MOTION FOR REDUCTION OF BAIL

The Defendant, Jay Lee Groce, through counsel Gerald Vahle and David L. Addison, Assistant Public Defenders, respectfully moves that this Honorable Court reduce the bail in the above mentioned matter, and in support thereof states the following:

1. The Defendant is charged and awaiting trial in the above-mentioned case for the charges of First Degree Rape in violation of Maryland Code, Art. 27, Sec. 462; First Degree Sexual Offense, in violation of Maryland Code, Art. 27, Sec. 464; Robbery, in violation of Maryland Code, Art. 27, Sec. 486, 487 and Common Law; and related offenses. These acts are alleged to have occurred on May 10, 1986.

2. The Defendant was arrested for the above-mentioned offenses on May 10, 1986, and charged in the District Court under case number 013138c6. Bail was set by a judge of the District Court on May 12, 1986, in the amount of $250,000.00, which the Defendant is unable to post, and he has been committed in lieu thereof to the Baltimore County Detention Center.

3. The above-mentioned case was first scheduled for trial on October 1, 1986, but the report of the physical examination of the victim, by Dr. Rudiger Breitenecker, which the State intended to introduce to prove its case in chief, was not received by counsel for the Defendant in enough time to adequately defend against it, necessitating a request for postponement which was duly granted.

FILED NOV 17 1986

11/14/86 gm

4. The above-mentioned case was rescheduled for trial on November 10, 1986, but the report of laboratory analysis on samples recovered from the victim, by Myra Blankenship, which the State intended to introduce to prove its case in chief, was not received by counsel for the Defendant until the day of trial, again denying enough time to adequately defend against it and necessitating a second request for postponement which was also duly granted.

5. The Defendant was arraigned on the above-mentioned case on June 25, 1986, and counsel entered appearance on June 30, 1986, so that ordinarily under Maryland Rule 4-271, the Defendant would be entitled to have the case go to trial by late December, or move for a dismissal for lack of a speedy trial, State v. Hicks, 285 Md. 310 (1979). In the instant case, however, the Defendant was obligated to waive his right to a speedy trial rather than face prosecution without an adequately prepared defense, because scheduling problems for defense counsel, the State and the Criminal Assignment Office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County all but precluded trial within 180 days of arraignment or entry of appearance of counsel.

6. Due to the reasons set forth immediately supra, and the exclusive fault of the State by its agents, the Defendant's pre-trial detention has been unnecessarily lengthened, and his right to a speedy trial under Maryland Law has been prejudiced.

7. The Defendant proffers that he has a meritorious defense to the charges alleged in the above-mentioned case.

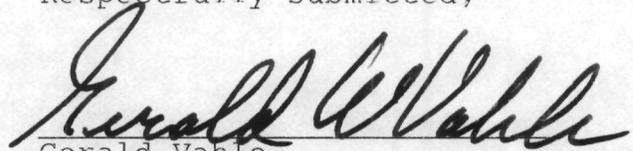

8. The Defendant proffers that his past criminal record is such that it does not demonstrate a threat to the safety of the community or any individual, or a likelihood of failure to appear in court.

9. The Defendant has strong ties to the community, through family, friends and employment, further militating against a risk of failure to appear in court.

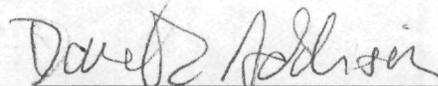

WHEREFORE, the Defendant prays that this Honorable Court will:

- A. Hold a hearing on this Motion;
- B. Release the Defendant on his personal recognizance to appear for trial, or alternatively, reduce the bail to a level which the Defendant can reasonably be expected to post; and
- C. Grant such other and further relief as may be appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,

MOTION FOR APPROPRIATE RELIEF

Now comes Jay Lee Groce, Defendant by Gerald W. Vahle, Assistant Public Defender and David Addison, Assigned Public Defender, and moves the Court to order the Baltimore County Police to transport certain hair fibers to a laboratory at George Washington University for analysis by a defense expert and for reasons states:

