AS RARE AS RADIUM — A dissatisfied advertiser in The Centreville Observer.

THE CENTREVILLE OBSERVER

"ALL THE NEWS ALL THE TIME"

ESTABLISHED 1864

AS PRECIOUS AS RUBIES — Weekly visits of The Observer into its many homes.

LOCAL NEWS WILL BE FOUND ON EVERY PAGE

VOLUME 52—NO. 23 CENTREVILLE, MARYLAND, SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 20, 1915 PRICE 2 CENTS

This Store Is Ready

WITH A FULL LINE OF

Dress Fabrics

which our efficient Sales Ladies will display with pleasure, whether you wish to purchase or not. We invite your inspection in every department before buying.

Dress Goods Include:

Costume Velvet — Plain and Striped Taffetas

Plain and Fancy Silks

Crepe Meteors — Crepe de Chene

Georgette Crepe (the washable kind)

Messaline — Cachemire de Luxe — Check Silk

Tussah — Silk Poplin — Serges

Both French and Storm Oak Serge

We have our NEW FALL SUITS ready for display, and are receiving shipments almost every day. No two suits alike. Very smart styles, mostly fur-trimmed and military.

JUST A WORD ABOUT FURS

We handle Furs from one of the best manufacturers of New York. Our line is complete in all of the Newest Neck Pieces and Muffs, and every piece guaranteed as represented.

We Have a Full Assortment of Ladies' and Misses' Coats in all the smartest styles.

Our Line of Wool Sweaters is complete in all the new shades.

Our 1915 Sale of Oriental Rugs at Exceptionally Attractive Prices

Perhaps the finest collection we have ever shown, at much less than usual prices. Included in these are Velvet Brussels, Axminsters, Body Brussels, All Wool and Wood Fibre Rugs, and also the well-known "Corgoleum Rugs" in all sizes. Sizes in Oriental Rugs 8 x 10, 9 x 12, 12 x 15.

To make room for the display of our new Fall Fabrics we are having a

"Clean Up Sale" in Dress Goods and Trimmings

including all-wool and silk and wool fabrics, that sold for $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50, now on sale at 50c per yard. Every piece in good condition and some very desirable shades.

A "Clean Up Sale" On Boys' Suits

from 6 to 14 years. Original price from $2.50 to $6.00. YOUR CHOICE $1.00. Now is the School Boy's chance for a good, ready-to-wear suit.

GREEN'S DEPARTMENT STORE

ALFRED GREEN, Prop.

Commerce and Water Sts.

CENTREVILLE : : MARYLAND

SCHOOL HONOR ROLL

BRIGHT PUPILS OF CENTREVILLE GRAMMAR SCHOOL WHO DID GOOD WORK

Following is a list of the pupils of the Centreville Grammar school who made an average of 85 per cent or more in the primary grades during the month of October and a list of the pupils of the Grammar School who made the passing average or better for the Fall term examination.

Grammar School Grades

Sixth Grade — Pattison Perry, Cleo Christ, Annie Clark, Arthur Jarvis, Elizabeth Kimbrick, Carmichael Eightman, Katherine Coursey, Gilbert Hawley, Ruth Connolly, Robert Orrell, Ida Price.

Fifth Grade — Pauline Chambers, Elsie Carter, Edna Bramble, Harry Vickers, Dolly Thomas, Holiday Powell, Milton Moore.

Primary School Grades

First Grade — Carolyn Coursey, Carroll Eightman, Daniel Everett, William Powell, Mae Everett, Sue Moore, Edna Powell, Earl Lawler, Mary Nelson, Margaret Eaton, Virginia Jarvis.

Third Grade — Bertha Everingham, Elizabeth Grimes, William Everett, Willard Hopkins, Compton Jarvis, Richard Thomas, Margaret Durden, Walter Davis, Thomas Holland, Mary Katherine Kirwin, William Moore, Joseph Price, Douglas Brewer, Layton Merrick, Willard Emory, Anna Taylor, Elizabeth Eliers, Julia Thomas, Richard Hollingsworth, Vincent Moore, Henry Green, Gladys Chaney.

Second Grade — Mabel Everingham, Bernice Nicols, Margaret Sparks, Harold West, Nina Everingham, Millard Hollingsworth, Bertrand Moore, Rosen Price, Margie Hollingsworth, Williams Jarvis, Anna Price, Julia Lattimore.

First Grade — A Class — Mildred Frampton, Winifred Hammond, Martha Robb, Billie Turpin, Thomas Connolly, Granville Eaton, Earle Price, Jennie Davis, Ruth Blackiston, Harvey Dickinson, Elias Wooters.

Beginners — Marie Connolly, Paul Hicking, Laura Emory, Frank Harper, Lois Godwin, Ethel Arrington, Hackett Turner, Julia Feddeman, Fletcher Eliers, Nancy Price, Catherine West, Louie Perkins.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Two High School pupils won prizes in the composition contest at the Maryland Home Show in Baltimore. Miss Mae Newman and Mr. Hall Hartley, of this school, were awarded bronze medals for the best compositions on Queen Anne County.

• • •

The following program was rendered in Assembly Tuesday morning: Recitations — Hope, Hope, Hope — Eugene Dight. Music — Brewer and Carter.

