BAIL BOND

KNOW ALL PERSONS BY THESE PRESENTS:

That I/we, the undersigned, jointly and severally acknowledge that I/we, our personal representatives, successors, and assigns are held and firmly bound unto the State of Maryland in the penalty sum of $2,500.00

YOUR OBLIGATION ON POSTING BOND

You have pledged bond for the release of another person. This makes you responsible for seeing that the Defendant appears in Court at the time and place specified on the Bond.

DISCHARGE OF BOND BY SURRENDERING DEFENDANT

If you believe that the Defendant may not appear or if he is planning to leave the State of Maryland, you may surrender him and any fee received for the bond to a commissioner at any time before forfeiture and be relieved of the obligation.

YOUR LOSS IF DEFENDANT DOES NOT APPEAR FOR TRIAL

Failure of the Defendant to appear will result in the forfeiture of the bond. The forfeiture may be satisfied by payment of the full amount of the bond or by producing the Defendant within 90 days of the forfeiture. You may request a judge to grant an extension up to 180 days for the satisfaction of the bond. If the Defendant is produced within the required time you must petition the Court to enter the forfeiture satisfied. The Court may require that the expenses of the state in producing the Defendant be paid. Failure to pay the forfeiture will result in the entry of a judgment against you, and could result in the seizure and sale of your house, car or other personal property to satisfy the judgment.

RETURN OF BOND AFTER DEFENDANT APPEARS FOR TRIAL

If you have posted cash bond and the Defendant has been placed on probation before judgment, found not guilty, or the charges were dismissed, nol prossed or steted, the amount refunded to you will be returned by check.

If an appeal is filed, the bond will continue in effect until trial in the higher court. However, the bond may be immediately released if the Defendant personally appears to sign a release of the bond and a statement that he understands that a new bond must be posted if he does file an appeal. This release can be signed only by the Defendant in the presence of a Court official. The refund will then be made to you by check.

INITIAL APPEARANCE REPORT (Rule 4-213)

I hereby certify that when the above named Defendant was brought before me for his initial appearance, I:

- INFORMED the Defendant of each offense with which he is charged and of the allowable penalties, including mandatory penalties, if any.
DETERMINED that Defendant has been provided with a copy of the charging document.
PROVIDED the Defendant with a copy of the charging document.
ADVISED Defendant that copy of Charging Document is not available, but will be provided within 24 hours.
FURNISHED to the Defendant a copy of the Notice to Defendant printed on the charging document since no charging document was available.
ADVISED Defendant of right to counsel. Defendant desires to proceed without counsel to employ his own counsel.
REQUIRED the Defendant to read the Notice to Defendant printed on charging documents.
READ to the Defendant the Notice to Defendant printed on charging document.
ADVISED the Defendant that if he appears for trial without a lawyer, the Court could determine that he has waived his right to counsel and could proceed to trial.
ADVISED Defendant that he is charged with a felony that is not within the jurisdiction of the District Court; that he has a right to have a preliminary hearing by a request made now or within ten days; that failure to make a timely request will result in a waiver.
Defendant requests preliminary hearing. Clerk will notify him of date. It is scheduled for 4-16-87 @ 1:15 P.M. Defendant waives preliminary hearing Defendant defers election.

Pretrial Release Determination (Rule 4-216)

On the basis of information available to and developed by me I HAVE DETERMINED:

- That Defendant is not eligible for release under Art. 27, Sec. 616 1/2 or Art. 27, Sec. 638 B of the Maryland Code.
That Defendant may be released on his personal recognizance because:
He is not charged with an offense for which the maximum penalty is death or life imprisonment.
It will reasonably assure his appearance.
There is a lack of probable cause to believe that the Defendant committed the offense.
All the charges against the Defendant are nonjailable offenses.
That release on personal recognizance will not reasonably ensure the appearance of the defendant as required because #1 #8 Prior Record. On Parole for manslaughter

I imposed the following conditions to ensure his appearance:

- committed him to custody of who agree to supervise him and assist in ensuring his appearance in court.
placed him under the supervision of Probation or Public Officer subjected him to restrictions travel, association, residence

- required a bail bond in the amount of $25,000 on the following condition:
without collateral security.
with collateral security equal in value to the full penalty amount, to $25.00, to % of the full penalty amount, to be satisfied by depositing the required amount in cash or certified check, or the pledging of intangible property approved by the Court.
with collateral security equal in value to the full penalty amount to be satisfied by encumbering real estate.
with the obligation of a corporation which is an insurer or other surety in the full penalty amount.

