White Bartenders Are Out Of Style

Prohibition Has Brought Many Colored "Dispensers" In To Take Their Places

THEY GET RICH

Bootlegging Shows Big Profit In Silk Shirts And Autos Thruout State

One of the chief benefits of the prohibition era is the ousting out of the lordly white bartender, a representative of the AFRO-AMERICAN was told last week.

His informer was a well known citizen of Frederick, Md., in town to attend the annual state gathering of Masons, and coming from this source the information can be depended upon as absolutely reliable. Here is the story:

"Everybody knows that the prohibition amendment is one of the best laws placed upon the statute books in the past ten years. Not only are the young boys kept from the temptation of the saloon, but the older men are prevented from wasting their weekly earnings at the corner bar room.

"I overheard a friend of mine talking to a former white bartender the other day, and when the ex-tickler dispenser said something about the saloon coming back, my friend jumped on him. My friend said, 'I buy all the whiskey I want, even with the prohibition laws in force, and you can bank on me voting to keep the saloon as dead as a door nail.'

"When you had that saloon up to the City Hotel, and I came up to the bar and asked for a drink, you looked at me as much as to say, why don't you take your hat off. You did not ask me to take it off, because you knew I wouldn't, but that is the way you looked at me. You did not want me to stay long at the bar either. You wanted me to buy my drink, swallow it whole and get out, cause some white people might be standing around. Now you ain't got no job, and you have to work like I do, and you can't act so biggety."

The truth as the matter is that a good many bartenders, who acted in a lordly manner towards colored patrons have no jobs now, and their places have been taken by increasing number of colored barkeeps, known in ordinary language as "bootleggers."

The money that has formerly gone into the pockets of white saloonkeepers and their lordly barkeepers, now flows into the pockets of the bootleggers, some of whom have made many thousands of dollars. It is not legitimate money, and the making of it is attended with all kinds of risks, but it goes on nevertheless, and Commissioner Kramer and his hosts of Revenue officers are put to their wits ends to stop the traffic. Silk shirts and automobiles are but two evidences of how fast these law breakers are making money.

Around the city, many of the old saloons with a jim crow apartment for colored drinkers have gone out of business. Few of them can live off the soft drink trade. Their places have been taken by the "buffet flat," where "Horke Vino," and sometimes the real old "red eye likker" is dispensed with jazz accompaniment.

Yep it is a sad story, but it is true that the well to do bootlegger has taken the place of the lordly barkeep.

CALLS HIMSELF A "COUNTRYMAN"

Professor S. H. Long Comments On Political Situation In City

"For the life of me, a countryman, I can't see why the colored voters of Baltimore want to knife O. E. Weller," said Professor S. H. Long, of Pocomoke City.

Assuming the air of an unsophisticated countryman, Mr. Long then proceeded to take colored voters to task for opposing Weller because of the treatment Mayor Broening has accorded colored voters in this fashion:

"Why punish John for something Bill has done?

"When told that John may have made Bill behave himself, the unsophisticated countryman then replied." I know Senator Smith, as he comes from my county. I know what he has done against the political right of the race. If the Republicans don't do anything for us they certainly dont' do anything against us' he concluded, evidently overlooking the fact that affirmative and not negative results are what the group of citizens behind the senatorial candidacy of W. Ashbie Hawkins desire.

Divorce Quickly Gotten

Mrs. Amelia Jones, of the 2300 block of Stockton street, has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Thomas Jones. Abandonment was the cause. The examination of the suit was only 21 days from the time it was begun, something unusually in the local courts. Copper L. Pendleton was her attorney.

Tenth Warders Organize

A number of voters of the Tenth Ward gathered at the residence of Daniel W. Hyde, 1419 E. Madison street, and organized a Republican club. The club will heartily support Harding and Coolidge, and may support the other candidates.

BAKER OUT TO OPPOSE ATWOOD

Another Independent Candidate Announces Himself For Congress.

Harvey R. Baker, white, 303 W. 32nd street, has announced his candidacy for Congress from the Fourth District. He will oppose Atwood and Kuckemann, Republicans, and Linthicum, Democrat. In his announced platform, Mr. Baker favors equal rights for colored people, employment of the disabled and unemployed, legislation for soldiers, referendum and repeal of the Volstead Act.

