BA-1467 TOWSON CAB STAND - Before 1915 - 9 East Chesapeake Avenue, Towson. Apparently the shell of the Raymond or Clayton Seitz ice cream parlor, shown in earlier photos as a small, clean, one-story clapboarded gable roofed building in functional style. Now covered with brown stucco; roofed with black tar paper. Vestiges of German siding can be found in frame portion.