DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This log house is being restored by owners who are carefully stripping off the clapboard and re-pointing the chinking, but who choose to paint the logs and stone foundation barn red, leaving conspicuous white stripes between the logs.

The dark-basement of stone has a door and a window facing south. A door in the one story log house above must have been cut down to a porch, now removed. A window on either side has one light over one.

There is a large stone chimney in the east wall rising from a basement fireplace. The asphalt shingle roof ridgeline runs east-west.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE (Include Personages, Dates, Events, Etc.)

Restoration is an hysterically colorful one! Hopefully this vacation house will be secure against the weather for years to come, and eventually adopted by owners with somewhat calmer taste.
