CITY NEWS.

BETHEL READY FOR BIG RALLY

What promises to be the biggest rally ever held in a colored church in Baltimore will take place at Bethel A. M. E. Church, Druid Hill avenue and Lanvale street, this Monday night. The goal is $5,000, and the rally forces will be in charge of Rev. Dr. W. Sampson Brooks, the energetic pastor of the congregation.

For the purposes of the rally the rallying forces have been divided into ten squads, each of which will be known as an annual conference. Each conference will have a presiding bishop, and the rally chiefs will make reports as is done in annual conferences.

The names of the conferences are: Fireboat, Thousand-Dollar, Earthquake, Parlors, Rough Riders, Shipwreck, Matter-of-fact, Ethiopian, Little Kid and Nightingale.

Dr. Brooks, who had signal success in rallies while stationed in St. Louis, expects Baltimore to "show big," and says that he looks for the presiding elder of Corn Pone District to do as well as the presiding elder of Hardtack or Chicken Roost.

The congregation is trying to liquidate the big indebtedness hanging over the church, and the public is invited to witness the rendering of reports next Monday night.

An interesting forerunner of the big rally was the "commencement" of "Wilberforceful" University, held by the Sunday School on Friday evening of this week. Dr. Brooks delivered an address to the "graduating" rally captains, and presented each a diploma.

VANCE'S ADVANCES REJECTED

White Youth Threatened For Venturing to Address Girl

A case of mistaken identity was responsible for the rough treatment of Jack Vance, white, when he took pretty brown Mamie Bradford as a "friend" of his last Wednesday morning. The incident took place in the clothing, confectionery and general merchandise store of Lewis Smith, white, 433 Druid Hill avenue, next to Smith's Hotel.

According to the testimony of both parties, Mamie was in the rear of the Smith store using the phone, when Vance, who had been drinking at the soda fountain in front, appeared to recognize her, and interrupting her conversation, wanted to know where was the ten dollars she took from a friend of his some weeks ago. Upon further advances of Vance, the proprietor of the store took a hand and ejected the big lout from the premises. The large crowd that collected threatened injury to Vance, who was lodged in the Northwestern Police Station on the charge of disorderly conduct.

At the trial in the afternoon, Vance regarded his affront to the girl as a joke until he was fined $10 and costs by Magistrate Shaw. He offered to pay on the installment plan, $5 down and the rest later, but was sent behind the bars until he could raise the remaining $6.45.

ORGANIZE CHILDREN'S CHURCH

Rev. C. H. Steptean, pastor of Allen A. M. E. Church, organized the children of his church Tuesday evening. The children's service will be a feature at the church each week.

DAY NURSERY NEEDS FUNDS

The Day Nursery Association is making a big effort to raise sufficient funds to pay the coal bill and for the installation of new sewerage connections. It will gladly receive any contribution, as the high cost of everything has greatly increased its expenses. The nursery is located at 953 Druid Hill avenue, and is doing a most praiseworthy work in caring for the children of working mothers. Mrs. Jennie H. Ross is president.

PROTEST SENT CONGRESSMEN

The congregation of Tyson Colored Methodist Protestant Church, West Rayland Park, last Sunday night adopted a strongly-worded resolution condemning the East St. Louis riots and asserting that such happenings, if unpunished, were subversive of that spirit of democracy for which the United States has told the world it is contending. Copies of the resolution were sent to the Maryland members of Congress. Rev. Joseph L. Butler is pastor of the church.

PLAYGROUNDS BUSY

Mrs M Adelaide Green, directress of the playground at Druid Hill Park is desirous of more mothers sending their children to the park when the playground is open. To bring about greater cooperation in the beneficient work of the playground she proposes organizing a parents' club.

Mrs. Green has planned a field meet at the Carey Street school next Friday morning. A similar event will take place at the Druid Hill Park playground on Friday, July 72th at 2:30 o'clock.

THE COLORED WOMAN'S INDUSTRIAL EXCHANGE

The Colored Woman's Industrial Exchange held their united block carnival in the 1100 block of Etting street the week of the 4th of July. Over a thousand people witnessed the affair and complimented on being the finest ever given by the colored race. The tables numbered forty and were all beautifully decorated with their tented lights. All the tables were stationed close together which formed a line that drew a beautiful picture. Mrs. Evans, the president, has been receiving congratulations from all parts of the city on the affair. It was something that every one who witnessed it could learn a lesson.

Mrs. Arthur Evans, President
Mary E. Thomas, Secretary.

SPECIAL NOTICE

I would like to get in touch with party or parties, to take an interest, and help form Company to Manufacture and Market several meritorious patented inventions and to help develop several others, cheaply manufactured and big money makers as they are goods used by every family and our customers would be among all races. The individuals promoting same would have a monopoly of production granted by patent rights covering a period of 17 years. We mean business.

The News in Brief

The fourth week of the summer school at Tuskegee closed with an enrollment of 261. Thursday evening Principal Moton held a reception for the visiting teachers.

