DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Because the woods surrounded this road have never been cut nor the land altered it has remained intact here for 50 or more years that this trail has survived from days of foot travel only. Many such paths lay in the way that white men were later to use with horses and later wagons and trucks, as HA 1035, but this is still unused by wheels.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This is a road that was not built by white men. Now used as a wide footpath for access to fishing sites, it happens to lie just above the waterline of the Conowingo Dam, finished in 1927.

Paths of this sort lace the forest beside the Susquehanna and presumably elsewhere.
