Will Convene at Atlanta, Georgia, in November. Special Trains to be Run by the Railroads

Elaborate preparations are being made by the railroads to accommodate the good roads workers who will gather at Atlanta, Georgia, for the Fourth American Road Congress during the week of November [illegible]. Delegates from the west and middle west will have the advantage of a special train leaving Chicago on the evening of November [illegible] and passing through Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Chattanooga en route to Atlanta. Arrangements are now being made for special service from Texas and southwestern points. Exceptionally low rates have been granted, particularly in the territory south of the Potomac and east of the Mississippi, where the rate for [illegible] will average [illegible] cents [illegible]. Reduced rates have also been granted in western territory, as well as on the eastern trunk lines, so that all delegates and visitors will [illegible] at an exceptionally low cost.

On account of the great improvement made within the past few years in the public highways south of Washington, considerable interest is manifested in touring facilities. Among the parties arranging to make the trip by automobile are members of the State Board of Public Works of Rhode Island, who expect to attend the Congress in a body. Not least among the important factors which have made for better road conditions between Washington and Atlanta is the cooperative [illegible] in maintenance inaugurated by the American Highway Association and [illegible] operation [illegible]