1. That the first trial date of the above case was postponed because the report of the physical examination of the victim was not available.
2. That the second trial date of November 10, 1986 of the above case was postponed because the report of the analysis of certain hair fibers was only made available on the morning of trial.
3. On November 12, 1986, counsel wrote to Mr. Myron T. Scholberg about the report described in paragraph two above and received no answer.
4. On November 17, 1986, counsel was given the name of Professor Walter Rowe at George Washington University to contact as a possible expert.
5. On November 19, 1986, counsel contacted Ms. Ann Brobst of the State's Attorneys Office to have the evidence transported to George Washington University and was told that the office policy was not to allow this because evidence had been lost in the past.
6. On November 21, 1986, counsel contacted Professor Rowe again and was informed that he will not examine evidence in a police crime laboratory because the client's confidence is not protected and he does not have confidence

Dear Mr. Vahle:

Regarding our telephone conversation on November 21, 1986, concerning the case of State v. Groce, I am able to carry out the microscopic examinations that you require. However, these examinations would have to be carried out in my own laboratory with my own equipment. I know that all of my equipment is properly set up and is functioning properly. If I used another laboratory it would be necessary for me to check all of the equipment before I used it. I am also unwilling to carry out such examinations in the presence of law enforcement personnel. If such persons were present, information detrimental to your client could be improperly disclosed to the prosecution.

Yours truly,

Walter F. Rowe

FOR BALTIMORE COUNTY

JAY LEE GROCE

CASE NO. 86 CR 3318

* * * * *

PROPOSED VOIR DIRE

The Defendant, Jay Lee Groce, through his attorney, Gerald W. Vahle, Assistant Public Defender, respectfully requests that the following questions be asked of the prospective jurors in the above captioned matter:

1. The Defendant, Jay Lee Groce, has been charged with First Degree Rape and related offenses in violation of Maryland Law. Charges arise out of an alleged incident that occurred on or about May 10, 1986 at 2222 Annapolis Road, Baltimore, Maryland 21230. The alleged victim was Amanda Endley.

2. Has any member read anything or heard any broadcast reports, of any of the events, or any of the parties to the case which occurred on the above date which would prevent them from making a fair and impartial decision as to the innocence or guilt of the defendant?

3. Does any member of the panel know or are you related to Gerald W. Vahle, the defense attorney or and David H. Addison Steven Kroll, the prosecutor in this case?

4. Does any member of the panel know anything about the facts of this case other than what you have heard in court today?

5. Does any member of the panel know any of the persons that may be called as witnesses for either the state or the defense, namely:

6. Is there any member of the jury panel friendly, associated with or related to anyone in the Baltimore Police Department, State's Attorneys Office or any other law enforcement agency?

7. The next question I am going to ask you has three parts. Please do not respond until you have heard the entire question. Is there any member of the panel who has:

- a. Been the victim of a crime or had a close friend or relative who has been the victim of a crime?
- b. Been a witness in a criminal case?
- c. Been charged with a crime or had a close friend or relative who has been charged with a crime?

8. Is there any member of the panel that believes that if a person is charged with a crime that the charge raises a presumption of guilt on the part of the individual?

9. There may be, in this case, testimony from one or more Baltimore County Police Officers. Would you give more weight to the testimony of the Police Officer merely because he or she is a Police Officer than to other witnesses in the case?

10. Does any member of the panel entertain or is anyone aware of any bias or prejudice against the defendant in this case.

11. Is any member of the jury panel a member of or supporter of the Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) or the Stephanie Roper Committee?

12. Do you know of any reason, about which I have not asked you any question which you feel tends to interfere with your ability to arrive at a fair and honest verdict in this case?

X

15. Now, if you come to a conclusion that the prosecution had not proven the guilt of the Defendant, beyond a reasonable doubt, would you stand firmly on your own individual judgement? Or to put it another way, would you change your position merely because most or all of the other Jurors disagreed with you? If you would not stand firmly on your individual judgement, or would change your vote merely because the other Jurors disagreed with you, please raise your hand.

