DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This large frame building, 2 stories high, is T shaped. The main section, extensively altered, appears to have been a center-hall house 5 bays by 2. A high, severely plain porch shelters the first floor.

Upstairs a dormer over a triple window is flanked by 4-window bays under five-sided hipped roofs. Twin gables are at the sides of the building.

The long wing, severely plain, is about 9 bays long. The first floor has been added to by enclosing porches.
