STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE (Include Personages, Dates, Events, Etc.)

The only P. C. R. R. building in Aberdeen that is over thirty years old. This freight depot handled much small-order freight now carried by truck. Other warehouses, except one, are privately owned by the lumber company or auto or other business that uses rail extensively.

(Passenger stations were new in 1940 when the Aberdeen Proving Ground was expanded. but have fallen into disuse — The one train a day sells tickets on board. The shelter on the eastbound platform has been leased to a chicken pick-up operation for at least 15 years.)
