1 regarding methods of publication of referenda which will
2 insure its publication in at least three newspapers
3 of general circulation throughout the political subdivision.
4 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Scanlan, Inote the last 5 clause of Section 11 authorizes the Convention to 6 provide for the publication of any of its other docu-
7 ments and reports. I take it that the Convention, if 8 it deemed wise, could authorize preparation and publica-
9 tion of a summary or explanation?
10 MR. SCANLAN: I am sure that language would 11 be broad enough to cover that.
12 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion on 13 13?
14 DR. BURDETTE: I am a little uncertain
15 whether the Committee may have considered or whether 16 this language indicates it has considered the possibility 17 the Convention might like to submit the Constitution in 18 part. There is a certain inference here but it seems 19 to me if it is so that the determination is in the 20 wrong place. On Page 11 where the sentence begins at 21 said election, there shall be printed upon each ballot
