S. Wetherill notes

AA-2077

The Quade House (Chas. B. Quade, summer occupant, son of builder.)

Built by Augustus Quade 1894 on 2 acres purchased for $100; helped by his brother Herman Quade who later moved to Contee's Wharf. (see AA-2068).

The Quade House has a lovely spacious yard containing lawn/veg. garden/grape arbor/dock at the mouth of Whitemarsh Creek (south side), surrounded by water on two sides. Well-cared-for house, mostly original, occupied 7 months of the year by Mr./Mrs Quade who spend winters in Balt. Co.

The 1894 portion consisted of a 3-bay 2-story side-gabled house — side hall and parlor plan on 1st floor with thru hallway along west side of house (entry doors at either end of hall — the "front" of the house faced north west toward the water). There was a separate kitchen shed. Upstairs: side hall and two bedrooms. Stove chimney inside east gable end wall.

A later cross-gable 2-story addition (same depth as main block of house) was attached to west side of house, containing the kitchen and a second stove chimney inside the east wall of the addition. Addition has one room down / one room up.

House sits on brick piers. Sided with wood shingles painted brown. The "front" of house is now the south east elevation facing the road, with entry via the original side hall.

A full width screened porch has been added to south side. The porch is old, not new.
