2. That there is not any use of Knights to be in the Panel of the Grand Jury, for that if they be Gentlemen of unquestionable integrity, honour & fidelity, the law is satisfied with them, and the law requires that they should be persons of such Repute that there may not be the least ground of fear that they will be corrupted, therefore

3. It may be brought in this province.
It must be brought in a Court where the Record of the first Verdict remaineth & not elsewhere. Brook, Tit Attaint 21. 5. 3. 10. 10 Ass. pl. 4.

4. It may be brought in this Province supposing it to be but one County and the severall Counties as so many Hundreds, out of which the Grand Jury must come.
The Words of the Writ of Attaint directed to the Sheriffs &c: Et diligenter inquiras qui fuerunt Juratores primae inquisitionis and by this Writ he must distrain them if they be living, by their Lands to appear &c: if they have not any thing whereby they may be distrained, or if they be dead the Sheriff must Return this upon his Writ, 34 Ass: pl. 6. And this Writ of Attaint may be maintained as long as any two of the petty Jury are living, 2 H: 4. 18. 12. H: 4. 10. Br Attaint folio 70: Vide Bro. Tit Attaint folio 73.
4 Mi Nota dicitur que Jur inform fait par le Roy que pailer Jur issue trye, le Roy ne le informer Navera Attaint quad le informor nest pleyn m: party & quant le def: ad respond, le Attorney le Roy reply, pur le Roy et Nul puis mon con est puis del informor et ideo turn the taulter Navera Attaint.

I am of the same Opinion with this Reporter.

Wm Sent

1. When a Man sues a Writ of Error upon an erroneous Judgmt. if he sues out a Scire facias ad audiendum Errores, he cannot after that Assign any Error which is matter of Fact. Rolls Tit Error (H) 762.

2. The Assign Matter of Fact for Error a Sci: fa: shall be granted, 18 H: 6. 19.
And it seemeth to me that upon the Return of the Sci: fac: & the Appearance of the Def: thereupon in that Court where the Writ of Error is returnable, and where the Error is Assigned the Plaintiffs & Def: shall joyne issue, which issue must be fait to —