

No. 8305, Equity.

residents of Howard County, State of Illinois.

b. The defendant Margaret T. Harmon an adult daughter residing in Howard County, State of Maryland, who intermarried with John W. Harmon, late of Howard County, deceased.

d. The defendant, a son Edward E. Condon who intermarried with a lady Condon, his wife adults and residents of Frederick County.

e. The defendant, a daughter Amanda E. Bliss who intermarried with George Bliss adults and residents of Frederick County, Maryland.

f. The defendant, a daughter Amy F. Haines who intermarried with Harry Haines, adults and residents of Frederick County, Maryland.

g. The defendant, a daughter Arthur E. Watkins who intermarried with Edward Watkins, adults and residents of Frederick County, Maryland.

h. The defendant, a son, Robert G. Condon, who intermarried with a lady Condon, his wife, adults and residents of Tullahoma County, Texas.

i. The defendant, children of Susan J. Moleworth a deceased daughter of the said Joseph Condon, who intermarried with Joshua Moleworth, namely a son, Lewis L. Moleworth, who intermarried with Fannie F. Moleworth, his wife, adults and residents of Frederick County, Maryland, a son Theodore W. Moleworth, who intermarried with a lady Moleworth, his wife, adults and residents of Tullahoma County, State of Texas, a daughter, Beulah B. Moleworth, and adult and residing in the State of Indiana, a daughter, Virginia B. Moleworth, an infant residing in Frederick County, State of Maryland, and Ruby B. Moleworth, an infant daughter residing in the State of Indiana.

7. That the aforesaid real estate cannot be divided without great loss and injury to the parties interested therein, and that the only way a division of the real estate interests can be made made is by a sale of the said lands and a division of the proceeds and it would be to the interests and advantage of said infants and all the other parties to have the same sold and a division of the proceeds among them.

And Your Orator pray for the following Relief.

A. That a decree be granted for the sale of the real estate and the proceeds thereof, after the payment of the expenses incurred therein, be distributed among the parties entitled thereto.

B. That the writ of Subpoena may be issued out of your