MIDNIGHT'S MUSINGS.

Miss Laura Smith. She was well raised by her parents. They have three daughters and I hope the good Lord will spare their lives to bring them up in the way they should go and all will be good and right, and much good will yet be accomplished.

I have seen many things to encourage me, and I think that I will spend most of my next letter telling you about Prof H. W. Holtzclaw, principal of his school and a man who is a leader of men and a great man. I hope to be able to take his school step by step and bring it before you, and to have a picture of Mr. Holtzclaw. I am going to tell you what a man has been able to do for himself and for his race at the same time, and I believe that you will rejoice with me in knowing all of these things.

The Legislature of Tennessee is in a wrangle in an effort to pass a 'jimcrow' street car law, of course they will pass something.

Gov. Jeff. Davis, of Arkansas has made a circus of himself and he is now trying to stop Negro education. I am here to tell him and all the men of his class that it will not be possible for them to do what they are trying to do. They may stop the state from paying any money for Negro education, but the Negro is way up in civilization and he is prepared to pay his own money

Brother Davis had just as well go out and put a harness around the moon, and check the sun from shining as to try to stop the Negro from getting an education. The restrictions put around it will undoubtedly put more black boys and girls in school to prepare themselves. We are going to have an education and that's all there is to it.

My money was out this week, and I did not get to the meeting of the Bishop's Council during the week.

It would be interesting for me to tell you that there are many no count empty headed men in this world, and there are many men who are some account and yet their heads are as empty as the big bass drums. You will find this crowd of empty headed people going together, boys and girls and so blank are their minds, until all they find to talk about is "I loves you, do you loves me?"

You do not know just what I am talking about, but I want to pay my respects to a barber in this town by the name of Logan, who is a good man, and who is trying to bring his daughter up in the way she should go. One of these sockless fellows in the town was courting the girl. He told her that he loved her with all his heart and she told him that she loved him, and they agreed to marry. He asked her mother and father and while Sadie was much help to her parents. She is a smart industrious young woman, a hard worker, and just made up her mind to abide the result. The day was set, invitations were issued and clothes bought and made up, and that piece of flesh in breeches just left town and has not been heard of since, while the girl is still looking for him. She has sense enough to thank God that he did go away, and she is going to do the next best thing, and that is she is going to school again. She is going to get something in her head.

Her father says all that man needs to do now is to stay away from his house, and if he does not there will be a big funeral in these diggings, and he is right. The young colored girl must be protected, and I wish that we had more men like Logan in this country. Prepare for my letter next week. God bless you and keep you.

J. O. MIDNIGHT.

John R. Platt Tells On The Witness Stand How He Came To Give Mrs. Elias The Money He Did — His Memory Was Bad—Would Not Have Instituted The Suit Himself.

New York, Jan. 17—The Platt-Elias case, which has caused such a stir among both white and colored people in this city, was brought before the public in part 4 of the Supreme Court. Mrs. Hannah Elias, a colored woman of 35, is being sued by the trustees for the estate of John R Platt to recover the sum of $700,000, which sum, they claim, has been separated from the millionaire by Mrs. Elias. Mr. Platt, a man of 84, old and feeble, declared he would never have brought to public his acquaintance with Mrs. Elias had it not been for his son-in-law, who appointed a trustee, who has taken charge of everything he has, and the only thing he owns, he says, is the suit on his back.

When questioned by ex Gov. Black, counsel for Mrs Elias, Mr. Platt declared that what he gave here was given willingly. Mr Platt's memory was bad and when questioned by Attorney Black all he was heard to say was: "I can't say." "I don't recollect" or "I couldn't say." Mr Black was most gentle with the old man, knowing he was unable to withstand his fiery questions. There was a smile on every face in the court room when Platt told how he called Mrs. Elias "Dollie and she called him "Papa." It seemed to please him so much that he turned and looked toward Mrs. Elias, but she only looked down in her lap After the court proceedings were over, Mr. Platt declared he was more than glad it was over with Mrs Elias was very liberal in her gifts to the whites who waited on her from behind the counters in the large dry goods stores in this city, and also to Dr. DeKraft and his wife, to whom it is reported she gave a present of $5,000 worth of jewelry and a beautiful carriage which she had built for them. So far as can be heard it seems as though the case has fallen through.

