THE ILLINOIS OUTRAGE.

The Italian outrage on colored laborers at Spring Valley, Ill., will result in no benefit to the foreign labor element in the United States. The manly stand taken by the colored men of Chicago and their appeal for protection of colored miners against the foreign mob, was given prominent space in all the daily papers and the verdict of the public is against the Italians.

It is also gratifying to the AFRO-AMERICAN to note that the daily press North and South demands nothing less than justice for ex-Counsel Waller.