Informed the Defendant that a warrant for his arrest will be issued if he violates the conditions of release and informed him that if the recognizance or bail bond is forfeited and he willfully fails to surrender himself within 30 days following the forfeiture, he may be charged and fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned for not more than 5 years or both, if given in connection with a charge of felony; or charged and fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than 1 year or both, if given in connection with a misdemeanor charge.

Informed the Defendant that he must notify the Court in writing of any change of address or telephone number.

* CIRCUIT COURT * FOR * BALTIMORE COUNTY
* CASE NO.: 87-CR2944

MOTION TO SUPPRESS EVIDENCE

Defendant, by his undersigned attorney, pursuant to Maryland Rule 4-252, hereby moves to suppress the following evidence on the grounds stated below:

A. Extra-judicial and in-court identification evidence and testimony.

1. Resulting from a pre-trial confrontation at which defendant was not represented by counsel in violation of his rights to counsel guaranteed by the Sixth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and by Article 21 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights.

2. Resulting from a pre-trial confrontation which was so unnecessarily suggestive and conducive to irreparable mistaken identification that defendant was denied due process of law guaranteed him by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and Article 22 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights.

3. Resulting from observations by the witness at the scene of the alleged crime which occurred so long ago that to permit that witness to attempt an in-court identification of defendant would be to deny defendant due process of law guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution and by Article 22 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights.

FILED JUL 2 1987

4. Resulting from an illegal arrest or search and seizure conducted in violation of the common law of Maryland, the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution and Article 26 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights.

5. Resulting from an involuntary or otherwise illegally obtained statement by defendant in violation of the common law of Maryland, due process of law guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution and Article 22 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights, and the right to counsel guaranteed by the Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution and Article 21 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights.

6. Resulting from an illegal eavesdrop or wiretap conducted in violation of Article 27, Section 125A of the Maryland Code, 18 U.S.C., Section 2510 et seq., and the right to counsel guaranteed by the Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution and Article 21 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights.

7. Resulting from the failure by the State or the Court to properly sequester identification witnesses in violation of Maryland Rule 4-321, the common law of Maryland, and due process of law guaranteed by the Fifth Amendment and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution and by Article 22 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights.

8. Resulting from witnesses whose identification were not disclosed to defendant as required by Maryland Rule 4-262(2)(c) and e(1).

B. Statements, Admissions, and Confessions.

1. Which were obtained in violation of (a) the common law of Maryland, (b) due process of law guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution and by Article 22 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights,

(c) defendant's right against self-incrimination guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution and Article 22 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights, and (d) defendant's right to counsel guaranteed by the Sixth and Fourteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and Article 21 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights.

2. Obtained from an arrestee during a period of unnecessary delay in producing him before a judicial officer in violation of Maryland District Rule 4-231(c), or obtained after such period and tainted by it.

3. Resulting from an illegal eavesdrop or wiretap conducted in violation of Article 27, Section 125A of the Maryland Code, 18 U.S.C. Section 2510 et seq., and the right to counsel guaranteed by the Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution and Article 21 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights.

4. Which were not disclosed to defendant as required by Maryland Rule 4-263 a(2)(b) and (e).

5. Which illegally obtained but are offered by the State either to impeach an issue which it first solicited from defendant on cross-examination or to impeach his general rather than specific credibility.

6. By co-defendant(s), for use in a joint trial where the co-defendants do not testify, which implicate defendant and deprive him of his right to confrontation guaranteed by the Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments and Article 21 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights.

C. All other evidence and testimony.

1. Resulting from an involuntary or otherwise illegally obtained statement by defendant in violation of the common law of Maryland, due process of law guaranteed by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution and Article 22 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights, and the right to counsel guaranteed by the Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution and Article 21 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights.

2. Resulting from an illegal eavesdrop or wiretap conducted in violation of Article 27, Section 125A of the Maryland Code, 18 U.S.C. Section 2510 et seq., and the right to counsel guaranteed by the Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution and Article 21 of the Maryland Declaration of Rights.

