HO-272
Warfield Cemetery

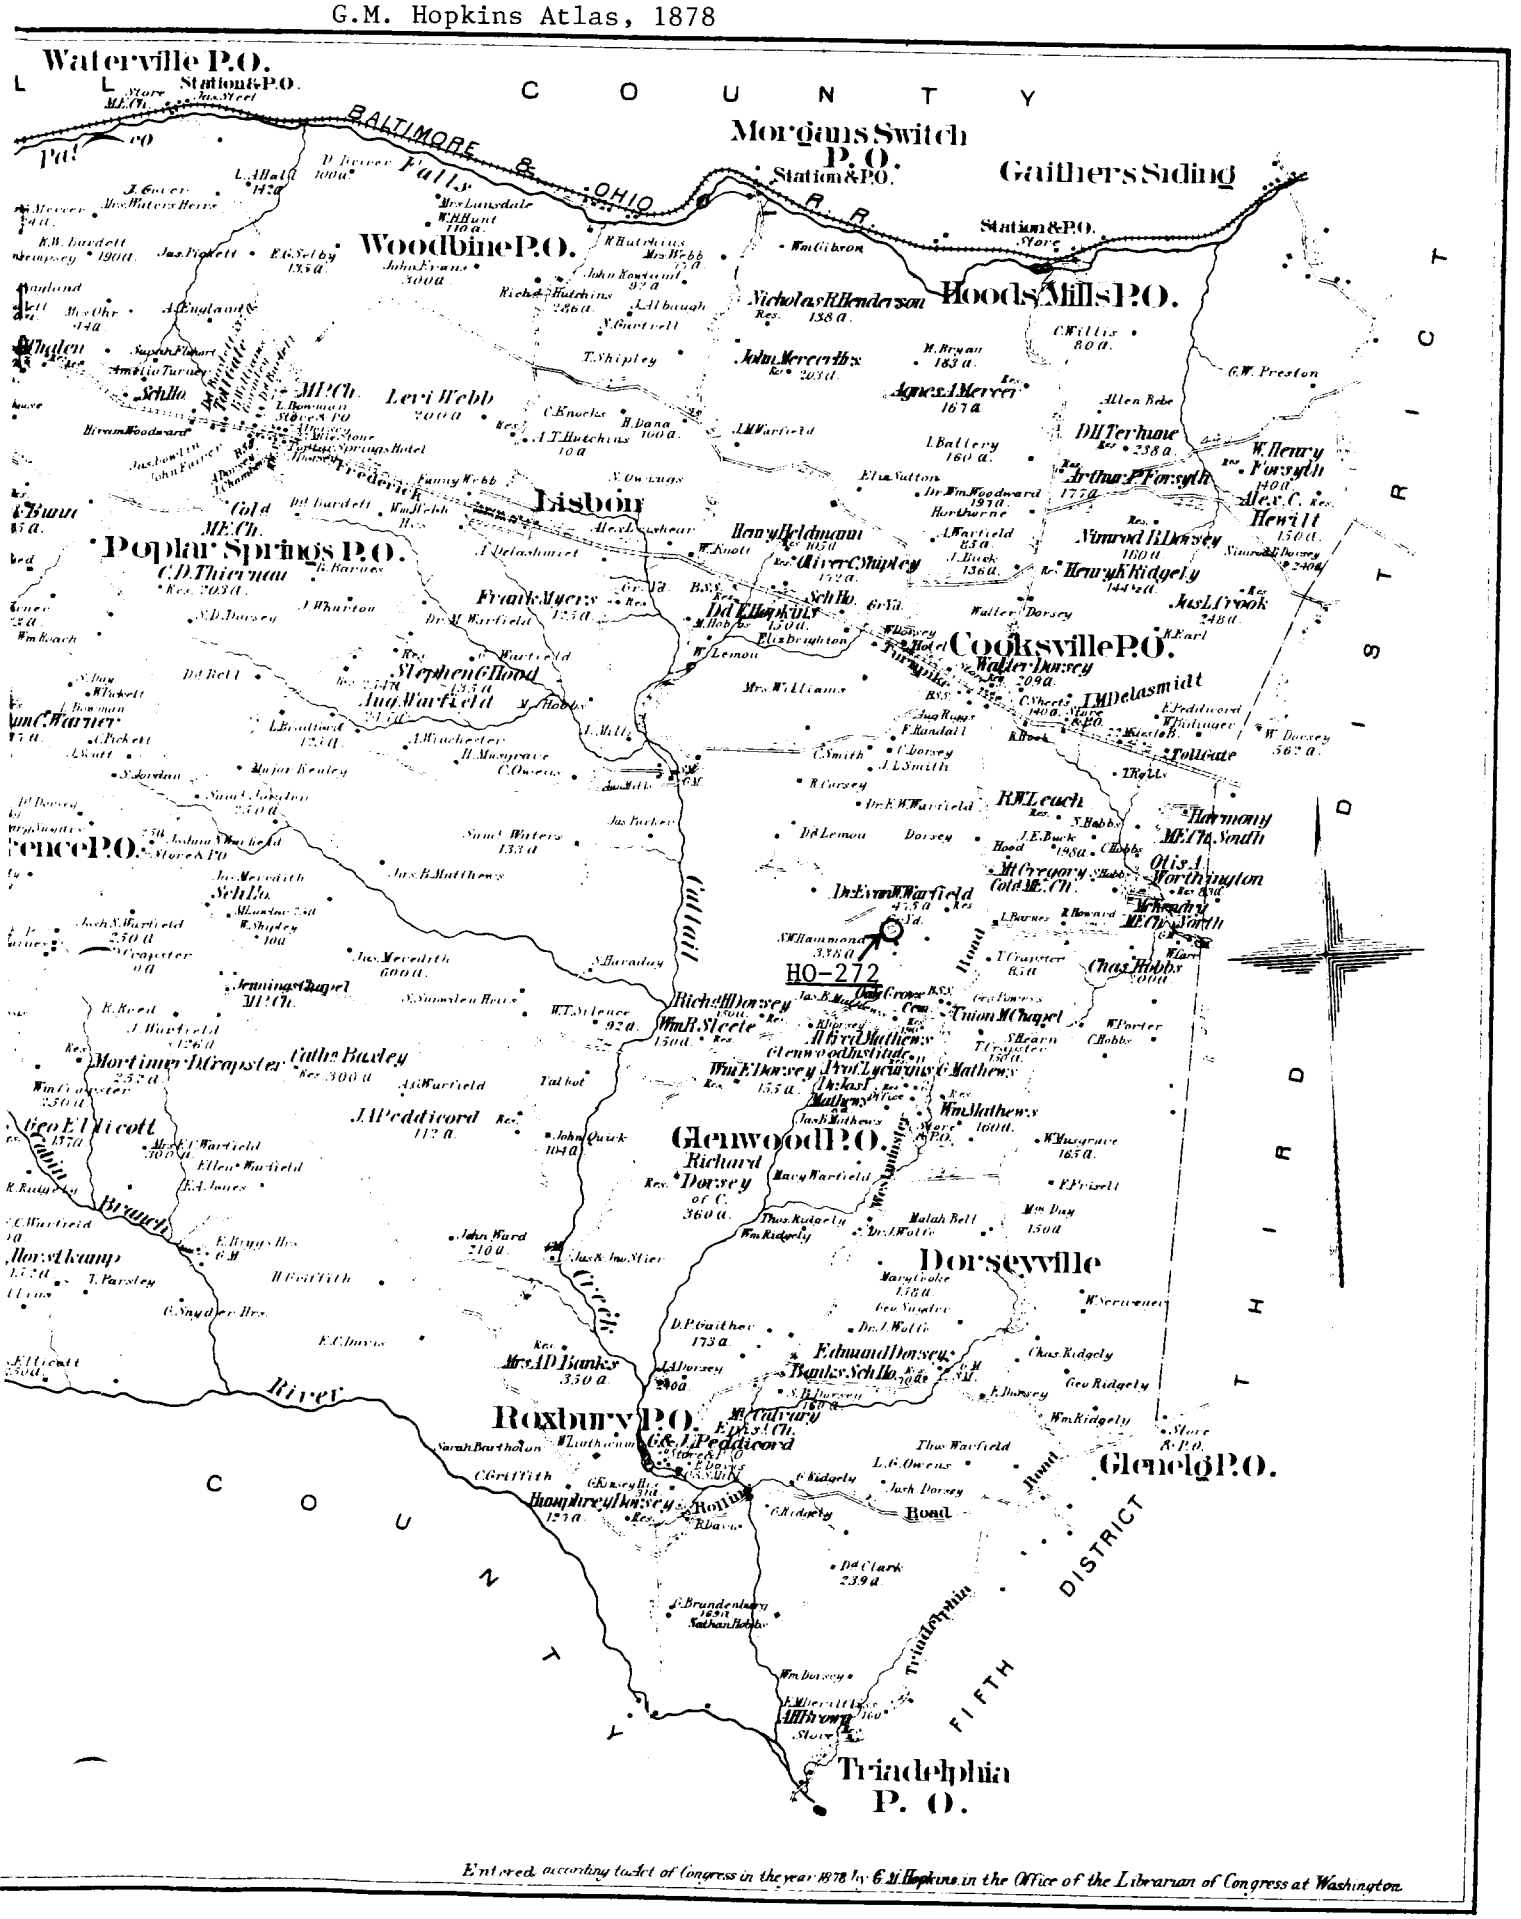
The cemetery is surrounded by a stone wall. A nearby sign (near Route 97) reads:

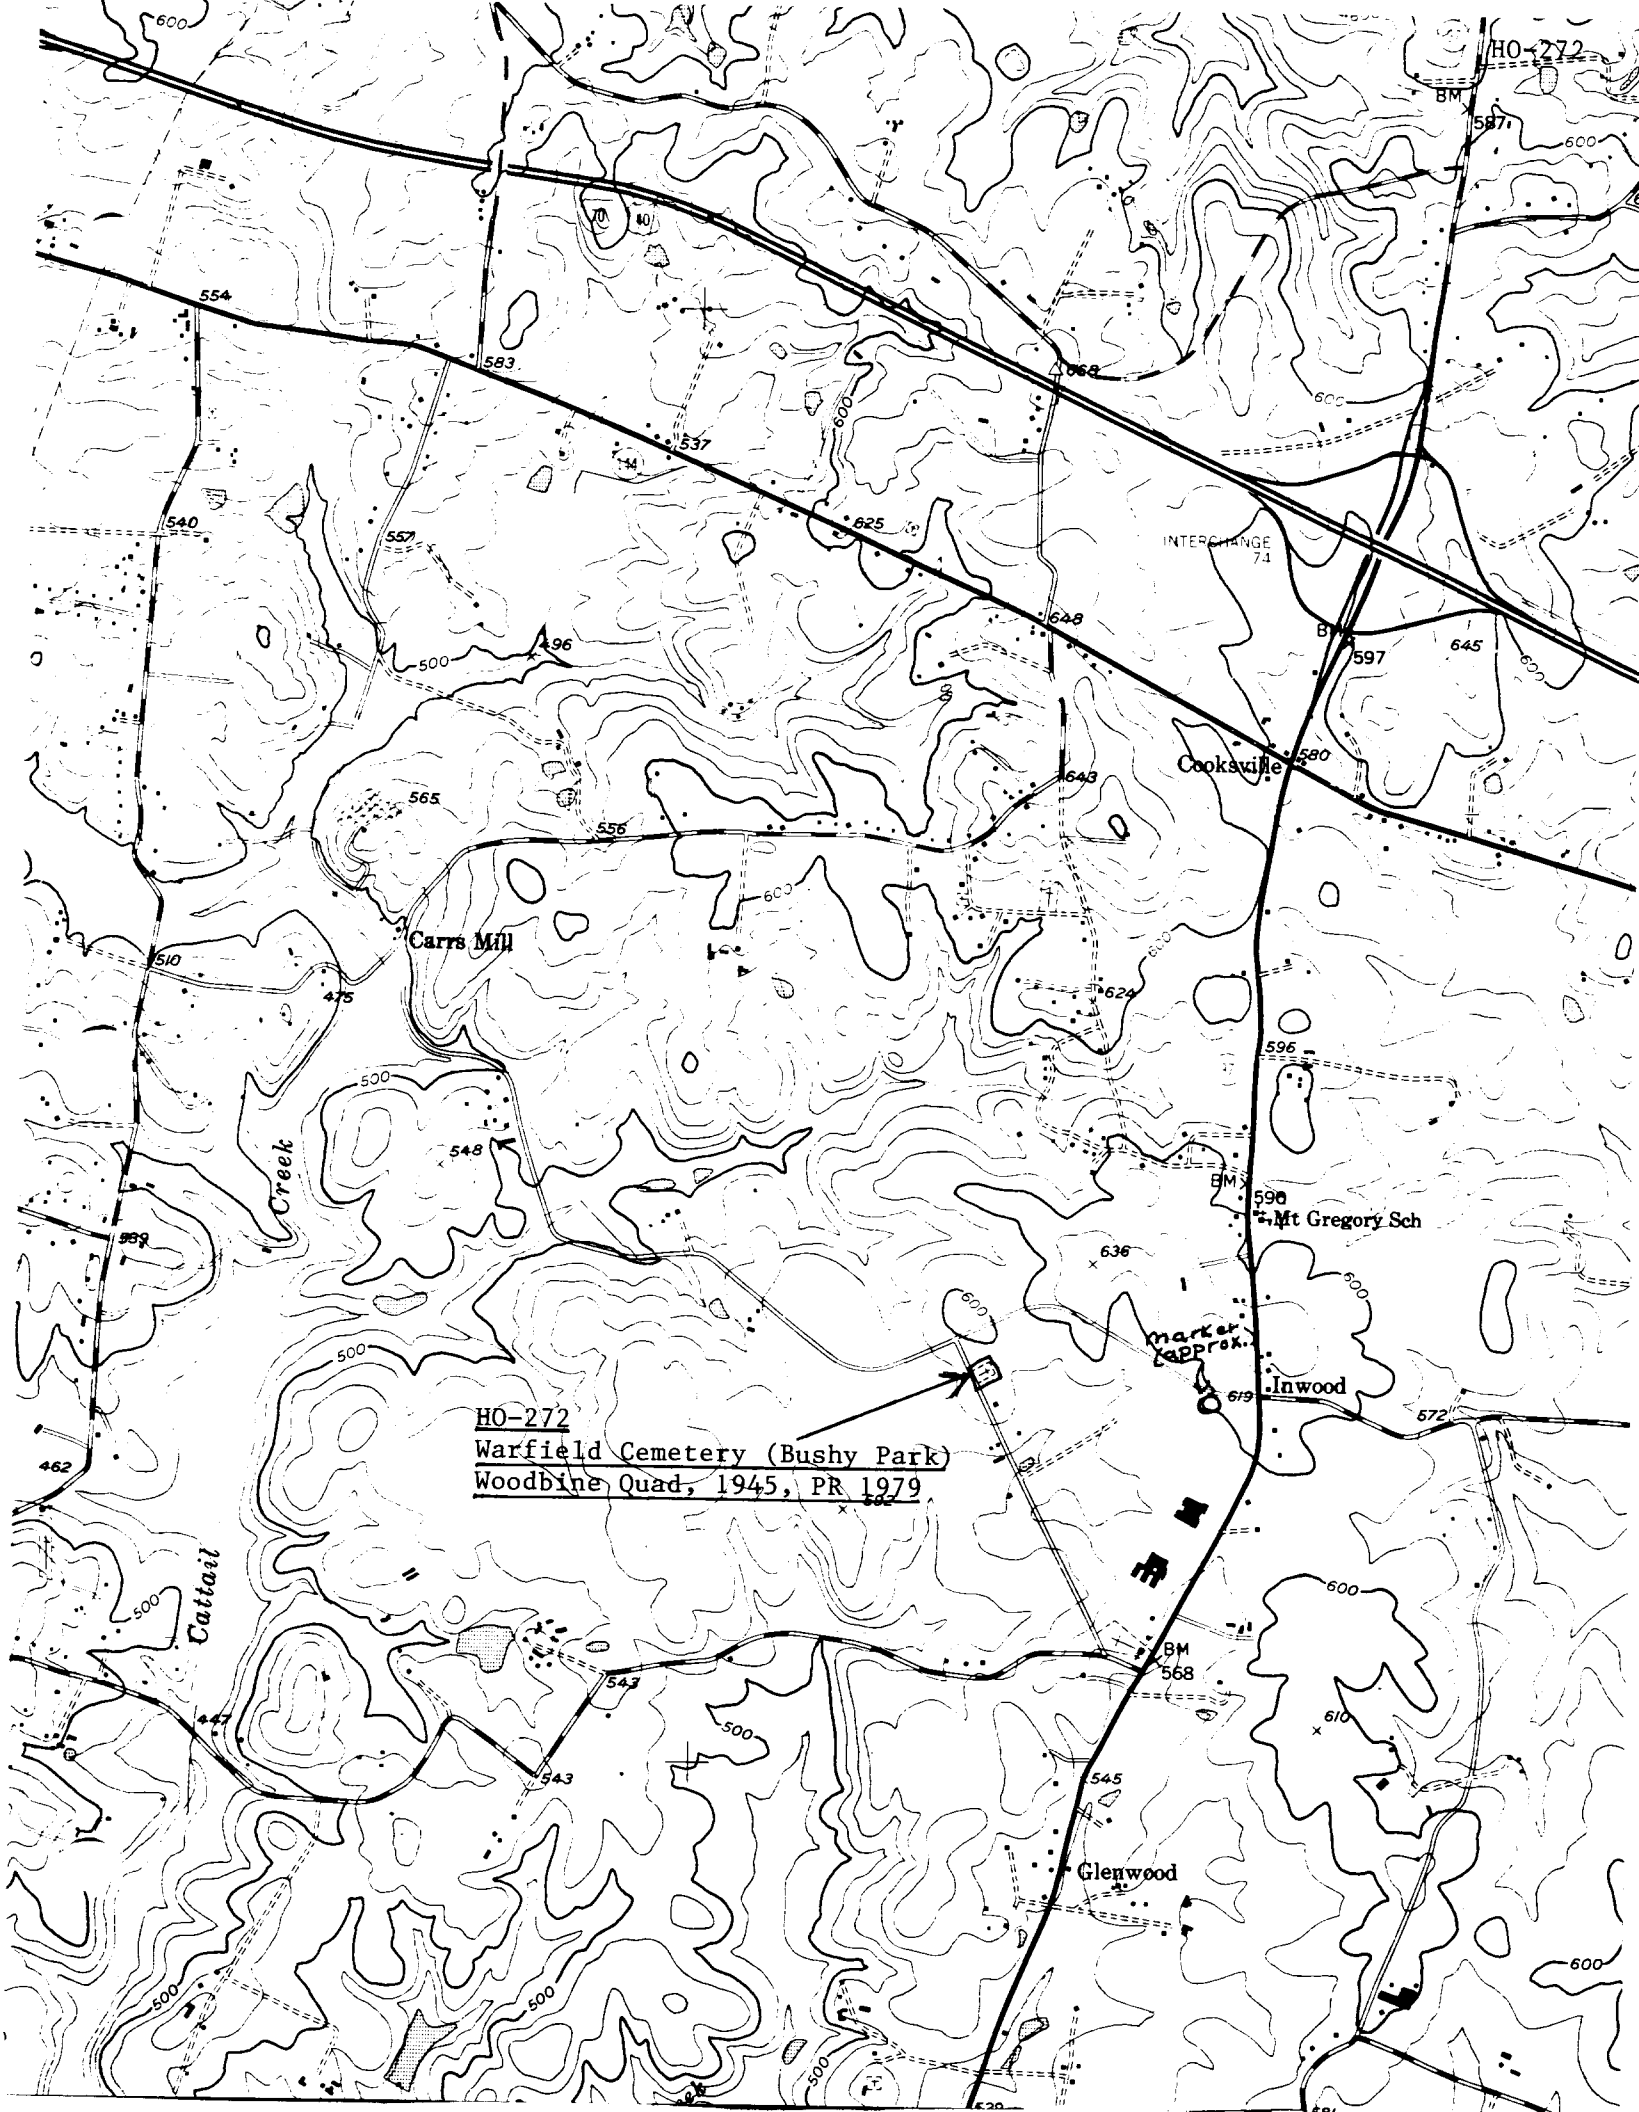
Dr. Charles Alexander Warfield
(1751-1813)

The grave of this Revolutionary War patriot is near this site. A member of the Sons of Liberty, he participated in the burning of the brig "Peggy Stewart," at Annapolis October 19, 1774, and also served as a Major in the Elkridge Battalion during the war.

Colonel Thomas Dorsey Chapter
Daughters of the American Revolution

Warfield Cemetery (Bushy Park)
Carrs Mill Road, Glenwood
G.M. Hopkins Atlas, 1878





HO-272
INTERCHANGE 7.1
Cooksville
Carrs Mill
Mt Gregory Sch
Inwood
Glenwood
Cattail Creek
marker (approx.)
HO-272
Warfield Cemetery (Bushy Park)
Woodbine Quad, 1945, PR 1979