So far as money is concerned, Mrs. Elias is well fixed having in her possession thousands of dollars and owning three beautiful houses, one of which is located at Central Park West, overlooking one of New York's most popular throughfares.

BOSTON WOMAN IN TROUBLE.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 25—A colored woman who claims Boston as her home was arrested in this city yesterday and fined $5.55 charged with having handed a cabman a pocket mirror, which she insisted was a five dollar gold piece. The arresting officer said the woman was evidently doped with cocaine or liquor.

JOKERS BUDGET

SATISFIED.

"Take back that heart you gave me,"
The angry Prep girl cried;
The butcher gave her liver,
And the maid was satisfied.

PENALTY.

She—In your bachelor clubs what is the penalty for marrying?

He—Marriage.—Illustrated Bits.

ALAS, YES!

Teacher—What changes takes place when water is converted into ice?

John Smart—A change of price, ma'am.—Smart Set.

SINGULAR EFFECT.

"How does it feel to be fired?" they asked the ex-salesman.

"It gives you a mighty chilly sensation," he said—Chicago Tribune.

SUPPLEMENT TO AN OLD SAYING.

His Friend—Money talks.

The Promoter—Yes, but sometimes it's mighty hard to get it to listen.—New York Press.

FAILED.

Dixby—Of course they gave you ether? So you didn't suffer any pain by the operation.

Bingley—Unfortunately I came to before the bill was presented.—Boston Transcript.

HIS IDEA OF LUCK.

"Been very lucky with your patients, haven't you, doctor?"

"Yes. I don't think I have more than $17 in unpaid bills standing on my books."—Cleveland Plain Dealer

WILLIE.

Mamma—Fighting again, Willie? Didn't I tell you to stop and count 100 whenever you were angry?

Willie—But it didn't do any good, ma. Look what the Jones boy did while I counted!—Harper's Bazar.

A SUGGESTION.

He—I can never think of the right thing to say at the right time!

She—Why don't you try saying the right thing sometimes, even if you get in the wrong place?—Detroit Free Press.

SAVED HIMSELF.

"Jack, do you think I look like mamma?"

"Oh, yes, Marie—as your mamma's sweet face must have looked when she was just your age."—Chicago Tribune.

HER MISTAKE.

Nell—I told him if he dared to kiss me he'd be sorry for it.

Belle—And was he?

Nell—No, I was the only one who was sorry—sorry I told him.—Philadelphia Ledger.

BROKE A RECORD.

Mrs. Highmus—You kept one girl six weeks. How did you manage it?

Mrs. Upmore—I didn't manage it. She fell down the steps and broke her leg the first day, and of course she had to stay till she could walk out again.—Chicago Tribune.

HELPFUL.

"Having a minute to spare," began the bore, "I thought I'd devote it to you——"

"Thank you," interrupted the busy merchant, "I can use it, for I need all the spare minutes I can get."—Philadelphia Press.

EXPLAINED.

Bliggins' wife thinks he is the smartest man on earth."

"No," answered Miss Cayenne, "she doesn't think so. She merely makes Bliggins thinks she thinks so."—Washington Star.

DUBIOUS.

"What do you know about his past?" asked Mabel.

"Just enough to make me a little suspicious about his present," said Maud, examining with a magnifying glass the diamond the young man had sent her.—Chicago Tribune.

A SLIGHT SATISFACTION.

"The cashier has absconded and cleaned us out."

"How much did he take?"

"Nearly eighty thousand."

"He did! Well, there'll be a little satisfaction for us in calling it eighty thousand."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

THE USUAL WAY.

Beatrice—What did you get for Christmas?

Penelope—Horrors! Don't ask me.

Beatrice—Why, my dear, what's up?

Penelope—Writing a dozen letters, saying they were "just what I wanted."—Judge.

NEXT DOOR TO AN ATHEIST.

Lyles—Did you ever come across a more conceited fellow than Bulger? They say he is an atheist, and I believe he is.