Anyone who would not be able or willing to follow the Court's instructions,

Court's Exhibit -

I am concerned as to her probable performance in Court. She is a person with many personal problems and doesn't seem all that stable. When upset, as she was several times during the interview, her voice becomes almost inaudible. If faced with a cross-examination, which is at all aggressive, she will undoubtedly cry. She has lost more than 10 pounds since this incident and is still under a physicians care.

While Mrs. Endley has consistently and completely related the facts of the case, it is still necessary to frequently return her attention to the points being discussed since her mind easily wanders. It also seems very likely, in spite of her denials, that she has more than a little problem with drinking.

JURY INSTRUCTION NO. 1

Theft is defined as wilfully or knowingly obtaining or exerting unauthorized control over the property of the owner with the purpose of depriving the owner of the property permanently or for such a period as to appropriate a portion of its value.

THEFT DEFINED

JURY INSTRUCTION NO. 1A

A person acts knowingly when he is aware of his conduct or that a particular circumstance exists. A person also acts knowingly when he is practically certain that a result will be caused by his conduct. A person "obtains" property when he brings about a transfer of interest or possession. A person "exerts control" when he takes the property, carries it away, appropriates it to his own use, sells it, conveys it, transfers title to it, transfers an interest in it, or transfers possession of the property. "Property" means anything of value. It includes, for example, money.

Md. Ann. Code Article 27, §342, 340 (Supp. 1980).

JURY INSTRUCTION NO. 2 ✓

Robbery is the taking and carrying away of the property of another from his person or from his presence, by violence or by putting in fear, and with the intent to permanently deprive that person of that property.

In a robbery prosecution, the value of the property taken from the victim is NOT an essential element of the offense, so long as the proof shows that something of value was taken. Ham, Lee Bailey and Cole v. State, 7 Md. App. 474, 479; Fisher v. Warden, 224 Md. 669. It is sufficient to prove the taking of property of a greater or lesser value than was alleged in the indictment. Love v. State, 6 Md. App. 639.

A dangerous and deadly weapon is one likely to produce death or great bodily harm.

Robbery with a deadly weapon consists of the crime of robbery coupled with the use of a weapon to produce intimidation coupled with the apparent ability to exercise the implied threat to use the weapon if resistance is offered. So long as there is an intent to rob by that means, it is unnecessary to find an intent or ability to execute the implied threat in the event of resistance. Jackson v. State, 231 Md. 591; Hayes v. State, 211 Md. 111. It need not be shown that the person assailed was actually put in fear if the means employed were calculated to instill fear in the heart or mind of the reasonable man.

Weapon is generally defined as anything used in a way that is likely to produce bodily harm.

ROBBERY

DEFENDANT'S PROPOSED INSTRUCTION NO. 8

The defendant is charged with robbery. Robbery is the taking and carrying away of someone else's personal property directly from that person or from his or her presence by violence or by putting that person in fear, with the intent to steal the property.

In order to convict the defendant of robbery, the State must prove:

- (1) that the defendant obtained possession of personal property belonging to someone else;
- (2) that the property was taken either directly from another person or from another person's presence and control;
- (3) that the taking was accomplished by violence or by putting the other person in fear of violence; and
- (4) that the defendant intended to permanently deprive the other person of that property.

JURY INSTRUCTION NO. 4

An Assault is an attempt by force to injure the person of another. Any attempt to apply the least force to the person of another constitutes an assault. The attempt is made whenever there is any action or conduct reasonably tending to create the apprehension, in another that the person engaged therein is about to apply such force to him. It is not necessary that there should be a specific purpose to do a particular injury. The intent necessary for assault is the general intent to do the act which constitutes the assault. General malevolence or recklessness is sufficient; but mere negligence does not suffice. Williams v. State, 4 Md. App. 643 (1968). For there to be an assault, there must be:

- A) An act which will apparently result in injury;
- B) An actual or apparent intention to inflict injury;
- C) There must not be any consent to the act.