Talk — The Value of the Spring Term Debate.

• • •

The Belles Lettres Literary Society will entertain the school next Wednesday afternoon with the following program:

Song — Resolved that Health is better Capital than Character.

The affirmative will be debated by Lillian Carter and Weaver Hatch. The negative will be debated by Kathryn Orrell and Asbury Bartlett.

Essay — Thanksgiving — Anna Mae Dodd.

Belle Lettres News — Dorothy Brewer.

• • •

The representatives of the Edgar Allan Poe Literary Society were defeated in a debate last Friday night by the debaters from the Chester River High School. Messrs. Sterling Harris and Wm. J. Price rendered all the help at Chestertown. The cause of the defeat was the fact that our debaters had to argue against the affirmative side of the question.

INGLESIDE CHURCH SCENE OF WEDDING

ONE OF SEASON'S PRETTIEST

Miss Katherine Thomas Merrick Becomes Bride of Mr. James Addison Hall. Color Scheme White and Gold. Edifice Banked With Flowers and Plants. Description of Gowns of Bride and Her Maids.

St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church, Ingleside, was the scene of a beautiful wedding Thursday at noon when Miss Katherine Thomas Merrick became the bride of Mr. James Addison Hall of Washington, D. C. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. L. Benson, D. D., of Crisfield, Maryland, and the music was skillfully rendered by Prof. Howard L. Benson of Westminster, Maryland, both cousins of the bride.

The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. C. Percival Merrick.

The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens, potted plants and yellow and white chrysanthemums, carrying out the color scheme of gold and white.

The bride was gowned in soft white satin made on courtesy train, combined with tulle and silver lace. Her veil, made artistically in cap effect, was caught up with lilies of the valley, and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Nancy Scott Thomas, of Baltimore, as Maid of Honor. She wore yellow pussy willow taffeta combined with gold, handing a hat of black velvet and carried white chrysanthemums.

The bride's maids were Miss Leila Dudley, of "Maple Lawn," Miss Ann Clements, of Chestertown, and Miss Bertha L. Wilson, of Ingleside. They wore gowns of white pussy willow taffeta combined with radiance lace and yellow tulle; black velvet hats with single yellow rose, and carried yellow chrysanthemums.

Margaret Tillard Merrick and Gertrude Merrick, little nieces of the bride, were flower girls. They were dressed in dainty white lingerie frocks with yellow sashes and carried baskets of yellow chrysanthemums.

The groom was attended by his cousin, Mr. William H. Hall, of Washington, D. C. The ushers were Mr. Edward Hall, of Colonial Beach, Va., Mr. Howard Wright, Mr. Willis Merrick and J. H. Merrick, of Ingleside. All were black cutaways and with striped trousers, white vests, gray ties and gloves.

The groom's gifts to the ushers were gold scarf pins. The bride gave her maids gold friendship bracelets. All are members of the bridal party were near relatives of the bride or groom.

The bride, who is the third daughter of the late C. H. R. Merrick and Mrs. A. Katherine Merrick, is the granddaughter of the late Major James Merrick and her maternal grandfather was the late John B. Thomas.

The groom is a graduate in law and served the government in Panama from 1906 to 1910. Since that time he has been in the Law Department of Internal Revenue in the Treasury Building, Washington.

Immediately following the ceremony an elaborate reception was held at Shady Side, the bride's home, where a profusion of yellow chrysanthemums further emphasized the color scheme.

The bride's going away gown was of seal brown chiffon broadcloth, trimmed with beaver fur and with a brown velvet hat to match.

The couple were the recipients of numerous handsome gifts. They left on the 5 o'clock train for a Southern trip and will be at home during December at 1111 M Street, N. W., Washington.

Patriotic Rally at Price

Washington Camp No. 69, P. O. S. of A., Price, held a rally in its camp room last Saturday evening. Visitors from other camps were present. Including State Secretary William James Heaps, State Treasurer William James Carter and State Master of Forms W. Hubert Temple. Other visitors included Past State President H. T. Griffith, of Centreville, and John McC. Rochester, of Church Hill, District President A. Howard Johnson, of Centreville, T. H. Marcus, of Church Hill, J. Walters Paynter, of Sudlersville, Charles Lewis, of Stevensville, and others. About seventy-five members of the order were present at the meeting. Sunday morning Prof. Heaps delivered a lecture at Bethany Methodist Episcopal church, Price.

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. L. Price returned to their home in Centreville last Saturday evening after a motor trip through New Jersey. While away they visited friends in Bridgeton, New Jersey, and also stopped at Vineland and other New Jersey towns. They were accompanied home on Saturday evening by Mrs. Robert Price and Joe Price, who are employed by Dupont, who spent the week-end in Centreville.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Wakes of Wilmington, Delaware, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Spencer, near Millington.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hammond, of Baltimore, are spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Spencer, near Millington.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hammond, of Baltimore, are spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Spencer, near Millington.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Price, of La Plata, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Price, near Millington.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Price, of Millington, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Price, near Millington.

Mrs. William Price, of Baltimore, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hart Price, near Millington.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Price, near Millington, are the guests of