STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE (Include Personages, Dates, Events, Etc.)

This fine old house was built in 1842 for a wealthy landowner Luther M Jarrett and his wife Julia Anne Searff Jarrett. The Jarrett was a member of State Legislature. Of their family of seven, two became doctors. The house left family hands about 1925 and has been sold frequently especially in later years partly because of its large size and difficulty of maintenance.

Sold now to a developer who intends to raze the building, remove the trees and build a gas station here. It is regrettable that an alternate use ~~[illegible]~~ had not been found for this place, but the ground underneath it is worth far more than the structure.
