Lieutenant and Mrs. Benjamin Wright, of New York City spent the week-end in the city as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roye Jones of McCulloh street. Lieut. Wright has quite recently returned from overseas and with Mrs. Wright has been visiting friends and relatives in Norfolk, Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia. Mrs. Wright, who was formerly Miss Pauline Fisher of this city, has many friends and relatives here and will always be remembered as on of Baltimore's most beautiful girls. Lieut. Wright is a prominent New Yorker and has frequently visited here.

Lieut. and Mrs. Koger left the city last week to spent some time in the southland.

Lieut. Robert Johnson is visiting in New York city. Lieut. Johnson is one of "Baltimore's own" and quite recently gave a very interesting illustrated talk to the pupils of School No. 103.

Prof. Alvin Jones, of Washington, a former Baltimorean visited the city for a few hours Sunday.

Miss Cornelia Wilson is spending some time in New York.

Dr. R. Garland Chissell was called to Petersburg last week on account of the death of his father.

Baltimoreans were deeply pained to hear of the death of Mrs. Poole, of Atlantic City, a short time ago. Mrs. Poole was well known to many who visited the "City-by-the-Sea" where her cottage was patronled by th most representative members of th rac. Mr.

Mrs. Joseph Briscoe of Presstman Virginia where she was calld by th sickness of her brother. street has returned to her home from Miss Ida Cummings, who has been quite sick is convalescent.

Misses Mary Toney, Lottie Ruff, and Rosa Nixon gave a very enjoyable party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Hamer on last Friday evening. Their guests included Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Gloster, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Taylor, Mrs. Geo. Murray, Misses Emma Dorsette, Mary Hughes, Lillian Hughes, Alice Mitchell, Messrs Edward Hughes, Lee Shipley, Fred. Young and John Hampton.

Miss Hattie Tyler had afew of her friends in most informally last Wednesday evening to play cards. Her guests included Misses Sarah Fernandis, Helen Carter, Florence Fax, Mr. Marcellus Walker, Mr. Frank Sorrell and Mr. Lloyd Sample.

Miss Pearl Fisher was the charming hostess to the members of "The Art Club" on Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Carrington L. Davis.

The stork visited the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Waller last week and left a fine baby girl.

A delegation of the Uplift League headed by its president, Dr. Campbell, visited Washington Thursday and held a conference with Senator Frances relative to a most eloquent and logical petition that is to be sent the President of the United States.

ACTIVITIES AT THE WAR

CAMP COMMUNITY CLUB

The W. C. C. S. C. is living up to the fine record it has established. During the past month 9,873 men enjoyed the privileges and benefits of the club and 1,500 were provided with sleeping quarters. The dances and musicales continue to be largely attended. A few Saturday nights ago motion light pictures were taken at the dance. These pictures are splendid. and Mr. Emmett Scott intends to use them in "The History of Negroes in the Great War" which he is now preparing. The local W. C. C. S. C. has been taken as a model in every respect. This is a most flattering and worthy compliment to Dr. Weaver and his splendid corp of workers who have been unceasing in their efforts. Quite a feature of the last Saturday's dance was the jugglers demonstration as given by Private Pvt. Bynum. He pleased the spectators. In fact, so enthusiastic were the civilians become over the men in olive drab, that the directors are hoping to run a special vaudeville feature each week. The outstanding number of last Sunday's program was the most admirable paper by Lieut. Smith, "Employment of the Disabled Soldier." He treated his subject practically and intelligently. The program was in charge of the "Jolly Girls" and they rendered a very creditable one, which included musical numbers, and several well selected readings. Miss Wharton who has so recently been added to the staff has gone to the work with a "snap" and a "vim" that is characteristic of most of her ventures. She has been formed in physical culture, games, calesthenics and Swedish dancing. The classes are made up of girls from the "Music Settlement," Mount St. School, clubs and service Girls. Those who have been attending have become so enthusiastic that many others have wished to join. To that end, it is planned to have another class.

The Monumental Tennis Club, composed of Baltimore's best tennis players, is hoping to build a modern and well equipped club house and grounds. It is most likely that it will be built on Morgan Park which is coming more and more into the limelight.

The basket ball games seem to be the particular craze at this time for the younger contingent of society in particular. Last week the Orioles club of this city played Carlyle team of Washington in the Odd Fellows Hall, Washington. The game was followed by a dance. The basket ball enthusiasts will recall Carlyle team as the one which played here a few weeks ago and attracted all by their clever playing and their uniform suits. The game was a close one and resulted in victory for the Washingtonians. The Orioles include some of our most popular boys. They are: Rosa Brown, Gladys Bert James, Tryphena Campbell, Hermione Wharton. Miss Bailey was coach. Other Baltimoreans who went over were: Misses Cora Wharton, Genevie Holland, Travers, Emma Westcott, Mary Williams, Emma Roleg, Mrs. Marie Flack, Messrs. Earl Johnson, Webb.
