ABOUT THE CITY.

A PRETTY WEDDING—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at 71 West street on Wednesday evening last, the contracting parties being Miss Annie Lee and Mr. Arthur Stafford. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. W. Mossell, pastor of Ebenezer A. M. E. church. The bride was attired in white silk trimmed with point lace. The bridesmaid, Miss Minnie Talbot, was attired in white organdie. Mr. J. S. Lee was best man. A reception followed the wedding. The happy couple will reside at 1132 N. Calhoun street. The presents were many and very handsome.

REPUBLICANS ORGANIZE—A number of leading Republicans of the city, including those hostile to the present organization in the 17th Ward, met at the headquarters of the Union Republicans last Friday night and perfected an organization which will fight the McComas-Stone-Mason organization at the primaries in September. Mr. William E. Tilghman was elected president and Mr. J. H. Ballou secretary. They intend to organize an effective campaign committee in each ward. Addresses were delivered by Messrs John C. Minnis, W. E. Tilghman and others. The next meeting will be held next Monday evening.

BAPTIST MINISTERS—The National Baptist Convention, which will be held in Philadelphia in September was discussed at length at the meeting of the Baptist Ministers on Monday. Rev. George H. Reid will represent the ministers at the convention and it is expected that Baltimore will be represented by a large delegation. Rev. E. W. Russell preached the weekly sermon.

DISORDERLY WHITE MAN.—Owen Hall, 49 years old, acted in a disorderly manner on a Towson and Catonsville car Tuesday afternoon, and at the request of the conductor was taken into custody at the corner of Eager street and Greenmount avenue by Patrolman Druschler of the Central district Wednesday morning was fined $10 by Justice Fechtig.

CHATTOLANEE HOTEL.—The bell boys at Chattolanee Hotel, Green Spring Valley, are in excellent spirits this summer and are having a very pleasant season. Mr. Geo. H. Douglass is head bellman, and the following compose his staff: Messrs. Jerome Douglass, John H. Murphy, Frank, Chesley, Irvin Sisco, Samuel Tucker, Lewis Hammond, Leonard Taylor and William Wall.

C. W. COTTMAN DEAD.—Mr. Charles W. Cottman, Sr., a well-known employee of the Pennsylvania R. R. died at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Sunday, after a lingering illness, aged 42 years. Mr. Cottman at one time took considerable interest in politics. The funeral took place Wednesday from Trinity A. M. E. church and was largely attended. A widow, son and daughter survive him.

Mr. R. B. Kane, of the Randall Studio, will leave Hartford, Conn., on the first of August to go to Atlantic City to spend his vacation. From Atlantic City he will come to Baltimore and return to Hartford about the first of September.

A CORRECTION.

Dr. Prather wishes to change the statement from two-hundred thousand narcotic habituates to twenty thousand, as read in the report at the Hampton conference, at Hampton, Va., on Vital and Sanitary Problems.

EMBARGO LAID.—The Park Board at its last meeting decided that hereafter persons desiring to use the tennis courts must secure a permit from Captain Cassell for the use of the same. This step has been taken because some of the "white ladies and gentlemen have been insulted by colored people." In this connection it will be well to say that any colored person desiring the use of a tennis court can secure the same by applying to Captain Cassell, it can be obtained without any other trouble, as Captain Cassell never makes any discrimination as to the use of any part of the Park by anybody as long as they are the proper persons.

IN CRITICAL CONDITION—Edward Jones, aged 52 years, was found in a semi-conscious condition one afternoon this week about 5 o'clock, hanging from the fence which surrounds Druid Hill Park at Woodberry. The man's foot was caught in the prong of the two rails and he fell toward the ground, wedging his foot so tight that it was impossible for him to release himself. After being released he was carried to the Maryland General Hospital. It was stated that his condition was critical, having hung with his head down for more than three hours.