3. In Wade Iglehart Johnson v. State, ___ Md. ___ (Daily Record, April 27, 1978), the Court of Appeals said:

"We therefore hold that any statement, voluntary or otherwise, obtained from an arrestee during a period of unnecessary delay in producing him before a judicial officer, thereby violating M.D.R. 4-231c (a), is subject to exclusion when offered into evidence against the defendant as part of the prosecution's case-in-chief. A statement is automatically excludible if, at the time it was obtained from the defendant, he had not been produced before a commissioner for his initial appearance within the earlier of 24 hours after arrest or the first session of court following arrest, irrespective of the reason for the delay. Where, however, the delay in presentment falls within the outer limits established by M.D.R. 4-231c, it is incumbent upon the trial court to determine whether the State has met its burden of showing that the delay was necessary under the circumstances of the particular case." at p.3

The Court of Appeals also suppressed a subsequent statement, saying:

"We cannot say, on the record before us, that the second confession was an independent act, occurring after time for deliberate reflection and therefore free from the taint of the preceding illegal detention."

MOTION FOR DISCOVERY AND INSPECTION

Defendant, by his undersigned attorney, pursuant to Maryland Rules 4-263 and 4-601, Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), Giles v. Maryland, 386 U.S. 66 (1967), United States v. Argurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976), Carr v. State, 284 Md. 455 (1979), and Leonard v. State, 46 Md. App. 631 (1980), moves for the disclosure of the following material and information from the State's Attorney, members of his staff, and any others who have participated in the investigation or evaluation of this case:

A. DISCLOSURE WITHOUT REQUEST (4-263a - PARTICULARIZED)

1. Any material or information which tends to negate the guilt of the defendant or which is material to the innocence of the defendant, including, but not limited to, the following:

a. Any oral or written statements by any witness, co-defendant, or any other person, including their names and addresses, indicating:

- (1) that he or others, and not the defendant, committed the crime(s) alleged; or
- (2) that the defendant was not one of the persons who perpetrated the alleged crime; or
- (3) that the defendant's participation in the alleged crime was less serious than his co-defendant(s); or
- (4) that the defendant's participation in the alleged crime was coerced or otherwise involuntary; or
- (5) that the defendant's participation in the alleged crime was not knowing or intentional; or
- (6) that the defendant's participation in the alleged crime occurred while he was under the influence of drugs or alcohol; or
- (7) that the defendant acted in a bizarre or unusual fashion before, during, or after the commission of the alleged crime; or
- (8) that the defendant's conduct was accidental, inadvertent or negligent, rather than intentional; or

FILED JUL 2 1987

- (9) that the defendant's conduct was provoked by the victim or any other person; or
- (10) that the defendant was attempting to act in self-defense or defense of another; or
- (11) that the defendant acted in the heat of passion; or
- (12) that the defendant was engaged in mutual combat with the victim and/or others at the time of the death or injury; or
- (13) that the defendant was not at the scene of the alleged crime when it was committed; or
- (14) that the defendant was physically, mentally, or otherwise incapable of committing the alleged crime; or
- (15) that the defendant had a good reputation for truthfulness, peacefulness, honesty, or any other relevant character traits at the time of the commission of the alleged crime.

b. Any scientific, psychiatric, psychological, or medical test results which indicate conclusively or inconclusively:

- (1) that the defendant did not fire the gun used to perpetrate the alleged crime; or
- (2) that the gun allegedly possessed by the defendant was inoperable, defective, or otherwise incapable of being used as alleged; or
- (3) that the bullets or projectiles which struck or were fired at the victim(s) were not fired by any gun(s) linked to defendant or were not suitable for comparison; or
- (4) that the death of the victim was caused by an act of God, disease, accident, mistake, inadvertence, carelessness, or unknown forces and was not caused by the defendant; or
- (5) that any burning or other damage to property was caused by an act of God, carelessness, accident, or unknown forces and was not intentionally caused; or
- (6) that the substance or mechanism used to intentionally or recklessly burn or damage the property involved in the case was not identified; or
- (7) that conduct of the defendant not amounting to criminal behavior could have caused the act alleged; or
- (8) that the substances seized from the defendant or any other relevant person or place were not the controlled dangerous substances alleged or were not in fact controlled dangerous substances; or
- (9) that the skin, hair, blood, or other bodily substances collected by the State were not those of the defendant; or
- (10) that the fingerprints found at the scene or at any other relevant place were not those of the defendant; or
- (11) that the defendant did not commit any or all of the crimes alleged; or
- (12) that the defendant committed crimes difference than those alleged; or

(13) that the defendant had a mental disorder or abnormality before, during, or after the commission of the alleged crime; or

(14) that the defendant was physically incapable or committing the crime or of performing any one or more of the act(s) attributed to the person who committed the crime; or

