ASTOUNDING DEVELOPMENTS—WHOLESALE LARCENY OF GOVERNMENT STORES.

The Government authorities of this city on yesterday received the developments of a wholesale larceny operation, the parallel of which surpasses in atrocity and villainy any other that has come to light for many months, exhibiting, as they do, that an organized gang of plunderers are at work within the Federal lines, disgracefully appropriating supplies and Government stores sent by willing and benevolent hands to comfort and aid the sick and wounded soldiers in the hospitals, and the volunteer who, on the battle-field, is exposed to privations and suffering and fighting for his country, the Union and the Constitution. The particulars of this latest villainy are in substance as follows: For many weeks, detectives and the police have been advised that an unusual number of packages of different kinds have passed through this city en route for sundry towns in the North, and, taken in connection with other information that supplies sent forward had never reached their destinations, the utmost vigilance was at once instituted and the co-operation of the officers in various parts of the State was solicited in unraveling the apparent mystery.

Within a day or two the officers have succeeded in unraveling a series of most outrageous frauds. Their suspicions were aroused at Toledo on Wednesday last by a large quantity coming through the Express office from Lebanon, Ky., which was believed to be property unlawfully obtained. The person to whom the boxes, trunks and parcels were directed, and who had previously received large consignments, was permitted to take one of these boxes from the Express office to his storehouse in another portion of the city. There the police seized this box and other packages, and found them to contain clothing, hospital stores, provisions, &c., plainly indicated to have been obtained in the hospitals of the army. At the Express office the remaining boxes and packages were opened and found to contain blankets, drawers, stockings, &c.

Upon pursuing the investigation further, four boxes and two trunks directed to certain parties in Toledo were found in the Dayton and Michigan freight depot. All the boxes and trunks were examined, and found to contain a large quantity of suspicious articles. One box was filled with fine woolen shirts and drawers, contributed by the ladies' Aid Society and sent to Lebanon. Another was filled with saddles and harness. In others were clothing, such as only the sick and wounded in the hospitals could need; while in several were luxuries and hospital stores, which were furnished by the Government, Sanitary Commission, and Ladies' Aid Society. Tea, coffee, sugar, surgical instruments, common table delicacies and a heterogeneous mass of articles, which must have been stolen at random, were recovered. The captors, who constitute an organized gang, are connected with the army in various capacities, and had forwarded their prizes to their friends in this State. A man named Alfred W. Hinds, who went from Toledo to Lebanon as a nurse and hospital steward, and soon after returned with a largely accumulated quantity of "extras," has been arrested. Hinds alleges that he purchased his property of Dr. Daniels, Surgeon of the 14th Ohio regiment; and on this statement and other evidence a despatch has been forwarded, and Daniels was arrested at Pittsburg yesterday. Hinds is in jail in Toledo in default of $2,000 bail. He will have an examination before he Mayor of Toledo on Monday.

At Lima, about sixty-five miles from Toledo, the officers have secured ten tons of a similar kind of property, upon which there are railroad charges of $500. The authorities in this city are also in possession of similar packages, but as the arrests based upon the discoveries here have not yet transpired, we forbear going into particulars, except to say that the evidence is positive that a grand thieving combination has been in successful operation for many months, and it is very evident that the country and the soldiers have been defrauded out of a vast amount, and that a large portion of the contributions of the benevolent societies throughout the country have served no other purpose than to fill the pockets of certain individuals, without ever reaching the soldiers for whom they were intended.

These discoveries indicate that it has been customary for certain persons, in some way connected with the hospitals, to steal whatever property they desired, both from among the Government stores and the contributions of the aid societies of the country, and dispose of it as they wished. The facts thus brought to light are evidences of the general system in which matters are conducted in connection with the Government stores. The officers of the Government will take immediate cognizance of the matter, and warrants will be issued for the arrest of any person having any and every connection with the affair. Further developments of persons in high position may be immediately expected.

THE NEGROES AT BEAUFORT.

The Boston Courier publishes the following extract from a private letter dated Beaufort, April 7:

"Plantations during the last week found the driver (a female) in charge, with only three or four hands left on the place. She said the second ordered her to burn the place and cotton. She set them on fire on the morning of the taking of this place, the rebels ran, she saved the property and her life, which was threatened if she did not destroy the property. ——— had fifty negroes, all of whom had left the place and would not return. If they are forced to go back, in case their master returns, they will never be worth anything. Such is the case with the whole tribe of slaves who have been taken charge of by the Government. They have become lazy, impudent and thievish. Being permitted to draw army rations at the expense of the Government, they live so much better than they ever did before, they are becoming sickly and good for nothing. Another cause of their worthlessness is, the influence of this Society of Missionaries sent here to improve (?) their condition. They are teaching them that they are now free and can do as they please. Instead of doing them good they are doing them positive evil, making them saucy, improvident and unfit either for slavery or freedom.

