MINUTES AND PROCEEDINGS

AUGUST TERM, 1937

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT

FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY,

IN THE STATE OF MARYLAND

WASHINGTON COUNTY, to wit:

The Minutes and Proceedings of the Circuit Court for Washington County, begun and held at the Court House in Hagerstown, in and for said County, on the First Monday of August, being the 2nd day of the same month, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirty Seven,

Were Present,

HONORABLE FRANK G. WAGAMAN, Associate Judge,

MAX C. MALOTT, ESQUIRE, Sheriff, and

EDWARD OSWALD, Clerk.

May Term of Court is adjourned.

RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF HARVEY R. SPESSARD.

Harvey R. Spessard, a member of this Bar, died on the 4th day of March, 1937, after a prolonged illness. As a lawyer he lived a useful, honorable and ethical life, and it is proper and fitting that some public recognition of the same ought to be taken.

Mr. Spessard entered the practice of law rather late in life, acquired a legal education under difficulties that would have deterred a man less determined and after successfully passing the State Bar examination entered upon the practice of law in Hagerstown and Smithsburg.

He possessed an analytical mind, was a tireless worker, and when propositions were submitted to him his thought, which was the proper one, was that in fairness to a client the solution could only be found in energetic work and in the pursuit of all the different angles and phases of the question before him.

In addition to these attributes, he possessed in the highest degree a sense of honor and fairness, which enabled him to gain and retain the affection and esteem of those with whom he came in contact, whether in the practice of his profession or in the ordinary pursuits of life.

Speaking, therefore, for the Bar Association of Washington County, and in order that the worth of Mr. Spessard may be accorded a permanent record, it is the sense of said Bar Association that in the death of Mr. Spessard it has sustained a distinct loss. He was always ready to co-operate, even when his strength was failing him, in any movement which had for its purpose the furtherance of the interests of the Bar. He was genuinely fond of his chosen profession and practiced the same along lines with which even the most critical could not find fault. He was kind, but firm and courageous, and while persistent and tenacious in holding to a view, he was also amenable to reason and would graciously yield if convinced he was in error.

The passing of such a man does bring genuine distress and a sense of loss to the fellow members of his Bar and to the people who knew him.

It is therefore, the sense and feeling of the Bar Association that the sentiments and thoughts contained herein should be made a matter of permanent record, and to that end and for that purpose the Court is respectfully requested to order the same recorded among the minutes of the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

LEVIN STONEBRAKER
HARVEY M. MILLER
HARRY BRINDLE.

RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF ELIAS B. HARTLE

Resolutions on the death of Elias B. Hartle, Esquire, prepared by the Committee Scott M. Wolfinger, D. Angle Wolfinger and Joseph D. Mish.

To the Honorable the Judges of the Circuit Court for Washington County:

The Committee appointed at the meeting of the Washington County Bar Association to prepare and report suitable resolutions on the death of Elias B. Hartle, Esquire, late member of the Washington County Bar, beg leave to submit the following resolutions and ask that they be spread on the Minutes of the Court that it may perpetuate their appreciation of his professional career and remain as a record of their sorrow over his death.

RESOLVED: That in the death of Elias B. Hartle the Bar of Washington County has suffered an irreparable loss in being deprived of his able and efficient aid in the performance of the varied and responsible duties he was called upon to discharge as a member of this Bar. Our late departed Brother achieved an enviable reputation for his knowledge of the law and its application and for many years he was recognized as a leading member of the profession. His sincerity and honesty commanded the respect, confidence and admiration of every member of the Bar. He served a term as President of the Bar Association and at all times discharged his duties with credit to himself and to the profession of which he was a member. Both as a lawyer and a man he has left upon us who survive him pleasant memories and we now pray the Court to order this memorial of our deceased Brother to be entered upon its minutes.

RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF DAVID A. ROBB

David A. Robb was born in Cumberland, Maryland, on June 2, 1875, a son of Charles and Josephine N. Robb. He attended the Public Schools of Allegany County and pursued his legal studies in the law office of Ferdinand Williams, who later became one of the associate judges of this Judicial Circuit. David A. Robb was admitted to the Bar on November 13, 1896 and was engaged continuously in the practice of law in Allegany County from the time of his admission to the Bar until he was appointed Associate Judge of the Fourth Judicial Circuit of Maryland to succeed Judge Albert A. Doub, who retired April 11, 1935. He was appointed City Attorney for Cumberland in 1902, served two years, was re-appointed in 1916, but resigned shortly thereafter. In 1907 he was elected States Attorney for Allegany County, served his full term, and in 1921 was elected to the State Senate of which body he was a member for four years. Judge Robb was an active Republican and took an active interest in the affairs and conduct of his party. He was associated with Chief Judge D. Lindley Sloan in the practice of law before Judge Sloan became Judge, and was at the same time actively interested in a number of commercial and financial enterprises of Allegany County. He organized the Dime Savings Bank of Cumberland in 1912 and served as a director until it merged into the Liberty Trust Company, in which organization he was also an officer. He was also a director and stockholder in other corporations of the City of Cumberland and Allegany County.

Judge Robb was a man of strong convictions, and an earnest advocate of the strict enforcement of the Prohibition Law. He was an able lawyer and took great interest in his profession. His courtesy of manner, his consideration of the rights of others, his industry in research of the law, and his able presentation of legal questions earned him the unqualified respect and admiration of his associates among the Bar and on the Bench.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Cumberland and was connected with various Fraternal Organizations, namely The Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, the Knights of Pythias, and Cumberland Lodge No. 63, B.P.O. Elks.

Judge Robb was survived by his widow, who was Miss Blanche Stalling of Cumberland, and one daughter, Nancy Josephine Robb, two sisters, Mrs. Frank W. King and Miss Mary H. Robb, and one brother, William B. Robb, all of whom reside in Cumberland, Maryland.

Judge Robb only served as Judge from April 11, 1935 to April 27, 1937, but in that short time, he evidenced not only a thorough knowledge of the law, but that rarer quality of tolerance, impartiality, justice and equity in its administration, thereby earning for himself the affection of the Bar and the public. He was the possessor of a most kindly and friendly disposition and enjoyed to the fullest extent the associations with the Members of the Bar whenever that situation was possible. The Members of the Bar also found in him a friend with whom they did not hesitate to consult and present their various difficulties and always received in return the most kindly consideration. Therefore, his sudden death came as a distinct shock to the Members of the Washington County Bar and his loss to them will be keenly felt in the future as friendly recollections of his associations will be recalled from time to time.

Your Committee moves that these Resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Court and that a copy of the same be sent by the Clerk of this Court to Mrs. David A. Robb, with the expression of the sympathy of the Bar in her bereavement.

Respectfully submitted,

Daniel W. Doub