However, Assault is merely an attempt; no actual touching is required nor any injury need result for an Assault to be accomplished.

ASSAULT

JURY INSTRUCTION NO. 3 ✓

A battery is the actual unlawful touching or doing of bodily harm to another.

In order for a battery to be committed, there must be (1) an intent to injure another person; (2) an overt act; (3) the employment of actual physical force or violence; and (4) contact with the person of another.

The least intentional touching of the person of another is sufficient to constitute a battery. The touching must be unlawful. Unlawful as it is used here means that it was done without lawful authority and without the consent of the person affected.

BATTERY

JURY INSTRUCTION NO. 5

The testimony of a rape victim need not be corroborated by further evidence. Scott v. State, 2 Md. App. 709 (1968). Her testimony, if believed, ~~[including the positive identification of the Defendant as the perpetrator of the crime]~~ is sufficient to support a conviction. Coward v. State, 10 Md. App. 127 (1970).

1^o Rape

JURY INSTRUCTION NO. 6

The Defendant is charged with the First Degree Rape of Amanda Endley. To sustain a conviction for this crime, the State must convince you beyond a reasonable doubt that the Defendant engaged in vaginal intercourse with Amanda Endley, by force or threat of force against her will and without her consent; you must further find that when the Defendant had vaginal intercourse with Amanda Endley that the incident involved ~~one of the following~~ aggravating circumstances of Strangulation.

- ~~A. The Defendant employed or displaced a dangerous or deadly weapon or an article which the victim reasonably concluded was a dangerous or deadly weapon; or~~
- ~~B. The Defendant inflicted suffocation, strangulation, disfigurement, or serious physical injury upon the victim or upon anyone else in the course of committing the offense; or~~
- ~~C. The Defendant threatened or placed the victim in fear that she or any other person known to her would be imminently subjected to death, suffocation, strangulation, disfigurement, serious physical injury or kidnapping; or~~
- ~~D. The Defendant committed the offense with the assistance of one or more other persons.~~

The Legislature has defined "Vaginal Intercourse" as having the ordinary meaning of genital copulation. Although there must be penetration by the penis, it need only be slight, and there need not be emission of semen.

The State must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the act of vaginal intercourse between the Defendant and Amonda Bradley was accomplished by force. The Jury should be advised, however, that force may exist without violence. If the acts and threats of the Defendant were reasonably calculated to create through fear a real apprehension of imminent bodily harm, serious enough to impair or overcome her will to resist, then such acts and threats are the equivalent of force. Hazel v. State, 221 Md. 464 (1960).

The State must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the victim did not consent to the act of vaginal intercourse. A woman who is conscious and possesses ordinary mental and physical powers when the act takes place, must resist vaginal intercourse to the extent of her ability at the time. The Jury should be advised, however, that there is a significant difference between consent and submission, but submission does not necessarily imply consent. Submission to a compelling force, or as the result of being placed in fear, is not consent. Consent is absent where the victim is so terrified by threats that her will to resist is overcome. Lucas v. State, 2 Md. App. 590 (1967).

To summarize First Degree Rape, the State must convince the Jury beyond a reasonable doubt:

- A. That the Defendant on trial engaged in vaginal intercourse with the victim;
- B. That the act of vaginal intercourse was accomplished by force;
- C. That the act of vaginal intercourse was done against the will and without the consent of the victim; and
- D. That the act of vaginal intercourse was accompanied by ~~at least one of~~ the aggravating circumstances of Strangulation, mentioned earlier.

JURY INSTRUCTION NO.

2^o Rape

The Legislature has defined Second Degree Rape as engaging in vaginal intercourse with a person by force or threats of force against the will and without the consent of such person. Second Degree Rape, therefore, shares the same elements of proof as First Degree Rape except the State need not prove any of the aggravating circumstances ^{of strangulation.} ~~mentioned earlier.~~ The same interpretations of "force" and "consent" discussed in the instruction on First Degree Rape apply to the elements of Second Degree Rape.

