all Republicans. He served in the session of 1890 and was a leader of the Republican minority of that year.

In 1891 Judge Keedy was nominated by the Republicans for the State Senator but was defeated by David Seibert. In this election the entire Republican county ticket was defeated.

He was a candidate for the nomination of Congressman in 1894 but was defeated by George L. Wellington. He took the disappointment with good grace and labored for the success of his opponent in his own party.

In 1903 he was nominated for the office of Associate Judge of the Fourth Judicial Circuit and was elected and served the full term of fifteen years.

Judge Keedy possessed a thoroughly cultivated and well balanced mind and while he was in practice he was one of the leading attorneys at the Washington County Bar. Both as a public speaker and as an advocate of the Bar he was forcible, logical and entertaining. His cases were carefully prepared before going to trial and he was always familiar with the decisions and law in support of his contentions as well as being thoroughly acquainted with the authorities and decisions that might be introduced by his opponents. He was indefatigable in the interest of his client, and never relaxed when his judgment led him to believe he was right, until the higher Courts had reached a final decision. It may be said of him that fees were a secondary consideration after he had once taken charge of a case. He always adhered firmly to the ethics and dignity of the profession.

After his elevation to the bench he proved himself to be an excellent and efficient judge and watchful that every man, rich or poor had a square deal. In passing sentence upon criminals he always kept in mind justice and the lesson and influence his conclusion must have upon the general public.

A prominent member of our Bar who was intimately acquainted with Judge Keedy made the following appraisal of him as a lawyer and as a judge:

"At the Bar, his quick and keen mind, his accurate knowledge of the law and human nature and his ability in searching out the truth by cross examination made him an opponent to be feared and respected. On the Bench he always displayed the same keenness of perception, accuracy of memory, and clarity of thought which formerly characterized him as an advocate at the Bar. His outstanding characteristic was his unusual ability to understand quickly and to appraise logically the relative importance of facts and evidence. His impatience with subterfuge, delay and repetition occasioned some criticism on the part of the Bar but everyone who knew him admitted his fidelity to duty, his unflagging industry and his conscientiousness."

tious effort at all times to ascertain the truth and to administer the law fairly, impartially and justly."

Judge Keedy was married January 7th, 1885, to Nellie C. Stitt, daughter of Rev. J. B. Stitt, who was a member of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Upon his retirement from the bench a partnership was formed consisting of Judge Keedy, Robert H. McCauley and Edward Oswald, Jr., but due to illhealth Judge Keedy was compelled to retire from active practice shortly thereafter.

He made a thorough study of the disease which threatened his life and sapped his energy. He probably knew more about anaemia which his ailment was pronounced to be, than most members of the medical profession. By sheer persistence and determination he lived for more than fifteen years after his retirement from the bench.

He was an ardent and uncompromising prohibitionist. He was a fluent writer and wrote many articles on the subject of prohibition after his retirement.

Judge Keedy thoroughly believed that hard work was the only road to success and that eminence could only be obtained by close application to the profession. His ideas of his chosen profession can best be expressed in the words of Mr. Justice Storey:

"The law is a scene of such vast extent and intricacy, of such severe logic and nice dependencies that it has always tasked the highest minds to reach even its ordinary boundaries, but eminence can never be attained without the most laborious study united with talent of superior order. There is no royal road to guide us through its labyrinths. These are to be penetrated by skill and mastered by a frequent survey of land marks."

It is with profound sorrow that we make formal announcement to the Court of Judge Keedy's death June 1st, 1934.
