Outside of Elkton, on Rt. 40, is a two story brick house of Federal design which was built around 1840. It follows the common plan of three bays long with "L" to the rear and central door. Over the double door and sidelights is an arched fanlight with muntins radiating like rays of light, from a semicircular pane. The windows have 9/6 sash on the first story and 6/6 sash on the second story, both with shutters. On each side of the chimney, which is within the gable end, at attic level are two quarter round windows.
