The site of an early Friends' Meetinghouse near Broad Creek, now removed. Unused for thirty or more years except for occasional sessions of Deer Creek ~~Monthly~~ Quarterly Meeting, of which this meeting was a member, the building was felt to be an attraction for vandals and rowdies.

Frame timbers, siding, roofing, windows flooring and hardware were given to Edwin [illegible], architect, of Rising Sun, Maryland.

DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This site contains a marker noting the former existence of a meeting house. The building was a very plain frame structure, characteristic of those built by the Society of Friends except that as the Meeting began to flourish the original house was replaced by a stone or brick building. This Meeting did not make ~~the~~ it!

(The structure, dismantled, is now the property of Edward Plumstead of Calvert, Cecil County, Maryland. See CE-236 in the National Register for Maryland.)

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE (Include Personages, Dates, Events, Etc.)

This is the site of a Meeting that did not succeed. Members of the Society of Friends moved away or changed to other ~~meeting~~ churches or "commuted" to Deer Creek Meeting when automobiles made travel easier. Unused except on special occasions once or twice a year, this little country "church" was threatened by vandalism and abuse.

An architect, Edward Plumstead of Calvert, Cecil County, purchased the property before it was destroyed intentionally by Deer Creek Meeting, the owners. He dismantled the house carefully and moved the material to his home. Site now registered HA 13, Building in Cecil County is registered CE 236.
