DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Frame house with wing that may be of log. Clapboard covering. In two parts, ~~both~~ have A roof ridgelines running east west, and both face south away from the road.

The small wing at the west end may have been connected to the house at a later date. 1½ stories, 3 bays x 1, flat-roofed dormers face north, the roof extends to the south to water a low porch on the south. Windows have 2 lights over 2, clearly a later replacement. A tall chimney rises from the peak about 10' from the main house, ~~suggesting that there may be a connecting~~ at what may have been the east end wall of a small house.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE (Include Personages, Dates, Events, Etc.)

This may be a very old house. If the wing is log and a lg-o-mutton chimney still stands at its east end, it may pre-date the larger section, perhaps a separate house originally, that gives evidence of being almost 200 years old.

The larger section, 2 full stories high, has a wide chimney inside the east end wall. 4 bays by 2; with a full sash in the end wall, west, at the attic floor level; windows have 6 lights over 9 downstairs, 6 over 6 upstairs.

Weatherboarding has needed paint for decades, and maintenance is poor
