..PERSONALS..

Mrs. Ella Boston, of 1928 McCulloh street, and Mrs. Annie Brown and children have returned from a visit to Galesville, Md.

Mrs. John Hurst has gone to Boston to spend several weeks with her son, Benoni Price Hurst, student at the medical school of Harvard University.

W. Norman Bishop has been admitted to practice before the bar of New Haven, Conn. He has been attending Yale Law School. He is a son of John A. Bishop, the well known local funeral director.

Messrs. Thomas R. Smith, Robert Goodlow and John Terrell have returned from a pleasant automobile trip to Richmond. While there they "took in" the Exposition.

Rev. I. L. Thomas, field agent of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension of the M. E. Church, is visiting conferences and conventions in the South.

James C. Matthews, of Brooklyn, N. Y., was in the city this week visiting prominent local members of the Order of Moses.

J. T. P. Cross, a well known insurance man of Richmond, Va., was a recent visitor here.

Rev. Solomon Porter Hood, a well known minister of the African Methodist Church, was in the city a few days go.

Mrs. Sarah Johnson, of 305 N. Pine street, is spending a few weeks in Pennsylvania.

Hank Henry, a well known member of Monumental Lodge of Elks, who was painfully injured in an accident two weeks ago, is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Peck, of Mosher street, and neice Mrs. Carrie Langley, will leave Saturday for a two-week stay Niagara Falls and Canada.

Miss Mabel Taylor, of Rosemont, Pa., spent ten days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Henson, of Wilna, Harford county, Md., and Mrs. Ella Barrett and brother, Mr. Andrew Henson, of East Baltimore, where she met a jolly number of friends.

Mrs. Laura Beulah of Denton, Md., and Miss Bessie Baker, of Bell Chapel, Md., while in the city last week attending the S. S. Conference and Convention, was the guest of Mrs. Fannie Spears of 921 Myrtle avenue.

Mrs. Nellie Johnson, of 559 Presstman street, has returned from a three-week visit to her relatives in Cape Charles, Va., and will leave for mountains for the remainder of the summer.

LLOYD GIBBS PLEASES

The music lovers of the city who braved the rain last Sunday night to attend the sacred concert at Sharp Street Memorial M.E. Church enjoyed a treat.

Lllyod Gibbs, an old Baltimorean, was the star of the evening. He was ably assisted by Mrs. Anna Hazelton Lee and Nelson Tunstall. The trios and duets, several of which were sung were exceptionally well rendered, the voices blending in rhthymic harmony. Of several merit were the several solos that each of the artists sung.

Mr. Gibbs has not lived in the city for the past decade. He has been singing with a number of aggregations, and everywhere he has added to the reputation of Baltimore singers.

Mr. Richard Mack, of West Biddle street, is home after six weeks in John Hopkins Hospital, much improved.
