CHINS HIGH ON CABARETS

Rev. Gray Will Ask Police Authorities To Interfere

THREE IN NORTHWEST

"Shimmy" Girls In Red Tights Dance And Sing Suggestive Songs

Whether or not the Baptist Ministers' Conference will agree to concerted, immediate steps will be taken up to have the police close up immoral cabarets, according to Rev. Junius Gray, pastor of Beatitude Baptist Church this week. Rev. Gray asked the conference to appoint a committee to cooperate with him in closing up bad cabaret shows throughout the city. While waiting for their action, Rev. Gray said he had gotten the police to stop various features in no cabarets and expected to continue the warfare on others.

To a representative of the AFRO-AMERICAN he pointed out Gelman's Cabaret, Pennsylvania Avenue and Smith street, Lenox Cabaret, Chestnut Alley and Mosher street, and Kipperle Cabaret Saratoga and Somerset street, as three of the most vicious places in Baltimore city.

The first named cabaret is situated in a small room next to the bar and holds a dozen or more tables at which sat both men and women drinking and smoking while a half dozen barmaids and waiters were kept busy serving them drinks. The place had not yet recently closed and crowds packed the aisle and the "Shimmy" dances of the worst type were performed by a dancer girl in red silk tights, accompanied by a noisy jazz drum and another woman singer.

Practically the same conditions were found at Lenox Cabaret except for the crowd which consisted mostly of men and half dresses. The representative of the AFRO-AMERICAN looked in on the scene for about two minutes before one of the colored attendants dropped the hinge and the girl from Mosher and put a very pained face. "We don't shut the door there for the private" was sometime after the number of times the waiter endeavored to put me out on the ethics of life in the drinkery and "shimmy" and how much her soul was worth to him. Red must be the favorite nation color for the red silk tights were found in Lenox also.

Gilmon Cabaret is neither on the second floor and differs from the other two only in the fact that it has vocal waiters. "I'm going to keep my hour while open till my mamie comes home, was the theme sung and buzzed by the waiter artist. Dancing, music and applause from the many couples at the tables showed their appreciation.

Asked by the decent people of this community "how what was going on in those cabarets they couldn't go to bed with a clear conscience" Rev. Gray replied, "Suggestive songs and suggestive dances prove immorality of the worst kind. One of the bad features is that the promoters in most cases are white men who are using these and young to sell their drinks and corrupt young women and men. "Proper amusement" he said, "would be united with the police authorities against these cabarets and others."

Street Preaching Illegal

Buffalo, N. Y., July 29.—Summons residents complained about preachers having church in front of their homes, evangelists who insist on street preaching are looked to have an charge of being disorderly.

BISHOP BROOKS HOME

To Rest A Few Days Before Making Another Swing Through The Country

After touring Chicago, Detroit and other cities in the West and coming home by way of Brooklyn, Newark and Pennsylvania towns, Bishop W. Sampson Brooks is home for a few days rest. He will preach the second Sunday in August and begins his tour in Philadelphia and suburban cities.

Bishop Brooks' plan for a training school, to erect and equip a hospital in his African field to take care of the witch doctors and the medicine men is meeting with success throughout the country. The Bishop will leave for Africa late in the fall.

The Annual Conference and Sunday School convention of the Baltimore District will be held at Rocky Mount, N. C. P. Church next week. Rev. J. T. Molock is the pastor.

Mrs. Roberta Gresham, president of the Independent Israelite Society takes this opportunity to thank Mrs. Lewis, Messrs Douglas Butler, committees, also Mr. and Mrs. William Payne for their kind assistance in helping to make the carnival a brilliant success which was held the week of July 12th

STARTS INDEPENDENT CHURCH

Former Pastor of Mother Bethel Has Large Following.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 29—Rev. R. S. Williams, former pastor of Mother Bethel Church, is now preaching in the Gladstone Theatre before crowds every Sunday. Last Sunday he collected $700 to start an Independent Church at Christian and Broad streets.

Rev. Williams is one of the strongest ministers in the city and run afoul of the Bethel trustees in the question of finance and was taken away from Bethel Church and sent to Devons, Pa. He refused to go and has started his new church, drawing on members from Bethel. Forty-eight of them are said to have joined him last Sunday.

Bethel Church has twenty-three hundred members and for this reason some of them will not be missed.

ISSUE JOINT STATEMENT

Revs. Callis And Crawley Say They Favor City Wide Movement

In a joint statement made to the AFRO-AMERICAN Rev. A. E. Callis and Rev. A. Crawley declared that they do not oppose action by the Baptist ministers against vulgar cabarets in the city but oppose action being taken by Baptist ministers alone.

"All ministers in the city should be called together to better conditions," the statement declares.

Ask One Million People To Pray

Rev. William E. Thomas, an evangelist, whose home is in Philadelphia, is speaking in the churches of the city, soliciting one million people to pray to stop lynching.

Rev. Mr. Thomas was formerly presiding elder of a church in Michigan and a member of other Western conferences. He is a graduate of Hampton and of the Newton Bible College. So far he has spoken in Connecticut, New Jersey and Pennsylvania and after leaving here will go into the South asking people to pray against lynching.

S. S. CONVENTION AT HAGERSTOWN

Our State Baptists In Session Two Days.

Hagerstown, Md., July 29.—The twenty-second annual session of the Free Baptist Sunday School Convention convened at Zion Church Saturday and Sunday of last week. Delegates from Virginia, West Virginia and Maryland were present. Shoemaker, Va., reported the oldest Sunday School, 44 years. William Brown was elected president and Chas. B. Jones, secretary. The next session will be at Winchester, Virginia.

FRANKLIN—In sad and loving remembrance of my dear wife, Bessie May Franklin, who departed this life one year ago July 29, 1919.

Whose love can equal the love of a mother?
Whose devotion was so true as our?
Who suffers so much with our for another?
Who worries with such pleasure mother for you?
You hail with delight the [illegible] of others,
You revel in love of the sweetness you've won.
Yet where do you find a true ship like mother's
Unbroken till death calls and life's work is done.

By her HUSBAND and CHILDREN

MURPHY—In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother Emma Murphy, who departed this life on July 31, 1919.

Gone from earth, yes gone forever.
Dear dimmed eyes do look in vain.
I shall hear her voice no, never.
Never no more on earth again.
One sad year with all its changes,
Since death suddenly bade us part.
But dear mother all the changes
Cannot take you from my heart.

By her son, BERNARD SHORTER

HAWKINS—In sad remembrance of our dear father George H. Hawkins who died one year ago July 31, 1919.

From a world of pain and sorrow
To a land of peace and rest,
God has taken our dear father.
Where you have found eternal rest.

By his daughter and son, HENRIETTA AND GEORGE J. HAWKINS.

NELSON—In sad but loving remembrance of my devoted husband John T. Nelson, who departed this life four years ago July 28 1916.

The month of July once more is here,
To me the saddest of the year.
For it was a July day
That my dear husband passed away.
But again I hope to meet him.
When on earth my days are done.
In heaven I hope to meet him
Where no farewell tears are shed.

By his devoted wife, ELLA NELSON.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. Carroll Johns, 248 N. ON WITH

DRIVE FOR $2,500.00

In the Mid-Summer Conference just closed at Mt. Pleasant M.P. Church, Washington, D.C. the ministers and delegates saw no way to liquidate the indebtedness of the General Church other than to put on this drive, and call upon the friends, well wishers and the generous public to help in this great cause. This is the first time in the history of the church that such a plea has been made. Owing to the great struggle of the church the officers are forced.
