ADDITIONAL ARCHITECTURAL OR STRUCTURAL DESCRIPTION:

Third floor added, with heavy Italianate bracketed cornice, splayed brick arches at windows, door relocated in separate appended structure at left, with gable roof and elliptical pediment over reproduction door, all later.

RELATED STRUCTURES: (Describe)

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE:

Was once part of important Federal row, 54-58 Cornhill, Victorianized by adding roof and cornice. Entrance pavillion 20thC. While altered from the Federal, still is of great visual interest and significant as a type. Added height acts as a closing element to the two story structures that comprise most of this side of Cornhill Street, and softens scale of theatre at Church Circle.

60 Cornhill Street is at the beginning of a row of Federal town houses and has many of the same features as 54-56-58 Cornhill such as 6/6 shuttered windows (9/6 on 1st floor) with splayed brick lintels, however, it differs from the Federal town houses in that its height was extended and a Victorian cornice added. The building is two bays wide and the doorway entrance is an appended structure (later) with "Colonial" door. There is a small garden. Building's height visually defines this end of Cornhill Street. Interesting and important, as well as handsome.