SECOND DEGREE RAPE

JURY INSTRUCTION NO. 8

1° & 2° SEX OFF

"Sexual act" means cunnilingus, fellatio, analingus, or anal intercourse, but does not include vaginal intercourse. Emission of semen is not required. Penetration, however slight, is evidence of anal intercourse. Sexual act also means the penetration, however slight, by any object into the genital or anal opening of another person's body if the penetration can be reasonably construed as being for the purposes of sexual arousal or gratification or for abuse of either party and if the penetration is not for accepted medical purposes.

3° & 4° SEX OFF

"Sexual contact" as used in §§464B and 464C, means the intentional touching of any part of the victim's or actor's anal or genital areas or other intimate parts for the purposes of sexual arousal or gratification or for abuse of either party and includes the penetration, however slight, by any part of a person's body, other than the penis, mouth, or tongue, into the genital or anal opening of another person's body if that penetration can be reasonably construed as being for the purposes of sexual arousal or gratification or for abuse of either party. It does not include acts commonly expressive of familial or friendly affection, or acts for accepted medical purposes.

A person is guilty of a sexual offense in the first degree if the person engages in a sexual act: fellatio

a. With another person by force or threat of force against the will and without the consent of the other person, and: you must further find that when the fellatio occurred the incident involved the aggravating circumstances of

2. Inflicts suffocation, strangulation, disfigurement, or serious physical injury upon the other person or upon anyone else in the course of committing the offense; or

3. Threatens or places the victim in fear that the victim or any person known to the victim will be imminently subjected to death, suffocation, strangulation, disfigurement, serious physical injury, or kidnapping.

STATE'S REQUESTED JURY INSTRUCTIONS

Now comes the State of Maryland by Sandra A. O'Connor, State's Attorney for Baltimore County, and Steven I. Kroll, Assistant State's Attorney for Baltimore County, and respectfully requests this Court to instruct the Jury as follows:

JURY INSTRUCTION NO. 12 M

A stipulation is the term used for an agreement made by the attorneys in a case. Stipulations are binding and conclusive on the respective parties. When the attorneys on each side stipulate to the existence of a fact or event, that fact or event is deemed to be evidence in the case and the Jury should regard it as proven. In this case, the parties have stipulated to the following:

STIPULATION - GENERAL

JURY INSTRUCTION NO. B

M

You must determine the Defendant's guilt or innocence only on the evidence presented in this case, and not on the basis of other criminal convictions. You may consider, in weighing the evidence, the evidence of the Defendant's prior criminal record for the purpose of reflecting upon the truth and veracity of his testimony, on the theory that a person with a prior criminal record may be less apt to tell the truth than a person who does not have a criminal record. Therefore, the Defendant's criminal record has been admitted into evidence for the purpose of assisting you in evaluating the Defendant's credibility, that is, his worthiness of belief. You should not attempt to draw any inferences of guilt from the fact that he may have been convicted on prior occasions.

PRIOR CRIMINAL RECORD

JURY INSTRUCTION NO.

14 M

You are further instructed that in this case you have heard the testimony of expert witnesses. An expert witness may testify only when you require assistance in the formation of conclusions requiring special training or skill. The expert witness may state his opinion on relevant matter, to which he professes to be an expert, in order to help you reach a true conclusion, with respect to the subject matter under investigation. The Court shall decide who, on the basis of their special knowledge, training, or skill, is competent to give expert testimony, and whether this testimony would be of appreciable help to you in deciding the material facts in this case. You are to weigh this expert testimony, as you do all the other evidence in this case, and give to it as much consideration as you feel it deserves.