Bonter—I wouldn't like to go as far as that, but I know that he doesn't recognize the existence of a superior being.—Town and Country.

HIS WEDDING GARMENT.

He (reading about the latest society wedding)—They have a lot to say about what the bride wears, but they have nothing to say about the poor bridegroom.

She—They have no need to, because it is a well known fact that he usually wears a worried look—Boston Globe.

Talks is Cheap, and Actions Speak Louder Than Words.

In order to prove to the public that GLOSSINE is the greatest and most meritorious of all hair tonics we will give free to every reader of this paper (not a sample) but a full box size. If Glossine was not the best hair tonic in all the whole wide world this offer would bankrupt us

Glossine (Queen of all hair tonics) is the most wonderful remedy for the human hair ever discovered and has astounded the whole world by its miraculous and mysterious power in lengthening, straightening and beautifying the human hair. It is the result of long years of careful study and the earnest researches of Miss Helen Martin a beautiful and attractive woman who is acknowledged the most skilful and famous Beauty Doctor of the day. She is a wonderful and most magnificent specimen of womanly grace and beauty, and although now 58 years of age she scarcely looks to be 30. When asked by what mediums she had been able to so successful preserve the attractiveness and beauty of youth. Miss Martin said, Why it is very simple to me and every woman be she white or colored, young or old or as ugly as sin itself can become pretty shapely and graceful if she only do as I advise. As a child I was never considered pretty, in fact I was not even thought to be good looking, and for this very reason ever since I was a girl of 16 I have made a study of such agencies and materials which tend to beautify and adorn the human person. In the glorious Vegetable World which nature has so bounteously bestowed upon us there are hundreds of innocent mediums, which after my long life of study and investigation I have been able to successfully blend and formulate into various preparations which enhance and preserve the life and beauty of the hair and skin. I owe my own good looks and youthful appearance to these preparations which are the results of my life long work. As to GLOSSINE I have never known it to fail to cause the hair to grow long, straight, soft and luxurious. It matters not how harsh and kinky it may be and I care not if it be short broken, splitting at the ends or falling out Glossine will positively make it long, soft, straight and pliant. It will give to the hair luster, length, life and beauty and no head of hair can be so harsh and refractory but that Glossine will make it so pliant and wavy that it can be dressed with ease and in any prevailing style desired. It will restore gray hair to its former color, make the hair grow out on bald spots, and on the temples where the hair is usually thin and unsightly.

Glossine is highly, sweetly and most delicately perfumed, and its color and subsistency is very attractive to all. Seeing our great success and with the desire to trade upon our reputation gained by long years of honest dealing numerous unscrupulous firms are trying to fool the people into buying spurious and harmful compounds for the hair and skin. That causes the hair to fall out thus causing baldness and ruin, mar and deface the delicate texture of the human skin. In their wicked desire to gain money these people do not hesitate to sell the people many preparations which are dangerous to life itself. In order to discountenance and condemn such dishonest methods, Miss Martin has decided to give a full size package of Glossine to any reader of this paper male or female who will send their name and address. Do not delay. Write to day. A postal card will do. We will also send our catalogue which describes in detail our hair tonics, Face Bleaches and other toilet requsites.

Is Positively The Greatest Test Medium And Master Of Occult Science In The World.

Matters not what your wishes chance to be or what you desire to know, this wonderful man can positively tell you. Through his unequaled power he can call the names of your departed loved ones and describe them to you just as though they were standing before you in the flesh. He has had twenty years of practical experience, and today he has letters on file in his office from all parts of the civilized world, claiming him to be the most marvelous, most powerful and most truthful medium on earth. If you are worried or in trouble of any kind, don't fail to consult this wonderful man. There are many so-called mediums who have tried to give you a poor imitation of his work, but none can approach him. His readings do not consist of generalities, but he searches into the very depth of the soul. There is but one DR. T. H. WHITE, (Professor of Occult Science) in Baltimore. His address is 1917 East Pratt street. If you are sick and suffering from any complaint which seems to mystify you, call and see Dr. White today. He is making some of the greatest cures ever known. One visit to his office will immediately demonstrate his superiority.
