RESOLUTIONS

Martin L. Ingram, son of David Elbert and Margaret Hoffmaster Ingram, was born in Washington County, Maryland, on January 13th, 1900. After attending public schools of Washington County, he pursued his education at Johns Hopkins University and later secured his degree in law from the Dickinson School of Law in Carlisle, Pennsylvania. While a student at Johns Hopkins during World War I, he entered the service as a member of the military unit of students formed there.

After his graduation from Law School, Mr. Ingram entered into an active career of politics which resulted in his being elected to the Maryland Legislature in 1927 and, thereafter, serving three terms as State's Attorney for Washington County. Before running for this office, he served as County Investigator under the late State's Attorney J. Lloyd Harshman. After completing his third term as State's Attorney and at the Time of his death, he was serving as a Trial Magistrate in Hagerstown.

He was active in civic and community affairs, a member of the Funkstown Post of American Legion, Funkstown Fire Company, Tall Cedars of Lebanon, Friendship Lodge AF and AM, Hagerstown Lions Club, Hagerstown Lodge Fraternal Order of Police, Moose, Eagles and the Washington County Bar ( of which he was past-president). He also was a director and secretary of the Volunteers of America and lent his able assistance to the successful promotion of this worthy charitable institution. He was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church in Hagerstown, prominent in its affairs and served on the Church Council.

Mr. Ingram died on December 25th, 1951, at the age of Fifty-One years, leaving surviving his wife, Katharine Neikirk Ingram, daughter, Barbara Katharine Ingram, a sister, brother, and several nieces and nephews.

He had wide experience as a trial lawyer and was noted for his adeptness in examination of witnesses and Logical arguments to juries. He was a person of calm and even temper, possessing a keen sense of humor; and because of his integrity, ability and devotion to the higher ideals of the legal profession, stood out as a leader of the Bar of Washington County. It can truly be said that there was never a More popular member of this organization.

Because of his warm, generous and charitable nature, together with his kind and amiable disposition, Mr. Ingram acquired a wide circle of friends. His outstanding personality was typically exemplified by his sense of fairness and kindness. This was particularly evidenced by the fact that, after successfully prosecuting many hardened criminals, few bore him ill will or rancor thereafter; and many, upon their release from incarceration, sought his advice and guidance.

We of the Washington County Bar have lost a member beloved by all; one, who, in the trial of litigation and a State's Attorney, was always a fair and worthy opponent.

Now, therefore, be it resolved that this tribute be adopted unanimously as a resolution commemorating the passing of Martin L. Ingram, that a copy thereof be spread upon the minutes of this Court, and a copy to the family of our deceased friend.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

D. K. McLAUGHLIN