EXPERT TESTIMONY

JURY INSTRUCTION NO. 15 49

You are instructed that you are the sole judges of the credibility of each and all of the witnesses. In considering credibility, you may apply your own common sense and your own everyday experiences. You are not bound to believe any witness even though his testimony is uncontradicted. You may believe all, part or none of the testimony of any witness. In determining whether or not to believe a witness, and if so, to what extent, you should carefully scrutinize the whole testimony, the circumstances under which each witness has testified, and every matter in evidence which tends to indicate whether a witness is worthy of belief. You may consider the behavior of the witness on the witness stand, his intelligence, demeanor and manner of testifying and whether or not he appeared to be telling the truth, his opportunity for observing the facts as to which he is testifying, the accuracy of his recollection, whether he had any motive for telling the truth, whether he has any interest in the outcome of the case, the extent to which all his testimony is self-consistent, and the extent to which such testimony is supported or contradicted by other evidence, and the reasonableness of his testimony considered in the light of all the evidence in the case.

CREDIBILITY OF WITNESS

JURY INSTRUCTION NO. 16

4^o Sex OFF.

A person is guilty of a sexual offense in the fourth degree if the person engages:

1. In sexual contact with another person against the will and without the consent of the other person ~~or~~ the difference between 3^o Sex OFF & 4^o Sex OFF is the absence of Strangulation.

Respectfully submitted,

STEVEN I. KROLL
Assistant State's Attorney

STATE OF MARYLAND

FOR BALTIMORE COUNTY

Jay Lee Groce

CASE NO. 86 CR 3318

DEFENDANT'S REQUESTED INSTRUCTION NO. 1 M

The Court instructs the Jury that an indictment is but a formal method of accusing a Defendant of a crime. It is not evidence of any kind against the accused and should not be considered by you at all.

DEFENDANT'S REQUESTED INSTRUCTION NO. 2 M

The Court instructs the Jury that there has been testimony in this case which, if believed, could establish that the Defendant did, in some manner participate in an offense. On the other hand, there is other evidence in this case which, if believed, could establish that the Defendant is innocent of the crimes charged against him. In this regard, you are advised that a Defendant in a criminal case is entitled to every inference in his favor which can reasonable be drawn from the evidence. Where there are two inferences which may be reasonably drawn from the same facts, one consistent with guilt and the other consistent with innocence, then the Defendant, under the law, is entitled to the inference consistent with innocence, and he should be found not guilty.

(Battery)

DEFENDANT'S PROPOSED JURY INSTRUCTION NO. 3

A battery is the actual unlawful touching or doing of bodily harm to another. Every battery includes an assault.

In order for a battery to be committed there must be:

- (1) an intent to injure another person;
- (2) an overt act;
- (3) the employment of actual physical force or violence; and
- (4) contact with the person of another.

The least intentional touching of the person of another is sufficient to constitute a battery. The touching must be unlawful. Unlawful as it is used here means that it was done without lawful authority and without the consent of the person affected. Where the overt act involves a serious hurt or a breach of the public peace, you are to give no consideration to whether consent was given by the person affected.

After a full and fair consideration of all the facts and circumstances in evidence, unless you are convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant unlawfully applied force to the person or body of another, then you must find the defendant not guilty of the charge of battery.

(Credibility of witnesses)

DEFENDANT'S PROPOSED INSTRUCTION NO. 4 M

In determining whether the State has established the charge against the defendant beyond a reasonable doubt, you must consider and weigh the testimony of all the witnesses who have appeared before you.

You are the sole judges of the credibility of the witnesses. In other words, you alone are to determine whether to believe any witness and to what extent any witness should be believed. If there is any conflict in the testimony, it is your function to resolve the conflict and to determine where the truth lies.

In reaching a conclusion as to the credibility of any witness, and in weighing the testimony of any witness, you may consider any matter that may have a bearing on the subject. You may consider the demeanor and the behavior of the witness on the witness stand; the witness' manner of testifying; whether the witness impresses you as a truthful individual; whether the witness impresses you as having an accurate memory and recollection; whether the witness had full opportunity to observe the matters concerning which he has testified; whether the witness has any interest in the outcome of this case, or friendship or animosity toward other persons concerned in this case.

