Lieutenant and Mrs. Benjamin Wright of New York City spent the week-end in the city as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hove Jones of McCulloh street. Lieut. Wright has quite recently returned from overseas and with Mrs. Wright has been visiting friends and relatives in Norfolk, Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia. Mrs. Wright, who was formerly Miss Pauline Fisher of this city, has many friends and relatives here and will always be remembered as one of Baltimore's most beautiful girls. Lieut. Wright is a prominent New Yorker and has frequently visited here.

Lieut. and Mrs. Koger left the city last week to spend some time in the southland.

Lieut. Robert Johnson is visiting in New York city. Lieut. Johnson is one of "Baltimore's own" and quite recently gave a very interesting illustrated talk to the pupils of School No. 103.

Prof. Alvin Jones, of Washington, a former Baltimorean visited the city for a few hours Sunday.

Miss Cornelia Wilson is spending some time in New York.

Dr. B. Garland Chissell was called to Petersburg last week on account of the death of his father.

Baltimoreans were deeply pained to hear of the death of Mrs. Poole, of Atlantic City, a short time ago. Mrs. Poole was well known to many who visited the "City-by-the-Sea," where her cottage was patronized by the most representative members of the race.

Mr. Joseph Briscoe of Presstman Virginia where she was called by the illness of her brother.

Miss Ida Cummings, who has been quite sick is convalescent.

Misses Mary Toney, Lottie Ruff, and Rose Nixon gave a very enjoyable party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Hamer on last Friday evening. Their guests included Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Gloster, Mr. and Mrs. E. Taylor, Mrs. Geo. Murray, Misses Emma Dorsette, Mary Hughes, Lillian Hughes, Alice Mitchell, Messrs Edward Hughes, Lee Shipley, Fred. Young and John Hampton.

Miss Hattie Tyler had a few of her friends most informally last Wednesday evening to play cards. Her guests included Misses Sarah Fernandis, Bessie Carter, Florence Fax, Mr. Marcellus Walker, Mr. Frank Sorrell and Mr. Lloyd Sample.

Mrs. Pearl Fisher was the charming hostess to the members of "The Five Club" on Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. Arrington L. Davis.

The stork visited the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Waller last week and left a fine baby girl.

A delegation of the Uplift League headed by its president, Dr. Campbell, visited Washington Thursday and held a conference with Senator Frances relative to a most eloquent and logical petition that is to be sent the president of the United States.

ACTIVITIES AT THE WAR CAMP COMMUNITY CLUB

The W. C. C. S. C. is living up to the fine record it has established during the past month. 9,873 men enjoyed the privileges and benefits of the club and 1,300 were provided with overnight quarters. The dances and musicales continue to be largely attended. A few Saturday nights ago movie and picture were taken at the dance. These pictures are splendid. And Mr. Emmett Scott intends to use them in "The History of Negroes in the Great War" which he is now preparing. The local W. C. C. S. C. has been taken as a model in every respect. This is a most flattering and worthy compliment to Dr. Weaver and his splendid corp of workers who have been unceasing in their efforts. Quite a feature of the past Saturday's dance was the jugling demonstration as given by Prof. Class Pvt. Bynum. He pleased the spectators. In fact, so enthusiastic have the civilians become over the men in olive drab, that the directors are hoping to run a special vaudeville feature each week. The outstanding number of last Sunday's program was a most admirable paper by Lieut. Macbeth, "Employment of the Discharged Soldier." He treated his subject practically and intelligently. The program was in charge of the "Service Girls" and they rendered a most creditable one, which included musical numbers, and several well selected readings. Miss Wharton who has so recently been added to the force has come to the work with a "bang" and a "swim" that is catching. Most of most of her ventures. Classes have been formed in physical training, games, calesthenics and ballroom dancing. The classes are made up of girls from the "Music Settlement, Mount St. School, clubs and Service Girls. Those who have been attending have become so enthusiastic that many others have wished to join. To that end, it is planned to have another class.

The Monumental Tennis Club, composed of Baltimore's best tennis players, is hoping to build a modern and well equipped club house and grounds. It is most likely that it will be built at Morgan Park which is coming more and more into the limelight.

The basket ball games seem to be the particular craze at this time for the younger contingent of society in particular. Last week the Orioles Club of this city played Carlyle team of Washington in the Odd Fellows Hall, Washington. The game was followed by a dance. The basket ball enthusiasts will recall Carlyle team as the one which played here a few weeks ago and attracted all by their clever playing and their nifty uniform suits. The game was a close one and resulted in victory for the Washingtonians. The Orioles committee some of our most popular girls. They are: Rosa Brown, Gladys Haines, Bert James, Tryphena Campbell, Hermione Wharton, Miss Bailey by coach, Otho Gilmore. Baltimoreans present were: Misses Connie Wharton, Genevie Holland, Emma Travers, Emma Westcott, Mary Williams, Emma Holes, Mrs. Marie Purple Flags, Messrs. Earl Johnson, Bernard Webb.

Mrs. Alfred Rohoblt left the city Tuesday for Columbus, Ohio where her daughter, Mrs. Walter Ward, is BIG V COMEDY—"DARING and DYNAMITE" in 2 acts.

SAMPSON AND DELILAH

Giant 8 ft. Tall, Weighing 375 Pounds, Wearing Collar Number 26 and Shoes Number 23 Killed By Little Woman.

Milwaukee, March 26.—George Bell, the largest man in the world, the laughing giant black man, in "Chu Chin Chow," was shot to death by his common-law wife, Mazie Easley, in a local rooming house. One bullet pierced his heart, another went through his right eye.

The show opened in Milwaukee Monday night. Bell appeared as the bean feaver, he made love in the grotesque balcony scene; he walked off the stage laughing his great, booming, rollicking laugh. After that he went down into the colored quarter of the city with Mazie Easley, who has followed his stage career for the last year and a half. They entered a dance hall and danced until almost dawn. Bell, who was his huge size—he was seven feet tall—was highly popular with the young women at the ball. They swarmed around him, begging for dances. He picked them up and carried them about in his arms, laughing his famous laugh as they kicked their heels and squealed and struggled in his powerful grip.

Mazie Easley sat against the wall and nursed her jealousy. When they started home she was raving. There was a violent scene. Her first shot went into his heart. She shot again, the bullet passing through his eye and clear thru his head.

The "Chin Chin Chow" company played in Manhattan Opera House New York, and has many colored actors from New York in the cast.
