Swan Harbor is a two story house which the owner says is constructed of log. It is impossible to determine the construction from the exterior. The south facade has a door on the west side with two windows to the east having 9/9 sash. The second story has two windows, not placed over those of the first story, with 9/6 sash, all trimmed with ovolo and bead molding. To the rear is a two story frame wing which has a one story porch on its west side. The house is in good condition and is located in a grove of large old trees.