(15) that a third person committed the acts or crimes alleged.

c. The names, addresses, physical descriptions and photographs, if any, of any persons other than the defendant who were identified, whether positively or not, arrested, or otherwise taken into custody by the State as a possible suspect in this case and any reports made concerning same.

d. Any reports, material or information which indicate:

(1) that the police do not believe that the defendant was the person who committed the crime; or

(2) that the police investigation to determine who committed the crime is still continuing; or

(3) that the police investigation to determine how the crime was committed, or whether a crime was committed, is still continuing; or

(4) that the police or any other State agents committed a trespass, illegal eavesdrop or wiretap, illegal search and seizure, unnecessarily suggestive identification, or any other illegal act which led to the discovery of any evidence against defendant; or

(5) that the police made any promises, threats, or inducements, however slight, or used any physical force to obtain a statement from defendant; or

(6) that the police did not comply with Miranda v. Arizona, in obtaining a statement from defendant.

e. Any evidence supporting or corroborating defendant's exculpatory statement(s) to police or others, including, but not limited to, oral or written statements of witnesses, records, reports, documents, or physical evidence.

f. Any evidence substantiating, supporting, or corroborating defendant's statement as to alibi, including, but not limited to, oral or written statements of witnesses, records, reports, documents, or physical evidence.

g. Any reports, material, or information that any of the witnesses have against defendant:

(1) have made any written or oral statements which conflict with their proposed trial testimony;

- (2) have made any agreement(s) with the prosecution and the substance of, and documentary support for, any such agreements;
- (3) were under the influence of alcohol or drugs at the time of the commission of the alleged crime or at the time they gave statements to any state agent or grand jury;
- (4) were at any time under the care or treatment of any psychologist or psychiatrist or institution;
- (5) were suffering from any mental, emotional, or physical impairment or condition which would tend to make their observations, testimony, or conclusions less reliable than a person who was not impaired;
- (6) were an accomplice or accessory with the defendant in the commission of the crimes alleged;
- (7) have at any time been convicted of any crime of moral turpitude, have been found delinquent or any juvenile offense involving fraud, dishonesty, or false statement, or have been convicted of any military offense of like nature;
- (8) have committed any crimes for which they were not prosecuted or convicted;
- (9) have any bias, prejudice, or hostility towards defendant or any of his witnesses;
- (10) have identified, whether positively or not, any person(s) other than the defendant as being, resembling, or looking like the perpetrator of the alleged crime;
- (11) were in such physical location that they were not able accurately or completely to observe the alleged crime;
- (12) were less than positive in their identification of defendant as the perpetrator of the alleged crime;
- (13) were of the opinion that defendant was not, or did not look like, the perpetrator of the alleged crime;
- (14) made a previously mistaken identification of any co-defendant in the case.

h. Any evidence of the violent character of the victim, including, but not limited to, prior assaultive behavior or threats by him against anyone and any prior convictions of crimes of violence.

2. Any material or information which would tend to reduce the punishment of defendant, including, but not limited to, the following:

- a. As to any prior conviction of the defendant, that at the time, he was not represented by counsel or was under 18 years of age or both; or
- b. Any other mitigating circumstance favorable to the defendant; or
- c. Any oral or written statement by any person that defendant is of good character or cooperated with the police or the State in any way.

3. Any relevant material or information regarding specific searches and seizures, including, but not limited to, the following:

- a. The places and persons searched and the dates and times thereof;
  - b. The names and addresses of all persons who either conducted or witnesses the search(es);
  - c. An inventory of the evidence seized;
  - d. A copy of all reports and each search and/or seizure including affidavits, applications, and search warrants.
4. Any relevant material or information regarding wiretaps and eavesdropping, including, but not limited to, the following:
- a. All logs, reports, and other records kept concerning all wiretaps and eavesdrops except those containing the opinions, theories, or conclusions of the Assistant State's Attorney assigned to the case.
5. Any relevant material or information regarding statements made by the defendant, including, but not limited to, the following:
- a. A copy of each written and recorded statement;
  - b. The substance of each oral statement;
  - c. A copy of all reports of each oral or written statement;
  - d. The time and place of each oral or written statement;
  - e. The names and addresses of the persons to whom the statements were made and the witnesses to the taking of same.
6. Any relevant material or information concerning any pre-trial identification of the defendant by witnesses for the State, whether positive or not, including, but not limited to, the following:
- a. The names and addresses of such identification witnesses;
  - b. Any oral or written statement by such identification witnesses whether written by the witnesses or by the police;
  - c. The dates, times, and places of all identifications of defendant or co-defendants made by such identification witnesses, including, but not limited to, identifications made under the following circumstances:
    - (1) At the scene of the alleged crime or some other place where the witnesses were taken on or about the time of the commission of the alleged crime to observe the defendant or vice-versa;
    - (2) At photographic showings;
    - (3) At lineups, showups, or other corporeal identifications;
    - (4) At courthouse encounters arising from any juvenile hearing, arraignment, bail hearing, preliminary hearing, pre-trial motion hearing, previous trial date, etc.
  - d. The names and addresses of all persons who either conducted or witnessed the identifications in (c) above.
  - e. A copy of all reports of each identification of defendant.

