THIRTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31—Petitions were presented for the emancipation of slaves; also, for a general bankrupt act.

A joint resolution from the Legislature of Iowa in favor of a national armory at Rock Island was presented and referred.

Mr. GRIMES introduced a bill to detail certain naval officers for service in the War Department. Passed.

Mr. WILSON, of Missouri, introduced a bill providing for the completion of the southwest branch of the Pacific Railroad of Missouri.

Mr. FOSTER, from the Committee on Pensions, reported the House bill authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to strike from the pension roll the names of pensioners now in the rebel service—Passed.

On motion of Mr. SIMMONS, the resolution appropriating $35,000 for the expenses of the United States to be incurred in the great industrial exhibition was taken up.

Mr. SUMNER advocated the measure.

Mr. HALE objected to it. The Mutual Admiration Society about Washington, including Secretary Seward and others, had appointed themselves commissioners to take a pleasure trip to Europe at the public expense. He had no objection to their going, and would like to go himself. There were but one or two practical men on the committee.

Mr. SUMNER further defended the measure, when the vote was taken and the resolution was rejected. Yeas 17; nays 22.

Mr. FESSENDEN, from the committee of conference on disagreeing votes of the two Houses relative to the army appropriation bill, made a report, which was agreed to.

She Senate resumed the consideration of the resolution for the expulsion of the Hon. Jesse D. Bright from his seat as Senator from the State of Indiana.

Mr. McDOUGAL made some remarks on the subject.

Mr. ANDREW JOHNSON followed; after some further debate, the Senate adjourned over to Monday next.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The SPEAKER laid before the House a communication from the Secretary of the Treasury Department, transmitting the statement of the floating debt of the United States, called for by a resolution of the 8th inst.; also from the State Department, transmitting the annual report of the commercial relations of the United States. Referred.

Mr. WICKLIFFE, of Kentucky, submitted a resolution that the Committee on Military Affairs be instructed to inquire into the expediency of placing contractors for the supplies of the army and navy for all materials of the same, under the similar rates of government as military officers and under the articles of war for the government of the regular army and navy, and have power to punish frauds and infidelity. Adopted.

Mr. FESSENDEN, of Maine, offered a series of resolutions referring to the Committee on the Conduct of the War the statement in the Chicago Tribune that a large portion of the cartridges furnished the Burnside expedition have no powder in them. Adopted.

Mr. VAN WYCK, of New York, offered a resolution calling upon the Secretary of the Treasury for certain statistics relative to the New York Customhouse. Adopted.

Mr. MENZIES, of Kentucky, offered a resolution instructing the Judiciary Committee to inquire into the expediency of repealing the law authorizing the Judges of the Circuit and District Courts of Kentucky to hold their courts at Paducah and Louisville. Adopted.

Mr. MENZIES, of Kentucky, offered a resolution inquiring of the Secretary of War how many regimental bands are in the army, their cost, and if dispensed with, the probable effect upon the troops. Adopted.

Mr. ALLEY, of Massachusetts, offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Commerce to inquire into the expediency of prohibiting the exportation of oak timber from this country. Adopted.

Mr. STEVENS, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported a bill making the annual appropriation for the Post Office and Interior Departments. Referred.

Mr. WRIGHT, of Pennsylvania, from the Military Committee, reported a bill to incorporate the Washington Railroad Company. Referred.

On motion of Mr. STEVENS, of Pennsylvania, the House resolved itself into Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union, (Mr. McKnight, of Pennsylvania, in the chair,) and took under consideration the annual Naval appropriation bill for the year ending 30th June, 1863.

Mr. KELEY, of Pennsylvania, being entitled to the floor, said that on the 15th day of January it was a dark and gloomy day—the public credit prostrated; the banks suspended specie payment; there was no harmony between the Secretary of the Treasury and those who cooperated with him. The business of the States was suspended; delegates had been sent here to implore Congress to give the Secretary the assurance that taxes would be levied that would afford to the country one hundred and fifty millions of dollars, that the Army and navy of the United States might be vivified.

