ances to Elizabeth Nicholson Noel, daughter of Dr. Perry E. and Sarah Noel. Daniel [illegible] Hopper, Henry Delaney, free [illegible], William and Esther Chamber. William Hindman, infant son of Esther and Dr. John Hindman, deceased, and Mrs. Nicholson's grandson, Elizabeth Hindman, her granddaughter, Jacob Hindman, William Harper and later to Michael Blackiston and Richard Newnam of lots in the town. These were one acre each in extent. Joseph Hopper Nicholson also owned a large part of the town site and transferred the following property. Lot No. 6 to William and Edward Clarton, part of lot No. 20 to Richard Newnam, part of lots No. 14 and 15 to William Hackett and parts of the same to James Wright. James Kennard owned Lot No. 16. In 1802, Judge Lemuel Purnell purchased from John Field the Carradin's lot formerly owned by John Pracce. This lot was opposite the public property on the east side of the road and was Judge Purnell's home for "sixty years." It was last tenanted by Charles Q. Snyder, who purchased [illegible] Mrs. [illegible] Mitchell [illegible] property. Mr. Mitchell married another Mr. [illegible] [illegible] for [illegible] years in the [illegible] Judge Purnell paid [illegible] H. Nicholson [illegible] the [illegible] who [illegible] marked [illegible]

Notes From Town Records

[illegible] Lesake, William Legg, James Meredith, E. Perry Noel, Elizabeth Nicholson, Joseph H. Nicholson, William Nicholson, John Neavitt, Mary Nicholson, John and David Nichols, William C. Pratt's heirs, William Pearce, John Quimby, Richard Edgaward, Emory Sudler, Edmund Skegg's heirs, Joseph Thompson, John Thompson, Dr. John Thomas, Dr. John Wells, Matthew Wilkins, Samuel T. Wright, James Harper, John Boone, Thomas Wick[illegible] Pearce's lot No. 37 [illegible] north was valued highest at $3,200, one acre being improved. Elizabeth [illegible] ket house had not been finished by [illegible] when the commissioners contracted for carpenter work with Joseph Harris for 15 pounds. On July [illegible] 1798, Benjamin Skinner was named as wood corder and Philemon Murphy as clerk to the market, the latter's annual salary being put at 10 pounds less that $[illegible]. April 7, 1799, found Samuel Turbutt Wright succeeding Emory Sudler, who had removed, as town commissioner, and Perry E. Noel replacing William Hopper, who resigned. The assessment of this year's notes [illegible] James O'Brion and Zebulon Skinner for the town and recommended that owners [illegible] make citizen keep watch two nights in each week, the citizens to share in the duty of guard duty. The hope of catching the malefactor. The board also passed a resolution appointing John Cain, clerk of the market and town bailiff, in an altercation with Joseph H. Nicholson over some [illegible]

A Chesterfield Avenue Beauty Spot

Scene along this pretty Centreville thoroughfare. Homes of Chas. M. West and Spencer Wright

James Harper having died, John Cain was named as market clerk, wood corder and bailiff on January 2, 1802. The rate of Judge Lemuel Purnell as a property owner first appears on the assessment of this year. He owned Lot No. 1 south, one acre improved, valued at $2,000. On May 22, Mr. Purnell was elected town commissioner to succeed James Kennard, deceased, and John W. Hackett was chosen in place of Joseph H. Nicholson. January [illegible] 1802, Talbott Betton was elected town clerk in place of John S. Betton, deceased, and William Harper was chosen commissioner to succeed Dr. John Wells, who had removed to Baltimore. Under an act of Assembly passed at the November session, 1802, the commissioners on February [illegible] 1803, adopted a set of by-laws and ordinance relating to the sale of liquors, keeping stock off the streets, dogs running in the street, the [illegible] of horses, etc.

[illegible] market clerk [illegible] town [illegible] water [illegible] By [illegible] property of the [illegible] spirits [illegible] late [illegible] Evans, who [illegible] decided [illegible] of centreville. They had come to [illegible] that [illegible] town [illegible]

Times Of Colonial Days

[illegible] Edward Chetham [illegible] during [illegible] John Cain, the town bailiff, was [illegible] W. Hackett succeeded him. In [illegible] Richard Newnam appeared [illegible] Town lot. In [illegible] the Centreville [illegible] for [illegible] Hopper [illegible] Hackett [illegible]

April [illegible] Richard Place [illegible] was appointed [illegible] Morrison [illegible] clerk, bailiff and wood corder, etc. [illegible] Place [illegible] ordinance of [illegible] Wright [illegible] Hackett [illegible] Henry Hackett [illegible] Hopper [illegible]

A Survivor of the Long Ago

Home of Mrs. [illegible] on Water Street. Back of Centreville Offices Buildings

Queen Annes County's
ONLY DEPARTMENT STOR

Our store is stocked with the newest and most up-to-date styles at all seasons of the year

Why shop in the cities when you can get what you want, the way you want, when you want it?

LADIES' AND GENTS' CLOTHING DRY GOODS OF ALL K

Styles for Winter, Spring, Summer and Fall Seasons.

Including Silks and Dress Garment Good of Every Description.

Clothing for Men, Young Men and Boys

In this line we constantly endeavor to excel. You can be sure that you will get the best quality least money at all times. Our assortment is always complete.

The Ladies' Department

In this department will be found everything in season and in strictly the most up-to-the-minute d You can always get the most of the best for the least here.

"THE BUSY STORE"

ALFRED GREEN

PHONE CENTRE