f. All of the above information concerning any voice identification of defendant.

B. DISCOVERY BY DEFENDANT (4-263b).

1. Witnesses (4-263b1)

- a. The name and address of each person whom the State intends to call as a witness at a hearing or trial to prove its case in chief.
- b. The name and address of each person whom the State intends to call as a witness at a hearing or trial to rebut alibi testimony.

2. Statements of Witnesses (Carra and Leonard)

- a. The pre-trial statements of all State's witnesses made to the State before trial, whether written or oral.

3. Statements of Defendant (4-263b2)

- a. A copy of each written or recorded statement made by the defendant to a State agent which the State intends to use at a hearing or trial.
- b. The substance of each oral statement made by the defendant to a State agent which the State intends to use at a hearing or trial.

4. Statements of Co-defendants, Accomplices and Accessories (4-263b3)

- a. A copy of each written or recorded statement made by a co-defendant, accomplice, or accessory to a State agent which the State intends to use at a hearing or trial.
- b. The substance of each oral statement made by a co-defendant, accomplice, or accessory to a State agent which the State intends to use at a hearing or trial.
- c. A copy of all reports of each oral statement made by a co-defendant, accomplice, or accessory to a State agent which the State intends to use at a hearing or trial.

5. Reports of Experts (4-263b4)

- a. A copy of all written reports or statements made in connection with the defendant's case by each expert consulted by the State, including the results of any physical or mental examination, scientific test, experiment, or comparison.
- b. The substance of any oral report and conclusion made in connection with the defendant's case by each expert consulted by the State, including the results of any physical or mental examination, scientific test, experiment, or comparison.

6. Evidence for Use at Trial (4-363b5)

- a. A copy of any books, papers, documents, recordings, or photographs which the State intends to use at a hearing or trial.
- b. Inspection of any photographs which police or prosecuting authorities may have exhibited to a witness for purposes of identification of the defendant, and any other photographs which the State intends to use in the trial of the defendant, and the presentation of its case in chief, and to furnish the defendant with copies of said photographs, the names and addresses of witnesses who viewed said photographs and the results of each viewing of said photographs.

c. Produce and permit the defendant to inspect and photograph any tangible objects which the State intends to use at a hearing or trial.

d. Whether the defendant was confronted by identification witnesses in any manner other than a line-up while defendant was in custody of police or prosecution authorities, and if so, to furnish the defendant the time, place and circumstances of such confrontation including the names and addresses of all persons participating in said confrontation.

7. Property of the Defendant (4-263b6)

a. Produce and permit the defendant to inspect, copy, and photograph any item obtained from or belonging to the defendant, whether or not the State intends to use the item at a hearing or trial.

8. Informants (4-263c2)

a. The name and address of any informant, confidential or otherwise, who was a participant in, or witness to, the alleged illegal act which is the basis for this indictment.

b. The name and assignment of any law enforcement officer, city, county, state, or federal, who participated in any sale, purchase, or negotiation for the sale or purchase, of any contraband or evidence, said sale, purchase, or negotiation having formed any part of the basis for the charge against the defendant or any part of the alleged probable cause for an arrest or search involving the defendant.

9. Miscellaneous (4-263c: 4-260d,e,f)

a. Copies of any and all statements or reports of prosecution witnesses which have been reduced to writing which do not contain the opinions, theories, conclusions, or other work product of the Assistant State's Attorneys assigned to this case.

b. Inspection and review of any photographs, film, slides, or moving pictures containing relevant evidence in this case which the State has in its possession.

c. Copies of any warrants, affidavits, inventories, returns and other, inventories, returns and other related papers involved in these proceedings.
