TO THE HONORABLE JUDGES OF SAID COURT:-

The joint and several answers of Louise A. Carey (formerly Louise A. Kelly) in her own right and as the surviving widow, of John A. Kelly, having a dower interest in the real estate in these proceedings, and John A. Cary, her husband, to the Bill of Complaint in your Honorable Court filed against them and others.

These respondents say:-

FIRST:-That they admit that the said Louise A. Carey, who was formerly Louise A. Kelly, in her own right is the owner of an undivided 75.7 interest in the real estate mentioned in these proceedings.

SECOND:-That to the extent of her said interest in her own right in said real estate, as aforesaid, and no further, they admit the allegations contained in said Bill of Complaint

THIRD:-That the said Louise A. Carey, formerly Louise A. Kelly, as the surviving widow of John A. Kelly, has a dower interest, and she hereby reserves the same and all her rights thereunder, and as such surviving widow, possessing such dower, she declines to consent to a sale of the real estate as prayed for in the Bill of Complaint; and says that the same will have to be sold subject to her dower rights.

Wherefore, the said defendants, having fully answered the Bill of Complaint, pray to be hence dismissed with their reasonable costs. And as in duty, etc.,

Louise A. Kelly formerly Louise A. Carey.
As the owner in her own right of 75.7
