No. 5856. Equity.

(e) The defendant Amphudia J. Peters a niece, the daughter of Miranda Peters, a sister of the said George W. Sample, and of Jacob Peters, her husband, and whose said parents are both dead - the said Amphudia J. Peters being of full age, unmarried and residing in the State of Pennsylvania

4. That the said real Estate owned by the said George W. Sample at the time of his death, upon his decease descended to his said brothers, sisters and nieces;

5. That the said real Estate is not susceptible of partition or division among the said parties entitled thereto and cannot be divided without loss and injury to the parties interested therein and it is necessary and for the benefit and advantage of all the parties entitled thereto that the same be sold and the proceeds thereof divided among them according to their respective rights.

Subpoena.

The Bill prays for the following relief.

1. That a decree may be passed for the sale of said real Estate.

2. That the proceeds of said sale may be distributed among the parties entitled thereto according to their respective rights

3. For general relief.

4. That process may issue against the resident defendants.

5. That an order of publication may issue against the nonresident defendants Jerome Sample and Agnes Sample, his wife and Amphudia J. Peters, giving them notice of the object and substance of the bill and warning them to appear in the Circuit Court for Frederick County sitting as a Court of Equity, in person or by solicitor on or before a certain day to be named therein to show cause if any they have why a decree ought not to pass as prayed, It is thereupon this 31st day of August A.D. 1891 adjudged and ordered by the Circuit Court for Frederick County sitting as a Court of Equity, that the plaintiff cause a copy of this order together with a statement of the object and substance of the bill to be inserted in some newspaper published in Frederick County once a week in each of four successive weeks before the third day of October A.D. 1891, giving notice to the non-resident defendants Jerome Sample and Agnes Sample, his wife and Amphudia J. Peters, in said bill and warning them to be and appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the nineteenth day of October, A.D. 1891 to show cause if any they have why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.
