ABOUT THE CITY.

WAESCHE ST. SCHOOL TURNED OVER.—The Waesche street school was turned over to colored teachers on Monday much to the surprise of a large number of the patrons and pupils. The turning over means that several more practice teachers will be made and the employment of over twenty additional teachers. Mr. Joseph F. Mattnews has charge of the school.

PREACHERS' MEETING—The A. M. E. Preachers' held their regular session at Bethel A. M. E. Church, Saratoga street, near Gay, on Monday last. Rev. C. W. Mossell was to have read a paper but was not prepared and the time for the reading of it was postponed to a future date. Rev. Dr. J. T. Jenifer, presiding elder of the Baltimore District, took up the subject of "College Youth," and it was pretty thoroughly discussed. The case of the boy Jones, who was arrested and put through a very severe "sweating by the police authorities was also discussed, as well as the best way to reach the class of colored people represented by the boy Jones. Excursions and campmeetings also came in for a share of the discussion.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.—This school opened on Monday with the largest enrollment in its history there were over 300 pupils present, 45 of them being in the 4th year.

A number of the faculty pursued courses at school; Misses Jackson and Cook attended the Chataqua at Bowlder, Col.; Miss Williamson studied at the University of Pennsylvania; Messrs Moore and Hawkins spent six weeks at the Columbia University Summer School; Mr. Brooks took a course in drawing and design at Harvard.

BABY RALLY.—There was a Baby Rally at St. John A. M. E. Church, Lexington St., near Pine, on last Sunday afternoon. A large congregation was present to witness the unique service of Babies. Mrs. C. H. Fowler was the originator of the rally, and quite a large sum was realized from the large number of babies present. Of course the babies had very little to do with the services save to make their presence known by the usual baby methods., and this they did to the great satisfaction of their admiring mothers and friends. However, what the babies lacked was made up by their parents, guardians and friends, and the result was that the Stewards of the church are considerably better off.

WOMAN'S DAY.—The services at Waters A. M. E, Church last Sunday morning and afternoon were under the exclusive direction of the women of the church with Mrs. Blanche Stevens as president. The exercises consisted addresses, music, etc. Among those taking part in the exercises were: Mrs. L. M. Lampton of Washington, wife of the Financial secretary of the A. M. E. Church; Mrs. T. H. Brooks, Miss M. Frances Murphy, Mrs. Mary F. Handy, wife of Bishop James A. Handy; Miss Annie Johnson, Miss Nannie B. Grooms, Mrs. Charlotte Giles, Mrs. Harriet A. Hilliard, Mrs Emma Truxon and Mrs. Cornelia Anderson. The collection was quite satisfactory.

ENTERTAINED.—Miss Annie M. Cain of Pierce St., entertained a few friends at her home on Friday evening in honor of Miss Florence Fields of Savannah, Ga. The evening was pleasantly spent in singing and playing games, after which refreshments were served. Among those present were; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Cain, Mrs. Carrie Proctor and Mrs. Mary H. Sparks; Misses Wilimenia Fields, Estella and Florence Hargrove, Mary Bavnard, L. Scott; Messrs Marselus Cain, William Proctor, Ralph Jackson, Elijah Cain and Jno T. Saunders. An enjoyable evening was spent.

QUIETLY MARRIED.—On last Wednesday evening in the presence of a few of their friends Rev. George W. Nicholson, D. D., pastor of Grace M. E. Church, Catonsville, and Mrs. Josie Jones, a public school teacher at Sparrows Point, Md., were united in holy matrimony at 20 N. Central avenue, by the Rev. James A. Handy assisted by the Rev. Dr. John T. Jenifer.

The bride's attendant was Miss Mary May, and Miss Hattie Jones presided at the piano and played the wedding march. The presents received were costly and handsome.
