RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF JESSE O. SNYDER

Jesse O. Snyder was born June 23, 1869 and died February 10, 1941 aged 71 years, 8 months and 17 days. His grandfather Leonard Snyder was a farmer of Clearspring District on the "Poplar Hall Farm" near Clearspring now the property of Jesse O. Snyder and his brother William Firey Snyder, Leonard Snyder died young leaving one son, John T. Snyder, the father of Jesse O. Snyder.

John T. Snyder was born August 6, 1830 and died August 23, 1895. When a boy he came to Clearspring and entered the store of Jeremiah Mason and Jonathan Loose. He remained in their employ until April 1, 1860 when he bought out the store and entered into partnership with Mr. Bovey under the name of Snyder and Bovey; this continued two years when the firm changed to Snyder and Miller and was continued until 1888 when he bought out Mr. Miller and took his son, Charles L. Snyder, into partnership and continued business under the name of John T. Snyder and Son. It was the largest store in Clearspring and its uniform success was due to the courage, activity and good management of Mr. Snyder.

Jesse O. Snyder was educated in the public schools of Clearspring and has Professor Isaac Sprecker his tutor in preparing for entrance to Franklin and Marshall College of Lancaster, Pennsylvania. He completed his course of study in 1891 and then studied law with General Henry Kyd Douglas, one of the distinguished lawyers of Hagerstown, and was admitted to the Bar in December 24, 1892. He then entered the practice of law in Hagerstown and also maintained a law office in Clearspring where he spent the end of each week and soon established himself as a capable young lawyer. He soon became Attorney for S. M. Bloom and Company, the leading wholesale merchants of Hagerstown at that time and also became Attorney for the Second National Bank of Hagerstown and continued to hold that position until his death on February 10, 1941. Mr. Snyder inherited from his father John T. Snyder, business ability and sagacity and his success in his investments and in the investments of his clients was due to the fact that he was a constant student of the law and was a safe advisor and spent his time in keeping his clients out of litigation and therefore he rarely appeared in Court in trial of cases but he was Counsel in some of the most important cases tried in Court while he was a member of the Bar. He was buried in the family lot in Rose Hill Cemetery along the State Road leading from Hagerstown to Clearspring where his parents and members of his family are buried. He led an active and useful life and was held in high esteem by the Courts and the members of his profession.

RESOLUTIONS PRESENTED BY THE WASHINGTON COUNTY
BAR ASSOCIATION RELATING TO THE DEATH OF THE HONORABLE FRANK G. WAGAMAN

The Washington County Barr Association in the performance of a sad duty officially directs the attention of this Court to the death of the late Honorable Frank G. Wagaman on the 12th day of November, A.D., 1941. The late Jurist was born in Beaver Creek District of this County on the 15th day of February, 1877, and at the time of his death therefore was of the age of 64 years. He was the youngest child of the union of John and Cordelia (Gantz) Wagaman and, (except for a brief residence in Frederick County), spent his entire life in this County.

He was educated in the public schools of this County graduating from what was known as the Male High Scholl and Subsequently gained a degree from St. Johns College, Annapolis, Maryland. After his graduation following what seemed to be a general practice of many illustrious members of this Bar, he taught school in both Washington County and Frederick County, although only for a short period, his admission to the Bar being on January 8th, 1904, after having studied law in the office of his brother, the late Charles D. Wagaman.

Immediately after his admission to the Bar he engaged in the practice of law with his said brother, such practice as a firm continuing until the said Charles D. Wagaman accepted an appointment as Chairman of the State Accident Commission of this State, and thereafter until he was elected as an Associate member of this Court in November, 1919, he continued the practice of law.

As above stated his first election to the bench occurred in 1919 for the usual term of fifteen years and he was subsequently re-elected in November, 1934, for an additional term and continued to serve until he resigned on January 1st, 1941. His resignation as a member of this Court became effective on January 1st of this year, the same being because of ill-health, notwithstanding which however the urge to continue to be active was so strong that he again entered the practice of his profession and continued until stricken by his last illness.