MAYOR WILL INVESTIGATE

Athletic Heads To Be Asked Why They Excluded Colored Youths From Municipal Games

When informed that officials of the Municipal Athletic Games had decreed that colored boys would not be welcome in the Municipal Athletic Games to be held at Patterson Park on September 18th, Mayor Broening stated that he would investigate.

The Mayor stated that if the city appropriated the funds to finance the games at Patterson Park, then they should be open to all or a separate meet would be arranged for the colored people. He was not certain that the city supplied the organization with funds and added that he understood the games were financed by private individuals.

ROUGHLY HANDLED BY DETECTIVES

Mrs. Lucy Jennison Falsely Accused Of Shoplifting At Eisenbergs

Because she was pulled into Eisenberg's store on Lexington street, roughly handled and falsely accused of shoplifting, Mrs. Lucy Jennison of 739 George street, is considering a suit of damages against the store authorities.

Mrs. Jennison was on her way home from the office of the Gas Company and without warning, she was set upon by store detectives outside of Eisenberg's, pulled inside and the detectives demanded that she open her hand bag. She refused at first but they insisted declaring that some of the Company's silk goods was inside. When she finally opened the bag and satisfied the detectives they told her to go out the back way as quickly as possible. She walked out of the front door.

This occured last Monday and is said to be only one of several such incidents that have been noted in one of the downtown department stores. Mrs. Jennison complains of shock and says that her arm was hurt by the detectives.

THEY HELPED EACH OTHER

Elderly Women, One White Other Colored, Give Example Of Politeness

An elderly colored woman was alighting from one of the new one man cars on the Fremont avenue line at McMechen and Druid Hill avenue last Saturday, and an elderly white woman was waiting to get on the same car.

Seeing the slow progress her colored sister was making, the white woman gave her an arm and help her to alight. In return the colored woman turned and boosted her feeble white sister up the step of the car.

It was done with all the gentle courtesy and kindness so common to elderly people, and both of them smiled in true enjoyment of being able to assist each other.

PREDICTS A BRIGHT FUTURE

Messrs. Spaulding And Merrick Optimistic About Big Insurance Concern

That the Bankers' Fire Insurance Company, recently formed at Durham, N. C. with a capital of $500,000, will have a bright future, was the opinion of C. C. Spaulding and R. R. Merrick, prominent spirits in the new enterprise, who were in the city Monday to visit C. M. H. Johnson, Maryland manager of the North Carolina Life Insurance Company, Monday. The visitors, who are also officials of the latter company, were on their way home from Philadelphia, where they attended the National Negro Business League.

"MEDICINE" CREATES JAG

Dark Sold In Near Beer Saloons Has Queer Effects

Prohibition agents are watching the sale of a popular tonic, advertised as a medicine, which is on sale in near-beer saloons and grocery stores, and which is said to have enough alcoholic content to make an imbiber feel like he had drunk real "ski." Prosecutions are threatened for those who sell the same for a beverage. The sale of the so-called tonic is said to have reached large proportions.

DAVIS SEES HAWKINS

Tells Senatorial Aspirant That Many Are Offering Support

Atlantic City, Aug. 26.—J. Stewart Davis, chairman of the committee that is supporting the independent Republican candidacy of Attorney W. Ashbie Hawkins, arrived here today (Thursday) and reported to Mr. Hawkins that many are flocking to his candidacy. He said that nominating petitions have received many signatures.

DR. BOWLEY "KER-CHOOING"

"How did you enjoy your automobile trip to Atlantic City?" a reporter for the AFRO-AMERICAN asked Dr. J. Guy Bowley, 908 S. Sharp street, the other day.

"Fine,—ker choo!—we all—ker choo—felt benefitted—ker choo! This blamed hay fever—ker choo! has got me—ker choo!"

"Better write yourself a prescription and charge yourself two dollars," suggested the reporter, as Dr. Bowley ker chooed.

"Think I will—ker choo!" replied the physician as he went ker chooing down Hanover street.

This is the hay fever season and many folks are ker chooing.

GROCER UP AGAINST IT

"I have been up against it for past 3 years suffering from pain in my stomach and side until I was considering giving up my grocery business. Doctors and medicine did not help me. I heard of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy through a friend in Buffalo. The first dose gave me more benefit than all the medicine I had taken before and am now feeling as well as ever in my life." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.