You may consider the reasonableness or unreasonableness and the probability or improbability of the testimony of a witness in determining whether to accept it as truth and accurate. You may consider whether he has been contradicted.

If you believe that any witness has shown himself to be biased or prejudiced, either for or against either side in this trial, you may consider and determine whether such bias or prejudice has colored the testimony of the witness so as to affect the desire and capability of the witness to tell the truth.

You should give the testimony of each witness such weight as in your judgment it is fairly entitled to receive.

(Defendant as a Witness - Impeachment by Prior Convictions)

DEFENDANT'S PROPOSED JURY INSTRUCTION NO. 5 11

You must determine the defendant's guilt or innocence only on the evidence presented in this case, and not on the basis of other criminal convictions. I advise you, however, that under Maryland law you may consider, in weighing the evidence, the evidence of the defendant's prior criminal record for the limited purpose of reflecting upon the truth and veracity of his testimony, on the theory that a person with a prior criminal record may be less apt to tell the truth than a person who does not have a criminal record. Therefore, the defendant's criminal record has been admitted into evidence for the sole purpose of assisting you in evaluating the defendant's credibility, that is, his worthiness of belief. I emphasize that you should not attempt to draw any inferences of guilt from the fact that he may have been convicted on a prior occasion(s).

(Direct and circumstantial evidence)

DEFENDANT'S PROPOSED INSTRUCTION NO. 6 11

There are two types of evidence which the jury may consider in this case: direct evidence and circumstantial evidence.

Direct evidence is that which is attributable to actual knowledge of a fact, such as the testimony of an eyewitness, and its truthfulness and relative weight is within your sole determination.

Circumstantial evidence is that which proves the facts in issue directly by the proof of a chain of facts and circumstances from which an inference may arise as to the facts in issue. A conviction may be based solely upon circumstantial evidence. Where this occurs, the circumstances, taken together must be inconsistent with, or such as to exclude every reasonable hypothesis or theory of innocence, but proof of guilt to a mathematical certainty is not essential.

Thus, a conviction may rest on circumstantial evidence alone or direct evidence alone or on a combination of circumstantial and direct evidence. No greater degree of certainty is required when the evidence is circumstantial than when it is direct. In either case, you must be convinced beyond a reasonable doubt of the guilt of the defendant and, if you are not so convinced, you must find the defendant not guilty.

(Identification)

DEFENDANT'S PROPOSED JURY INSTRUCTION NO. 7

One of the most important issues in this case is the identification of the defendant as the perpetrator of the crime. The State has the burden of proving identity beyond a reasonable doubt. You, the jury, must be satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt of the accuracy of the identification of the defendant before you may convict him. If you are not convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant was the person who committed the crime, you must find the defendant not guilty.

Identification testimony is an expression of belief or impression by the witness. Its value depends on the opportunity the witness had to observe the offender at the time of the offense and to make a reliable identification later.

In appraising the identification testimony of a witness, you should consider the following:

1. ~~Are you convinced that~~ ^{Did} the witness ^{have} had the capacity and an adequate opportunity to observe the offender?

Whether the witness had an adequate opportunity to observe the offender at the time of the offense will be affected by such matters as how long or short a time was available, how far or close the witness was, how good were the lighting conditions, whether the witness had had occasion to see or know the person in the past.

2. ~~Are you satisfied that~~ ^{Was} the identification made by the witness subsequent to the offense ~~was~~ the product of ^{her} his own recollection? You may take into account both the strength of the identification, and the circumstances under which the identification was made.

If the identification by the witness may have been influenced by the circumstances under which the defendant was presented to ^{her} him for identification, you should scrutinize the identification with great care. You may also consider the length of time that lapsed between the occurrence of the crime and the next opportunity of the witness to see defendant, as a factor bearing on the reliability of the identification.

