6th Int.

As far as my knowledge goes, he left no children but brothers and sisters and their descendants, as his heirs at Law. Jacob Jones, who is dead John Harp, father of Daniel V. Harp; & Joshua Harp are also dead. Jacob Jones left the following children, to wit. Malinda Lynn; Mrs. — Huffer, Mrs. — Nickert and Mrs Kelly, all adults, and all residing in Washington County, Maryland. John Harp left the following children, to wit Daniel V Harp, adult & residing in Frederick County Maryland, Joshua Harp, adult, residing in Washington County, Maryland, and Lydia, wife of Cyrus Montzahn; Caroline, wife of Andrew Eldridge, Elizabeth, wife of Alonson F Flook; and Mary A., wife of Lewis Hoot, all adults, and all residing in Frederick County Maryland.

7th Int.

Said real estate cannot be divided amongst the parties interested, without great loss and injury, and it would for the benefit & advantage of all the parties concerned, adults as well as infants, that said real estate should be sold, and the proceeds thereof distributed amongst the parties entitled. Said Real Estate consists of about thirty one (31) acres of arable land, and, if divided the parcels would be too small for advantageous cultivation or sale.

Whereupon there being no other witnesses present to be examined, and no further time being required for the production of evidence, the Commissioner closed the said Commission, & herewith returns the same under his hand and seal, on this 6th day of October A. D 1879