As a single tribute to the efficiency and esteem in which he was held in this Judicial Circuit it is more than worthy of note that at the time of his second election no opponent of the opposite party was selected to run against him.

During his practice and before his elevation to the Bench, he not only engaged in many trials at nisi prius but frequently appeared before the Appellate Court of this State and to show and indicate the range of his activities it might be stated that he was also admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the U. S. in 1916 and the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in 1914.

It was therefore for a period of thirty-seven (37) years that the late Judge Wagaman was engaged either in the active practice of law or in administering justice as one of the members of the Court. By those of the profession who remember him in actual practice, he was most highly regarded and as a trial lawyer he was excelled by none, and his fame and reputation was not confined to Washington County or to this Judicial Circuit but was generally recognized throughout the State.

He brought to the trial of cases a keen mind, good judgment of human nature and ability to meet successfully all developments at the trial table and the labor he expended in the preparation of cases in which he was interested last long into the nights.

Although physically frail he could be well characterized as a mental giant, and his power and ability to labor long and intelligently in the solution of the many problems presented to him in his extensive practice was something not only to marvel at but to greatly admire and stands out as a worthy example to be followed by each and every practicing attorney of this Bar.

When it came to the question of the selection of an associate Judge of this Circuit in 1919 it was generally thought that this Community as well as the adjoining Counties of Alleghany and Garrett were particularly fortunate in having available such desirable and outstanding material and the estimate that was then placed upon the late Jurist by his fellow members of the Bar and by the people generally was shown with the lapse of time to be fully warranted and justified.

He brought to the discharge of his duties as a Judge not only a ripe experience and ability to work and a desire to honestly and humanly administer justice but in addition to that a trait of character which a Judge of nisi prius can never be great without, that is, a kindness of spirit and a wish and desire to avoid hurting or injuring anyone.

His labors as a Jurist were lightened and made easier by the fact that from the time of his admission to the Bar until his elevation to the Bench he and the authorities were constant companions but this again inured to the benefit of the parties litigant.

It appears to us that it has been the lot or good fortune of comparatively few men to have lived as full and complete a life as the late Frank G. Wagaman, whether you approach the same from the standpoint of his practice, his activities as a Judge, his home life, or his church connections, all bristle with what most worth while men desire.

He was a member of the First Christian Church of Hagerstown and taught the Men's Bible Class in the Sunday School for over ten years. In his lodge connections he was a 32nd Degree Mason, a member of the Tall Cedars of Lebanon and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

He is survived by a widow, Mary E. Wagaman, and four children, John Wagaman, Charles F. Wagaman, Robert E. Wagaman and Mrs. Elizabeth Hartsock, and a brother John E. Wagaman.

In brief, Judge Wagaman was a useful citizen in this community, an able lawyer, a conscientious Judge, a devoted Husband and father, a Loyal church member and sincere friend.

RESOLUTIONS PRESENTED BY THE WASHINGTON COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION RELATING TO THE DEATH OF SCOTT M. WOLFINGER

TO THE HONORABLE, THE JUDGES OF THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY:

The members of the Bar for Washington County pray your Honors to accept the following memorial upon the death of their late brother, Scott M. Wolfinger, and to order the same to be spread on the minutes of the Court that it may perpetuate their appreciation of his professional career and remain as a record of their sorrow over his death.

Mr. Wolfinger was born on the 24th day of March, 1875, in Chewsville Election District, Washington County, Maryland, He was the son of William H.H. Wolfinger, a well known blacksmith, and was educated and graduated at St. John's College of Annapolis, Maryland, He attended St. John's and while not in the same class but at the same time that the Honorable Frank G. Wagaman attended, whose memorial services are being held today.

