DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The house is a large, square, two story brick structure with gabled roof. It is laid-up in Flemish bond on the main facade and endwalls, and in common bond on the rear facade. Flat arches carry the walls over the openings on the main facade, while the other facades' arches are segmental. The main (west) facade is four bays with the entrance in the second bay from the north end. Windows are 2/2 double hung sash.

The north end has a flush gable chimney set slightly to the west of the roof ridge. The south end has double external chimneys connected by a degenerate one story pent with shed roof. The pent projects farther to the south than a traditional closet pent would; it has a long double window in the south wall with a row of headers instead of a relieving arch. The roof of the pent has been raised to a flatter pitch than it originally had.

The watertable consists of a single course of moulded brick with a quarter-round profile. On the south chimneys, it is three courses of quarter-round bricks. The foundation is brick above the ground level.

The rear facade has a one story porch with small, turned, bracketed posts. This porch wraps around the south end of the house to the west wall of the pent.