3. Finally, you must consider the credibility of each identification witness in the same way as any other witness, consider whether he is truthful and consider whether he had the capacity and opportunity to make a reliable observation on the matter covered in his testimony.

I again emphasize that the burden of proof on the prosecutor extends to every element of the crime charged, and this specifically includes the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt the identity of the defendant as the perpetrator of the crime with which he stands charged. ~~If after examining the testimony, you have a reasonable doubt as to the accuracy of the identification, you must find the defendant not guilty.~~

U.S. v. Holley, 502 F 2d 273 (1974)

(Inference in Defendant's Favor)

DEFENDANT'S PROPOSED JURY INSTRUCTION NO. 9 M

The Court instructs the Jury that there has been testimony in this case which, if believed, could establish that the Defendant did in some manner participate in an offense. On the other hand, there is other evidence in this case which, if believed, could establish that the Defendant is innocent of the crimes charged against him. In this regard, you are advised that a Defendant in a criminal case is entitled to every inference in his favor which can reasonably be drawn from the evidence. Where there are two inferences which may be reasonably drawn from the same facts, one consistent with guilt and the other consistent with innocence, the Defendant, under the law, is entitled to the inference consistent with innocence, and he must be found not guilty.

RAPE

10

The Defendant, Jay Groce, is charged with the First Degree Rape of Amanda Endley. To sustain a conviction for this crime, the State must convince you beyond a reasonable doubt that the Defendant engaged in vaginal intercourse with Amanda Endley by force or threat of force against her will and without her consent; you must further find that when the Defendant had vaginal intercourse with Amanda Endley that the incident involved ¹¹⁻⁶⁻⁹⁹ ~~one of the following~~ ^{aggravating circumstances of} ~~the following~~ ^{strangulation} ~~aggravating circumstances.~~

- A. The Defendant employed or displayed a dangerous or deadly weapon or an article which the victim reasonably concluded was a dangerous or deadly weapon; or
- B. The Defendant inflicted suffocation, strangulation, disfigurement, or serious physical injury upon the victim or upon anyone else in the course of committing the offense; or
- C. The Defendant threatened or placed the victim in fear that she or any other person known to her would be imminently subjected to death, suffocation, strangulation, disfigurement, serious physical injury or kidnapping; or
- D. The Defendant committed the offense with the assistance of one or more other persons.

The Legislature has defined "Vaginal Intercourse" as having the ordinary meaning of genital copulation. There must be penetration by the penis, it need only be slight, and there need not be emission of semen.

The State must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the act of vaginal intercourse between the Defendant and Amanda Endley was accomplished by force. If the acts and threats of the Defendant were reasonably calculated to create through fear a real apprehension of imminent bodily harm, serious enough to impair or overcome her will to resist, then such acts and threats are the equivalent of force. Hazel v. State, 221 Md. 464 (1960).

The State must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the victim did not consent to the act of vaginal intercourse. A woman who is conscious and possesses ordinary mental and physical powers when the act takes place, must resist vaginal intercourse to the extent of her ability at the time. However, there is a significant difference between consent and submission, but submission does not necessarily imply consent. Submission to a compelling force, or as the result of being placed in fear, is not consent. Consent is absent where the victim is so terrified by threats that her will to resist is overcome. Lucas v. State, 2 Md. App. 590 (1967).

If the State has not met its burden of proff as to all four points, then you must find the Defendant not guilty of First Degree Rape, and you must go on to consider the next charge, Second Degree Rape.

SECOND DEGREE RAPE

DEFENDANT'S REQUESTED JURY INSTRUCTION //

The Legislature has defined Second Degree Rape as engaging in vaginal intercourse with a person by force or threats of force against the will and without the consent of such person. Second Degree Rape, therefore, shares the same elements of proof as First Degree Rape except the State need not prove any of the aggravating circumstances mentioned earlier. The same interpretations of "force" and "consent" discussed in the instruction on First Degree Rape apply to the elements of Second Degree Rape.