He studied law in the office of the late Honorable M. L. Keedy, later and Associate Judge of the Fourth Judicial Circuit, and was admitted to practice on the 26th day of March, A.D. 1897. He, early in life, displayed the characteristics of being an able, pleasing and effective public speaker and became unquestionably one of the outstanding orators to the Bar of Western Maryland. After a very spirited campaign in the Fall of 1911 he was elected to the office of State's Attorney, his opponent being Mr. Albert J. Long, a member of this Bar, who had served one term some years prior in this office. He was well remembered for his zealous, active administration. He practiced law in his early days with Mr. Ernest Hoffman, but the greater portion of his active career as an attorney was spent by himself.

He was a great reader, very fond of mingling with the members of the Bar, officers and occupants of the Court House and discussing the topics of the day. He was a staunch Republican, an active farmer and interested in the raising of pure bred live stock.

He left remaining at the time of his death his widow who was _____ Spielman, and two sons, William Wolfinger, of this County, and Richard Wolfinger, of near Harrisburg, Pa.

Be it further resolved, that as a tribute of respect to our departed brother these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of this Court and that a copy thereof be published and that an engrossed copy be presented to the family or our departed brother.

HOWARD P. HARTMAN

RESOLUTIONS UPON THE DEATH OF WORTHINGTON PERRY WACHTER

Worthington Perry Wachter was born at Ceresville, Frederick County, Maryland, on May 30th, 1881, and obtained his elementary education in the public schools of that county and high school at Walkersville, Maryland. Later he attended Roanoke College, Salem, Virginia, and received his A.B. degree there in 1902.

For nine years after his graduation from college he was a teacher in the public schools in Washington County and served as principal of the Sharpsburg and Boonsboro public schools as well as other schools in the County. He also served as deputy sheriff of Washington County and tax collector of said county for the years 1914 and 1915. He later served as secretary to the State Industrial Accident Commission of Maryland until January 1921 when he resigned in order to return to Hagerstown and engage in the practice of law. While acting as secretary to the State Industrial Accident Commission of Maryland Mr. Wachter studied law at the University of Maryland and received his Bachelor of Laws degree therefrom in 1920, and was admitted to the bar of this State. He was a member and past president of the Washington County Bar Association and was also a member of the Maryland State Bar Association.

Mr. Wachter was very actively engaged in the practice of law and especially in cases involving the Workmen's Compensation Law in which he was considered one of the most outstanding authorities in this State. He was well known to the majority of the members of the bar of this state and was by all of them highly regarded. His counsel, advice and good judgment was frequently sought especially by many of the younger men of the bar and his advice thereon was freely given. He was always considered by all who knew him as one of the strictest observers to the ethics of the profession. He loved the practice of law and enjoyed a reputation as a very capable, sound legal adviser and good trial lawyer. He was a public speaker of great force and experience and his services were often sought by various organizations in this state and elsewhere.

Mr. Wachter was also very active in fraternal work and during 1932 and 1933 served as Great Inchoonee of the Great Council of the Improved Order of Red Men of the United States. He was also past Illustrious Potentate of Ali Ghan Temple, Mystic Shrine, Cumberland, Maryland. He was a 32nd degree Scottish Rite Mason; he was past worthy patron of Queen Esther Chapter No. 3 Order of Eastern Star; past worthy grand patron of the Grand chapter of Maryland as well as past grand patriarch of the Grand Encampment of Maryland of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and a member of the Patriarchs Militant. He also served as commander of St. Bernard's Commandery, Knights Templar, Hagerstown. He was also a very active member of the Junior Order United American Mechanics as well as the Loyal Order of Moose. He was a charter member of the Hagerstown Lions Club serving both as president of the Local club and District Governor.

On June 9th, 1906, Mr. Wachter was united in Marriage to Miss Maude C. Young of Boonsboro, Maryland, and as the result of said Marriage three children survive. He was a devoted husband and father.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the Washington County Bar Association that in the death of Worthington Perry Wachter this organization as well as all other organizations with which he was identified and the community and state have suffered the loss of an outstanding, public spirited and respected citizen and friend whose high ideals, excellent character and ethical conduct and true friendship shall be a cherished memory to his many friends and fraternal brothers.

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to the members of his family.

And it is moved that an appropriate minute of these proceedings be spread upon the minutes of this Court.