Gentlemen see that there are [illegible] there. Gentlemen [illegible] the plant here, the spots. The labor [illegible] the negro to be trampled is a part of our country where his hire [illegible] him. Stand by black man cab, see, give him the means, men, and arms the President, [illegible] to drive on his Generals, [illegible] he wants, and [illegible] of Kentucky, said he should differ with that slavery was the [illegible] thistle [illegible] stretter stand by the Union, and Kentucky [illegible] treason to the Government [illegible] heart. He then adverted to the paralyzing effect that would follow the turning loose of society the slaves of disloyal persons, to gay thing of the incendiarism, death and destruction will produce. It is the duty of the President to enforce the laws, and all the laws passed by Congress must be executed. Kentucky was battling manfully for the Union, and they did not want their rights interfered with.

In the course of his remarks he alluded to a conversation between Colonel Logan, of Illinois, and several members of the House, who said that when the order reached Illinois from the Secretary of War (Mr. Cameron) relative to the slavery question, that five regiments under his command stacked their arms and refused to go a step further if that was the policy upon which the war was to be conducted.

Mr. CONKLING, of New York, stated that in a conversation with the gentleman from Illinois (Col. Logan), he did state that the troops under his command did stack their arms on the receipt of the report from the Secretary of War. This was, as he understood, the conversation. He did not understand the number of the regiments.

Mr. STEVENS, of Pennsylvania, moved that the committee rise, but withdrew it to allow Mr. Kellogg to make a statement.

Mr. KELLOGG, of Illinois, said he knew Col Logan well. He believed him to be a truly patriotic, brave and gallant officer. He had discharged his duties well and bravely upon the battle-field. As to the troops of Illinois, they were as patriotic, and would use as much effort to sustain the Government and the Union as any troops in the world.—He was sorry to hear the statement made. It occurred to him that there must be some mistake in this matter. He would charge it upon none.

Mr. KELLOGG again renewed the motion that the committee rise. Disagreed to.

Mr. SERGEANT, of California, being entitled to the floor, gave way to

Mr. WADSWORTH, of Kentucky, who said no one charged them with turning their backs upon their foes; but the point was, they would not fight in an unconstitutional cause.

Mr FOUKE, of Illinois, regretted exceedingly that this question had been brought before the House. He proceeded to speak of the troops of Illinois, when

Mr. SERGEANT claimed his right to the floor.

The CHAIRMAN decided that Mr. Sergeant was entitled to the floor.

Mr. LOVEJOY asked the gentleman to yield to him for a few minutes.

Mr. SERGEANT.—I decline.

The CHAIRMAN—The gentleman from California is entitled to the floor.

Mr. LOVEJOY—It is all on one side, chairman and all.

Mr. SERGEANT, resuming, said he did not propose to discuss the question of slavery at all. He was in hopes that this session of Congress would not pass without adopting suitable means for the construction of the Pacific Railroad.

The committee rose and reported the bill to the House, having come to no conclusion thereon.

The Conference Committee on the consular and diplomatic bill reported, and the bill was agreed to.

Mr. HOLMAN, of Indiana, from the Committee on Contracts, made a report, accompanied with a resolution relative to the transportation of troops by railroad free of charge. Pending the resolution, on motion of Mr. Lovejoy, the House adjourned until Monday.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