Webster Thornton, of Athens, Georgia, sold last week 20 bales of cotton at 26 cents per pound. Thornton, who is a graduate of Atlanta University, owns 500 acres of rich farm lands.

Miss Lillian V. Wood, former member of the Quality Amusement Company, obtained judgment for $500 against the sporting editor of the Amsterdam News, New York, for an unfair and malicious criticism of her acting in the drama "Paid in Full."

Harry Young, aged 21, of Atlantic City, was arrested last week because he wore the uniform of an officer of the U. S. army. Young says he is a lieutenant in the 9th Cavalry. The authorities say he is employed in a local hotel.

Last Saturday, John Henry Woodson, only colored fireman among the 5200 New York whites, was called from the ranks and publicly praised by Mayor Mitchell for his daring in saving a woman and child from a fourth floor tenement fire.

Members of the Boston Equal Rights League journeyed to Haverill, Mass., last Thursday, to pay their respects to the remains of William H. Moody, former associate justice of the Supreme Court. Mr. Moody was known as the author of the "Anti-Lynching" bill proposed in the Roosevelt administration.

The Georgia Legislature has invited the workingmen driven out of East St. Louis to return to their native state. The resolution states: "The cotton is blooming in the old patches, roasting ears are hanging from the stalks, and red-hearted watermelons are ripe under the shady vines."

In West Virginia men between 16 and 50 must engage in some gainful occupation in order to help the state during the war. Twelve men charged with violating this law were fined $50 and must serve jail sentenceof thirty days.

A whole family in Danville, Virginia was taken into custody last week when three smart brothers confessed that their parents put them up to rob a grocery store.

Investigation of 100 Washington playground children showed that 75 percent of white boys and 95 percent of colored boys attended the movies at least once a week. For girls the percentage was colored 40 and white 63.

When Thomas Tolbert, refugee from East St. Louis, told his story to a group of friends in Youngstown, Ohio J. F. Little, white, a veteran of the civil war, objected. Tolbert, who had lost none of his courage, resented the white man's insolence, and beat him severely before the officers arrested him. Threats of lynching were heard.

Ten years ago, Prof. Laurence C. Jones graduated from Iowa University. Today he is principal of the Piney Woods, Miss., Country Life School of 300 pupils and 1200 acres of land, on a spot that was a wilderness only a short time ago.

Rev. Samuel Jones filled the pulpit Sunday at St. James A. U. M. P. Church and services were well attended. Rev. Jones and family have moved into the church parsonage on Jefferson avenue. A beautiful lawn fete was given Friday evening on the lawn of Miss Mamie Jackson, Railroad avenue. Music was furnished by the Towson Cornet Band. A large sum was cleared.

THE WEEKLY SERMON

By Elder G. P. Rodgers

"The Little Horn With Eyes Like A Man"

This little horn was in reality the greatest of the horns that Daniel viewed coming up out of the fourth kingdom, Rome. In Chapter 8, the prophet said that it waxed exceeding great, and back again in chapter 7 he said that it made war with the saints and prevailed against them, verse 21. But the greatest piece of effrontery was in the presumption of this power to speak against heaven and the Most High. This indicates that this power places itself in the position of GOD, and there is no system of evil in the world that dares to do such like the power here described. Remember last week we quoted the words of Paul as he, too, described this mystery of iniquity 2 Thess. 2:3-7). It must be remembered also that this power attempts to appear as extremely religious for it sits in the temple of GOD, but in reality it exalteth itself above all that is called GOD. In Daniel 7:-25 it is said that it thought itself able to change times and laws. Surely, that it might exalt itself above GOD, it will change the law of GOD expressed in the fourth commandment. I quote from a series of articles as printed in the Catholic Mirror of September 2, 9, 16, 23, 1893 the following:—"The great body of Protestants, so far from clamoring, as they do with vigorous pertinacity for the strict keeping of Sunday, have no other resourse left than the admission that they have been teaching and practicing what is scripturally false for over three centuries by adopting the teaching and practice of what they have always pretended to believe an apostate church, contrary to every warrant and teaching of the Sacred Scripture. To add to the intensity of this Scriptural and unpardonable blunder, it involves one of the most positive and emphatic commands of GOD to His servant, man: "Remember the Sabbath Day to Keep it holy." No Protestant living today has ever yet obeyed that command, preferring to follow the apostate church referred to than his teacher, the Bible which, from Genesis to Revelation teaches no other doctrine." "The Catholic Church over a thousand years before the existence of a Protestant CHANGED THE DAY FROM SATURDAY TO SUNDAY." ... To be continued. ****

IS THIS TRUE?

17 YEARS TORMENT.

For 17 years I was tormented with a terrible skin disease which the doctors called ECZEMA. It set me at times almost crazy from itching. During those years, I went to hospitals and tried about 30 doctors without relief. The disease never checked. My son took me to Dr. Campbell, the specialist, 1369 N. Carey street, Baltimore, Md. He treated me seven months and I am now completely cured. If anyone happens to suffer with such awful skin disease, go to Dr. Campbell, who, I believe, can cure anything a person was not born with, and he is, to my mind, the best doctor in the world.
