A Worthy Charity.

Among the many worthy institutions in this city of a benevolent purpose is the colored Baptist Orphanage and Home for Colored Children at 432 Courtland St. Mrs. S W. Merriweather is the active and enthusiastic president of the institution. At present within the institution, receiving the care and attention of those who have charge of it, are thirty children. As this institution is a labor of love and depends for its support upon the voluntary charity of those who are minded to show their love for their Saviour by caring for the "Orphans" Donations are always in order and the more earnest, active and aggressive interest on the part of the trustees of the Home is earnesty desired by the President.

Ebenezer Church.

Last Sunday was a big day with the congregation of the Eberezer A. M. E. church in South Baltimore, the Rev. I. S. Lee, D. D., pastor. The occasion was a financial rally upon the parsonage church and the congregation of Wesley M. E. church was invited to help in the financial struggle. There were services all day. At 3 p. m. the Rev. C. W. Fitzhugh, former pastor of the church, to the delight and edification of all, preached an admirable sermon. The choir realized its reputation and poured forth beautiful and enchanting music which greatly added to the enjoyment of the occasion. A liberal offering during the day was made.
