Deposition of William Gwynn

filed the 30th day of August 1843

Baltimore County.

On the 30th day of August 1843 personally appeared before the Subscribed Register of Mills for Baltimore <sup>County</sup>, William Guynn, who made oath, that a certain negro man now present before me, named Lewis Howard, is the same and identical Negro boy Lewis who was manumitted and set free by the Will of William Guynn deceased - that said Lewis is now about Thirty eight years of age - and was raised in Baltimore County.