COLLISION ON THE NORTHERN CENTRAL RAILWAY—One Man Killed and Others Injured.—An accident of a very serious nature occurred on the Northern Central Railway yesterday morning, near 7 o'clock, about twenty miles from the city, by which one man was killed and several others injured. It appears that what is called a "rigger's train" left here yesterday morning about 3 o'clock, in charge of conductor Hugh Hasson, having on board a number of men and a quantity of tools, for the purpose of repairing a "wreck" caused by an accident some days since. About 7 o'clock, as this train was passing Philpot's crossing, just above Phœnix station, it collided with a southward-bound burden train, loaded principally with flour, by which Henry Kauppfender, a brakesman of an individual car, was instantly killed. He was badly crushed about the bowels, and it is supposed that he was standing on the platform at the time of the occurrence. Hugh Hasson, the conductor of the rigger's train, was badly cut about the head, and he was also bruised about the body. Samuel McGaw, conductor of the southward-bound train, had his leg horribly crushed. His leg was subsequently amputated at the thigh, but no hopes of his recovery were entertained, as it was supposed that he was injured internally, besides exterior bruises and burns. He lives at No. 113 Greenmount avenue, and has a family. P. Carlen, a fireman, who was on board the rigger's train, was injured about the shoulder and head. He lives on Read street. David Beck, another fireman on the same train, was also badly burned and bruised. He resides on Mount street. The dead man and the injured were all brought to the city last evening, and the injured were conveyed to their respective residences. Kauppfender, who was killed, was from Chambersburg, Pa., where he has a family. His remains were sent thither last night. He was about forty-five years of age. Coroner Greentree held an inquest last night, but the jury, of which H. J. Litzinger is foreman, had not concluded their investigation at a late hour. Several of the cars were badly crushed.

THE COLLECTION OF TAXES.—In the Second Branch of the City Council last evening there was received an ordinance, which had previously passed the First Branch, extending the time allowed for the collection of city taxes from the first of February to the twenty-fifth of March.

Mr. Hiller made some remarks in opposition to the passage of the ordinance, in which he showed, by extracts from the books of the Collector, that as the time allowed by existing ordinances drew to a close, the tax-payers of the city were coming up and making payment, until the daily receipts amounted to upwards of $8,000; but from the day of the introduction into the First Branch of the ordinance under discussion, the receipts of taxes had decreased until they were about $800 per day. As the matter was discussed throughout the city, the impression seemed to be that the Second Branch would not vote for an extension of time, and the consequence was that the daily payments again increased, until, on Thursday last, the receipts were $34,000, and yesterday between $33,000 and $34,000 were received. It was the impression of the Comptroller no advantage could be gained by an extension of time, for it would be just as difficult to make collections at the expiration of the extended time as at present. Besides, the large tax-payers had promptly come up to the rescue of the credit of the city, and it was but just that the small ones should do the same. The vote being taken upon the adoption of the ordinance, it was unanimously rejected.

DEALING IN LOTTERY POLICIES.—Yesterday a man named Henry Trulauf was arrested on the charge of dealing in lottery policies. He lives on Alice Anna street near Broadway, and for some time past he has been suspected of carrying on this illegal traffic. Daily the poor and wretched, even the street beggars, were to be seen stealthily entering his premises. Some would leave the premises in the highest state of glee, while others left with dejected countenances. The police entered the premises suddenly and Trulauf had no opportunity to hide or destroy any of the appliances of the traffic, and consequently they secured the books, drawings, and a number of other evidences of his guilt. He was taken before Justice Duncan who committed him for Court.

THE OATH OF ALLEGIANCE.—The First Branch of the City Council last evening passed the ordinance making it incumbent on all persons holding office, or who may be elected or appointed to office, whether of honor or profit, under the city government, to take an oath of allegiance to the Government of the United States. Those holding office who fail to subscribe to the provisions of the ordinance shall be dismissed from office and their places filled by appointment. Those elected or appointed are required to take the oath within five days after their election; and failing to do so, their positions will be declared vacant.

DISCHARGED FROM THE SERVICE.—Thomas Dawson, a private in the 60th New York regiment, whose petition for a discharge from the service of the United States was referred to in the News Sheet of yesterday, was again before Judge Giles yesterday morning. Witnesses were examined whose evidence substantiated the allegation of the petitioner, that he was a minor at the time of his enlistment, and did so without having first obtained the consent of his father. The Judge accordingly ordered his discharge from the service upon condition that the father should pay all costs in the case.

