PETITION TO REDUCE BOND

The Defendant, Roger Trotter, by his attorney, Russell J. White, petitions this Honorable Court for a reduction in the amount of his appearance bond, and in support of his petition says:

1. That he is the Defendant named in the above-entitled proceedings.
2. That he is married to Anna Trotter and two children were born to the marriage; Travesse, age three (3) years and Christopher age one (1) year. The Defendant and his family reside in Baltimore, Maryland.
3. That he is currently in the custody of the Baltimore County Detention Center by virtue of a warrant charging him with kidnapping and sex offense.

EILED MAR 14 1986

4. That the District Court of Maryland for Baltimore County has set bail at Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00).

5. That the object of an appearance bond is not to punish a person accused of a crime, but simply to secure his appearance whenever required by this Honorable Court.

6. That the Defendant believes that the amount of bond presently required is excessive and violates his constitutional right to reasonable bail under Article 25 of the Declaration of Rights and the Eighth Amendment of the United States Constitution.

7. That the Defendant desires to effectuate his release on his own recognizance or a more reasonable bond and believes that he would be a fit subject for such release.

8. That the Defendant's parents own property in Baltimore and Ocean City, Maryland. The equity in the properties total approximately One Hundred Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars ($125,000). Said property is eligible to be posted with the Court.

WHEREFORE, the Defendant prays this Honorable Court to release him on his own recognizance or to reduce the bail and permit the property to be posted.
