And to S. H. Baker, for interest ½ the time between March 13/75 to Mch 11/76 on $470.76, the balance of the money for 6 shares of stock redeemed March 13/75. After paying his arrearages, to March 20/76 which balance remained deposited to meet dues & interest to accrue thereafter — $14.04

$10444.01

$10444.01

Excess of resources up to July 1-1876, over all liabilities — $27.80

The preceding Statement shows that the resources of the association, without counting any fines that have been incurred since September 18th 1875 - or that may hereafter be incurred; will if no losses occurs, be sufficient by the 1st day of July next to redeem all the unredeemed stock at its par value - and pay all other liabilities of the association, and leave a surplus of $27,80, to be distributed amongst the stockholders. The fines will it is believed be more than an equivalent for any losses of interest or compound interest that are embraced in the preceding Statement.

Your Committee have not matured any plan to authorize final settlements before the 1st day of July next - Should such settlements be deemed desirable and expedient; your Committee will hereafter submit a further Report -

Respectfully submitted

Meeting of Board of Directors Friday evening December 5th 1873.

The meeting was called to order by Vice Pres. J W Chapman, all the Directors being present, except J K Aldridge & R S Usilton.

The Chairman stated the object of the meeting to be, to designate how & in what way members holding unredeemed shares shall determine by lot who shall take the sum of settlement.

On motion the following Resolution was adopted, viz

"Resolution of the Board of Officers and Directors, to regulate the drawing for the redemption of unredeemed stock by lot.

Resolved: That whenever it shall be necessary under Section 1st of Article 4 of the Constitution of the Association for members thereof to draw lots to determine who shall redeem his stock - that folded tickets with the word redeem written on them, equal to the number of stockholders holding unredeemed shares, shall be placed in a hat or box with a like number of blank tickets, by the Secretary. All the tickets to be of the same size and folded in the same manner, and the hat or box then covered and shaken up, so as to mix the marked and blank tickets together. And that the President, or in his absence the Vice President, after being blindfolded, shall, for and in the name of the stockholders holding unredeemed shares, draw therefrom one ticket for each of said stockholders, or until a sufficient number of tickets with the word "redeemed" on them be drawn, to dispose of the funds then in the Treasury.

And that in said drawing the first ticket shall be for the stockholder who holds the largest number of unredeemed shares and the second for the stockholder holding the next largest number of unredeemed shares, and continue - each ticket to be for the Stockholder holding the highest number of shares to the one preceding - And that each member in whose name a ticket is drawn with the word "redeemed" on it shall be obliged to redeem one share of his stock; and may redeem more if he elects to do so. The Secretary shall, when a ticket is drawn and registered by the Secretary, replace it in the Hat before the next drawing, and the hat again shaken