AN EXPLANATION.—Some excitement was created on Saturday morning, between ten and eleven o'clock, by the rush of a number of the soldiers of the 17th Massachusetts regiment to Adams' express office, with a view of sending home to their families a portion of their pay, which had just been received from the hand of the paymaster. So great was the crowd, that all sorts of vague rumors prevailed for awhile, and it was with some difficulty that an entrance could be effected by the reporter to ascertain the cause of the assemblage.

THEFT OF BED CLOTHES.—William Yeage was arrested yesterday upon the charge of entering the house of Elizabeth Fishback, on Cross street, between Light and Charles streets, and selling therefrom two bed quilts and some other articles. The articles were found in his possession at the time of his arrest. Justice Showacre committed him to jail in default of bail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

ARRIVAL OF A CONFEDERATE OFFICER.—Lieutenant Stuart L. Johnson, of the Confederate army, arrived in this city yesterday from Fort Warren, where he has been confined since his capture at Hatteras. He is stopping at Barnum's Hotel, and will go South in a few days to effect the exchange of an officer of equal rank, in accordance with the condition of his parole.

CHARGED WITH ROBBING AN OFFICER.—Samuel Sharpley was yesterday taken into custody, at the instance of a detective police officer, upon the charge of robbing Capt. Burtett, of the Seventh New Jersey regiment, of $380 in money, and a promissory note for $1,000. He was taken before Justice Logan, who committed him to jail in default of bail to answer at a further examination.

ROBBING A WAGON.—Wm. Lewins, colored, was yesterday taken into custody upon the charge of stealing two shoulders of bacon from the wagon of Philip Shields, colored, whilst it was standing in the street. He was arraigned before Justice Bain for examination, and was committed to jail in default of bail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

DEAD BODY FOUND.—John Boyle, who usually attends to the interments at the Western Potter's Field, yesterday morning found in his hearse the dead body of a child. An inquest was held upon the body, a verdict rendered of death from causes unknown.

SEVERE ASSAULT.—R. J. Lumpkin was yesterday before Justice Showacre upon the charge of committing a serious assault upon Wm. Schinkle. He was committed to jail to answer before Judge Bond.

ASSAULT.—Henry Thomas, colored, was yesterday committed for Court.

Correspondence of the Maryland News Sheet.
ANNAPOLIS, Jan. 31, 1862.

THE COUNTY COURT ROOM MADE A RECRUITING OFFICE—ARRESTED AS A POLITICAL PRISONER—THE GOVERNOR'S APPOINTMENTS, &c.

Judge Brewer to-day, ordered Joseph Ryal, convicted of rioting in Baltimore on the 19th of April last, to be brought into court to receive his sentence. The prisoner was ordered to pay a fine of ten cents, upon condition that he volunteer in the United States army. Captain Hunt, of the Second Maryland Regiment, swore the convict into service and he was released from prison.

Yesterday James White, a citizen of this place, was arrested by the military, and is yet confined in the guard house, upon the charge of cheering for Jefferson Davis. So far, he has received no food, and to-day was compelled to send word to that effect to his home, and in the presence of the guards openly asserted that he was starving.

Governor Bradford will make the appointments for the various offices within his gift, on Tuesday or Wednesday next.

Sheriff O'Brian to-day left in the steamer Champion with the condemned prisoners. As convicted in the Circuit Court, three were destined for the Penitentiary, and one for confinement in the Baltimore city jail.

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

WASHINGTON, January 30.—On motion of J. Mason Campbell, Hon. Alexander Evans and Levin Gale, Esq., of Maryland, were admitted attorneys and counsellors of this Court.

On motion of Wm. Curtis Noyes, Esq., Jabez R. Ward, Esq., of New York, was admitted an attorney and counsellor of this Court.

