...ELECTED—The ... of the Baltimore ... at their headquarters ...l St., Monday and elected ...tes to the 23d annual meeting ...the Grand Fountain of the Order of True Reformers, which is to be held in Washington, D. C., September 1st., 1903. The committee on credentials reported 37 delegates present from all parts of the State. At the election which followed the following delegates were elected to represent the Maryland Division: Captain Willis, James Jackson Victoria Hayes, E. A. Draper, Hezekiah Brown, Annie Queen, Willis Herford, Annie Washington, Isaac Tilghman, J. G. Gould, Thomas White and Elizabeth Blake. James H. Nutt was elected delegate-at-large. Dr. E. A. Malory of Port Deposit made a very able address during the session. Mrs. F. H. James is the chief of the Baltimore Division.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The Sunday School Convention of the Baltimore Presiding Elder District of the Baltimore Annual Conference, which was in session last Friday. Saturday and Sunday closed its sessions on Sunday afternoon with a platform meeting, at which a number of the members of the Convention made addresses. the sessions throughout were of a decidely interesting nature. The papers read, bore on the work of the Sunday Schools of the District, and the reports showed that the work of the District had improved considerably during the past year. Rev. Dr. Jenifer, the presiding elder of the district expressed himself as being much pleased with the work of the convention.

LINCOLN LEAGUE.—The Lincoln League, auxiliary to the Union Republican organization, held a very interesting meeting at the latter's headquarters on Monday evening. Addresses dealing with the short-comings of the regular organization were delivered by Messrs W. E. Tilgham, J. A. Seaton, J. A. Galamison, J. W. Martin, John C. Minnis and others. The allied Republican movement was endorsed at a previous meeting.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.-Bethel A. M. E. Church was crowded last Sunday morning to hear the choir of Bethel A. M. E. Church, of Philadelphia which was scheduled to sing. The large audience was much pleased with the music. Rev A. L. Gaines, the pastor preached a very interesting sermon.

Rev. Harvey Johnson, pastor o North Street Baptist Church, preached at Allen A. E. Church last Sunday morning.

The services at Wesley A. M. E. Zion Church, Cross and Warner Sts., were conducted by the pastor, Rev. B. J. Bolding. Dr. Bolding has just recovered from a recent illness of several weeks.

Monday was Report Day at the meeting of the Cooperative Baptist Ministers' meeting. Quite a large number of the Baptist Ministers expect to attend the Lott Carey Baptist Convention, at Winston-Salem, N. C.

CITY COUNCILMAN IN TOWN.—T. Arlington Thompson, a lawyer of Annapolis, and a member of the Council of that place, was in the city this week. Mr. Thompson was keeping out of the way of the Democratic Councilmen who are in deadlock in the Ancient Capitol. It seems that one of the Democratic members of the council is out of the city, and the four remaining members are anxious to get the Republicans into council so that the four Democrats can control affairs and elect the officers of the city that are elected by them. The one Democratic Councilman, will not abide by the wishes of his colleagues, and in consequence there is a dead-lock with three Republicans and one Democrat, should the Democrats be able to capture one Republican they could thus control affairs. Hence the keeping out of the way by the Republicans, Mr. Thompson is in Baltimore and the rest of the Republicans are under cover somewhere until the return of the recalcitrant Democrat.

CALL OF A PASTOR.—The Congregation of the Hopeful Baptist Church, have called Rev. Augustus Braxton Callis the former pastor of the Macedonia Baptist Church. Rev. Callis resigned the pastorate of the Macedonia Baptist Church, May 12th, 1903 and also took his letter of dismissal. The members of his new field believe that he is a God-sent blessing to them. adv.
