IN MEMORIAM

CURRY—In sad and loving remembrance of our dear daughter and wife, Mary E. Johnson Curry, who departed this life six months ago, Oct. 12, 1918.

My heart today is still aching
My thoughts are always of thee
How I love and miss dear Mary
None but God in heaven can see.
By her loving mother,
MRS. MARY E. JOHNSON

You ask us if we miss her
Yes it fills our hearts with pain
But her spirit softly whispers
Weep not, in heaven we'll meet again.
By her loving husband,
COL. LAWRENCE E. CURRY.

CURTIS—In sad but loving remembrance of my dear friend, Mary, who died March 25th, 1918.

One but not forgotten.

I often sit and think of those happy moments that we have had together, talking of our blessed Saviour, and the last words from Mary were "Sara if I never more see you and am where you cannot get to me in my last hour tell them all I am gone to rest, out of this world of toil and sorrow. I want you to meet me, and we will be friends in heaven as were on earth."
Her friend, SARAH TERRELL.

HARRIS—Sacred to the memory of our husband and father, Tobias Harris, who departed this life March 2d, 1911.

Eight years ago you left us
And your memory haunts us still
Though your place by the hreside is vacant
We miss not depair, it was God's will.
By his WIFE AND CHILDREN.

MARGARET JOYNES—In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, Margaret, who departed this life, Saturday, March 11, 1916.

As I write I seem to hear her sing
Her favorite hymns
Jerusalem my happy home
Name ever dear to me
When shall my labors have an end
In joy and peace with thee.

O when that city of my God
Shall I the courts ascend
Where congregations ne'er break up
And Sabbaths have no end.

Jerusalem my happy home
My soul still pants for thee
Then shall my labors have an end
When I thy joys shall see.
Her daughter SARAH JACKSON,
225 Jarvada street,
Pittsburgh, Pa.

MAXFIELD— In loving remembrance of my dear wife, Helen V. Kennard Maxfield, who departed this life four years ago, March 15, 1915.

WATERS—In sad and loving remembrance of my darling wife, who departed this life March 5, 1919.

A precious one from us has gone
A voice we loved is still
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.

God in His wisdom has recalled
The loan His love has given
And though the body slumbers here,
The soul is in Heaven.
By her husband,
OSCAR J. WATERS.

We miss you very best.

Last March one beautiful day,
You fell asleep in Jesus

In mother how we love you
And love can not forget.
By her loving daughters and son, BERTIE HOWARD and GEORGE PIERCE.

CONCERNING YOUR HAIR
The Invention of
AN EXPERT CHEMIST
You probably have tried all sorts of remedies on your scalp without getting the desired results, until you have become discouraged and lost confidence in all hair remedies. Thousands of others like yourself, finally turned to using Seeby's Quinade, and have been so pleased with the result they would never again waste their time or money using anything else.
Quinade is not an ordinary pomade it is highly medicated and is a real scalp food. Quinade stimulates and nourishes the roots of the hair, causing a natural growth of long, straight hair. It will make coarse, stubborn hair soft and silky, and easy to put up in the style desired. Quinade will positively allay itching of the scalp, and dandruff, which is the real cause of most hair and scalp troubles.
To get best results from the use of Quinade, one should shampoo the scalp every two weeks with Seeby's Quinasoap, a soap made entirely of pure vegetable oils. Quinasoap lathers very freely and is a thorough cleanser. It leaves the hair soft and fluffy and imparts a refreshing feeling to the scalp unequalled by any other shampoo.
Insist on getting Seeby's Quinade and Quinasoap, asking for them by their full names. Price is 25c. each. If your druggist or dealer does not stock these two articles, ask him to obtain them from his wholesaler for you, or send us the price, and we will mail them to you direct.