The Government have sent out here a set of impracticable abolitionists—made up of pettyfogging lawyers, bigoted priests, broken down politicians, strong-minded women, old maids of doubtful character, with a small sprinkling of enthusiastic well-meaning philanthropists, the last of whom are fast becoming disgusted with the movements of all the former, who in their turn are quarrelling among themselves. Each one having his own axe to grind, is jealous of the other; so, on the whole, I apprehend that the time is soon coming when the "Freedman's Society" will be broken up by their own dissensions and the impracticability of their undertaking. After doing the negroes all the harm they can, they will leave them to be brought back to a proper state by others. Upon my word, such a set of sanctimonious "Amelinda Sleeks" and "Uriah Heeps" I never saw sent out in an expedition; and the idea of such a set of men coming here to teach the "nigger" to read, sew, and knit, and to take charge of the cotton and rice plantations, and keep the "darkies" at work, is perfectly ridiculous. Why, they do not know a cotton gin from a side of sole leather, and most of them never saw a cotton-field in their lives. I verily believe, from what I see and hear among the army, that if the Government pursue this doctrine of abolition, they will soon be without an army, at least an army to fight in such a cause willingly and efficiently.

THE NEGRO VS. BLACK.

From the Lancaster (Pa.) Intelligencer, April 29.

The two races can never commingle, nor exist together on a common platform of equality. Abolitionists and sickly sentimentalists may pass by their own color if they please, and reserve all their sympathies for the "suffering slave," and crack-brained philosophers may theorize and persuade themselves that the negro is capable of enjoying a common heritage of freedom with the white man, and, intoxicated with this idea, may endeavor to put it in practice, as they are attempting at present; but the silent workings of the irrevocable law of races will scatter all their fine-spun theories and upset their calculating philosophy.

It is an old saying that "necessity knows no law," and, from present appearances, in view of the threatened inundation of ignorant blacks from the South coming in contact with the white working man of the North, crowding him from his hitherto undisputed field of labor, the feeling of opposition will grow in intensity until the white man will feel the "necessity" of getting rid of the negro at whatever cost, and that feeling will eventually extermINate him or drive him beyond our borders.—Ours is a Government of white men, made for the benefit of white men, and any Quixotic attempt to make philanthropists raise the negro to an equal with the white man, by amalgamation, only have the effect of hurrying on his destruction. Reader, mark what we say, this question, for it is one that is rapidly coming up for solution, and will be more momentous in its consequences than any that has yet come before the American people.

A WOMAN APPOINTED MAJOR.—Gov. Yates has paid a rather unusual but well-merited compliment to Mrs. Reynolds, wife of Lieutenant Reynolds, of Company A, 17th Illinois, and a resident of this city. Mrs. Reynolds has accompanied her husband through the greater part of the campaign through which the 17th has passed, sharing with him the dangers and privations of a soldier's life. She was present at the battle of Pittsburg Landing, and, like a ministering angel, attended to the wants of as many of the wounded and dying soldiers as she could, thus winning the gratitude and esteem of the brave fellows by whom she was surrounded. Gov. Yates, appreciating her heroic and praiseworthy conduct, has, with a commission as Major in the army, forwarded a document conferring the well-merited honor, which has been duly signed and sealed with all due formality, and bearing attached the great seal of the State. Probably no lady in America will ever again have such a commission military honor conferred upon her. Mrs. Reynolds is now in this city, and leaves to join her regiment in a day or two.—Peoria Transcript.

RELIABLE NEWS.
BALTIMORE, March 29, 1862.
Mr. Geo. Pearson—Dear Sir: Being troubled with a severe SORE THROAT and Cold (which settled on my lungs), I tried your MEDICATED TAR DROPS, and can speak very flatteringly of their having relieved me in a few hours, and curing me in three or four days. I cheerfully recommend your justly celebrated Tar Drops to all similarly affected, who will find them pleasant, simple, very efficacious, and the cheapest remedy I ever used. Yours, very truly,