No. 95. The county of Beaver, plaintiff, vs. Maxwell Woodhull. On a certificate of division of opinion between the Judges of the Circuit Court of the United States for the Western District of Pennsylvania. This cause having been called for argument, and neither party being prepared to argue the same, it was dismissed, with costs, under the 18th rule of Court.

No. 96. Edmund Rice, plaintiff in error, vs. The Minnesota and Northwestern Railroad Company.—This cause was argued by Mr. Noyes for the defendants in error, and submitted on printed arguments by Mr. Stevens for the plaintiff in error, and by Mr. Reverdy Johnson for the defendants in error.

No. 102. Alexander G. Woods, plaintiff in error, vs. The county of Lawrence, a corporation of Pennsylvania. This cause was argued by Mr. Taylor for the defendants, and submitted on printed arguments by Mr. Smith and Mr. Hamilton for the plaintiff, and by Mr. McComb for the defendants.

No. 103. John O'Brien, plaintiff in error, vs. Eliza M. Perry et al. This cause was argued by Mr. Noell for the plaintiff in error.

Amusements

HOLLIDAY STREET THEATRE.—To-night the management offers a gala bill for the Saturday playgoing public—Mr. Eddy appearing in the romantic drama of the Last Days of Pompeii, and the Children in the Woods. A dance by Miss Olivia; the carnival scene of Monte Cristo, and the laughable drama of Robert Macaire, constituting the most interesting programme. We predict a full house, and vouch for the excellence of the plays. The carnival scene of Monte Cristo, with all its oddities, from a giant to a lilliputian, its fat and lean pieces, alone is well worth the price of admission.

FRONT ST THEATRE.—This evening Miss Maggie Mitchell will appear in her two popular pieces, the French Spy, and the Hidden Hand. In the last named piece, Kunkel's superb opera troupe will appear in the plantation scene, which will really be a treat to many who are desirous of seeing the Nightingales in a large theatre. Miss Mitchell will appear in five (5) characters tonight. On Monday night, she will again sustain her remarkable character of Pauchon, the Cricket.

BARNUM'S LIVING WONDERS.—The remarkable "What Is It?" and "Albino Family" only remain on exhibition to-night, after which they will appear for a short time in New York, prior to their departure for Europe. The fat girl, Miss Jane Campbell; Dolly Dillingham, the Canadian dwarf, and the "Ichthyosaurus" or Sea-Lion will remain on exhibition all of next week. The "What Is It?" and "Albino Family" will make their farewell appearances this afternoon and to-night, in the carnival scene of "Monte Cristo," on the stage of Kunkel's Opera House. After the performance at the Museum is concluded to-night, the entire company will go to the Front Street Theatre, where they will appear in the Plantation Festival scene of the Hidden Hand, in which piece Miss Maggie Mitchell will assume the part of Capitola.

VALUABLE LAND IN ALLEGANY COUNTY, FOR SALE.

A TRACT OF LAND called TREASURE TROVE, containing about SIX THOUSAND ACRES, originally granted to John W. Pratt, on the 31 day of March, 1801, and resurveyed for the Hon. Thomas G. Pratt about the year 1846.

It is situated about 18 miles east of Cumberland, on the Great National Road which traverses the property. Wheat, Oats and Indian Corn grow admirably in this region. It is also admirably suited to Sheep raising. There are several Farms opened and cleared upon the land and now under rent. The tract, however, is principally wooded with large Oak and Pine timber, which can easily be transported over a road gently sloping to the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, which run within 3 miles of the southern boundary of the tract.

In the centre of the tract are several remarkably fine Sulphur and Iron SPRINGS of different strengths, issuing from a small valley within a few yards of each other. These are known and resorted to first by the Indians for years, and afterwards by the Hunters for their Hygeian qualities. A few miles off across the mountain is a very fine IODINE SPRING, which is well known in the neighborhood and is remarkably adapted to the cure of all cutaneous diseases.

The whole is offered for sale at very low rates and on long credit, as it will be divided into SMALL FARMS of sizes to suit purchasers. Apply to
