IN MEMORIAM

TOLSON—In loving remembrance of my dear friend, Mary Louise, who died one year ago, March 19, 1918.
You will never be forgotten
Never shall your memory fade
Sweetest thoughts shall ever linger
Around the grave where you are laid
By her friend MAMIE GORDON.

THOMAS—In loving memory of my dear son, John Henry Thomas, who died August 22, 1918
To a land of peace and rest
From a world of pain and sorrow
God has taken you, dear son
Where you have found eternal rest.
By his loving mother
OLIVIA BLAIR

ROGERS—Sacred to the memory of my devoted husband and our dear father, John H. Rogers, who entered into eternal rest two years ago, Mar. 20th, 1917.
Two years we have grieved since we saw his dear face
Or heard his sweet voice in home circle place
So we wait in our tears of devotion and love
Until we meet him with Jesus in heaven above.
By his loving wife, LOUISA ROGERS and DAUGHTER, 1107 Monument street.

EPPS—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear father, Rev. Lons Epps, who departed this life twenty-five years ago today, March 21, 1894.
The month of March once more is here
To us the saddest of the year
Because it took from us away
Our dear father 25 years ago today.
We will soon pass on to meet you, father
And make whole the broken band
Meet you just across the river
In that happy spirit land.
Oh that meeting will be glorious
Over on the other shore
Won't that be a happy meeting
When we meet to part no more.
By his loving daughters, LAVINIA WATKINS, ELLA PACK and AMELIA JENKINS.

WELDON—In loving remembrance of our dear mother, Rosie B. Weldon, who departed this life, four years ago March 24, 1915.
We did not know the pain she bore
We did not see her die
We only knew she passed away
And never said good bye.
We cannot ever forget you, mother
While in this world we stay
And our heart has never been the same
Since you passed away.
You shall always be remembered
In this world of strife
And you shall never be forgotten
As long as God gives us life.
By her loving sons, HERBERT WELDON, JAMES WELDON, New Orleans, La.

NICHOLSON—In loving remembrance of our dear sister, who departed this life March 19th, 1918, Lizzie A. Miller Nicholson.
Friend after friend departs
Who hath not lost a friend?
There is no union here of hearts
That finds not here an end.
Were this for all, would our final rest
Living or dying, none were blest.
By her SISTER AND BROTHER.

SAUNDERS—In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother Georgia Saunders, who died one year ago, March 25th, 1918.
I often sit and think of you—
When I am all alone
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.
By her loving daughter
MOLLIE WILLIAMS.

SMITH—In loving memory of Ma hi Smith, who departed this life three years ago, March 19, 1916.
Three years have passed, oh how I miss you
Friends may think the wound is heal'd
Little do they know the sorrow
That lies in my heart concealed.
By a friend, R. E. S.
Atlantic City, N. J.

FLOYD—In loving remembrance of Edward H. Floyd, died March 19, 1918
Oh how hard we tried to save him
Prayers and tears were all in vain
Happy angels came and took him
From this world of toil and pain
He is gone but not forgotten
He slumbers sweet, but has no care
His heart was true, his life was young
Yonot our will but God's be done.
By his MOTHERS and SISTERS.

CHANLER—In sad but loving remembrance of our devoted daughter, Ida Rowena, who departed this life March 22, 1918.
We mourn for you dear daughter
But not with outward show
For the heart that mourns sincerely
Mourns silently and low.
Dearest Rowena thou hast left us
We the grief most deeply feel
But 'tis Jesus who will caress us
He will all our sorrows heal.
By her MOTHER AND FATHER.

JOHNSON—In memory of my father William C. Johnson, who departed this life 21 years ago, March 19th, also my brother, William J. Johnson, (the late undertaker) four years ago March 5th. Gone but not forgotten.
JULIA JOHNSON.

WATKINS—Caroline Watkins departed this life March 1st, 1919. Beloved wife of Addison Watkins and mother of Cornelia Anderson, Mrs. Catherine Smallwood and Mrs. Nellie Miller are adopted daughters.
When in that glorious morning
The saints shall all arise
We will meet as the day is dawning
And reign above the skies.
By her loving HUSBAND and DAUGHTERS.

BARNEY—In sad and loving remembrance of my beloved mother and father, Annie Barney, who died ten years ago, March 18th, 1909; William Barney, who died three years ago March 18th, 1916.
These precious ones from me are taken
I miss them and mourn for them
In silence unseen
And dwell on the memory of joys that have been.
Unknown and forgotten by some may they be
But the grave that contains them
Is sacred to me.
By their loving daughter
JENNIE PHILLIPS.
826 Druid Hill Avenue.

HALL—Sacred to the memory of Julius Hall, who departed this life on September 26th, 1918, and my niece Winefred Willmenia Hall, who departed this life November 17th, 1918.
Dear Father and Winefred, while far over the seas with the fighting forces, you were called away. We did not say good-bye to you, dear Father and Winefred, but you will never be forgotten as long as life and memory lasts for I will always remember you.
JOSEPH JULIUS HALL.

JOHNSON—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear baby, Florence E. Johnson, who departed this life one year ago today, March 17, 1918
I often sit and think of you
When I am all alone
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.
By her mother and father
AMOS & EULA JOHNSON
1402 Druid Hill Avenue.

TRAVES—In loving remembrance of my dear son, Walter Traves, who died one year ago, March 19th, 1918, and my dear daughter, Missouri Gobugen, who died February 15th, 1910.
They are gone but not forgotten.
The precious ones from us have gone
We do not know the pain they bore
We did not see them die
But only know they slipped away
Without bidding us good-bye.
I often sit and think of you
When I am all alone
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.
